

The 1956 Blackhawk

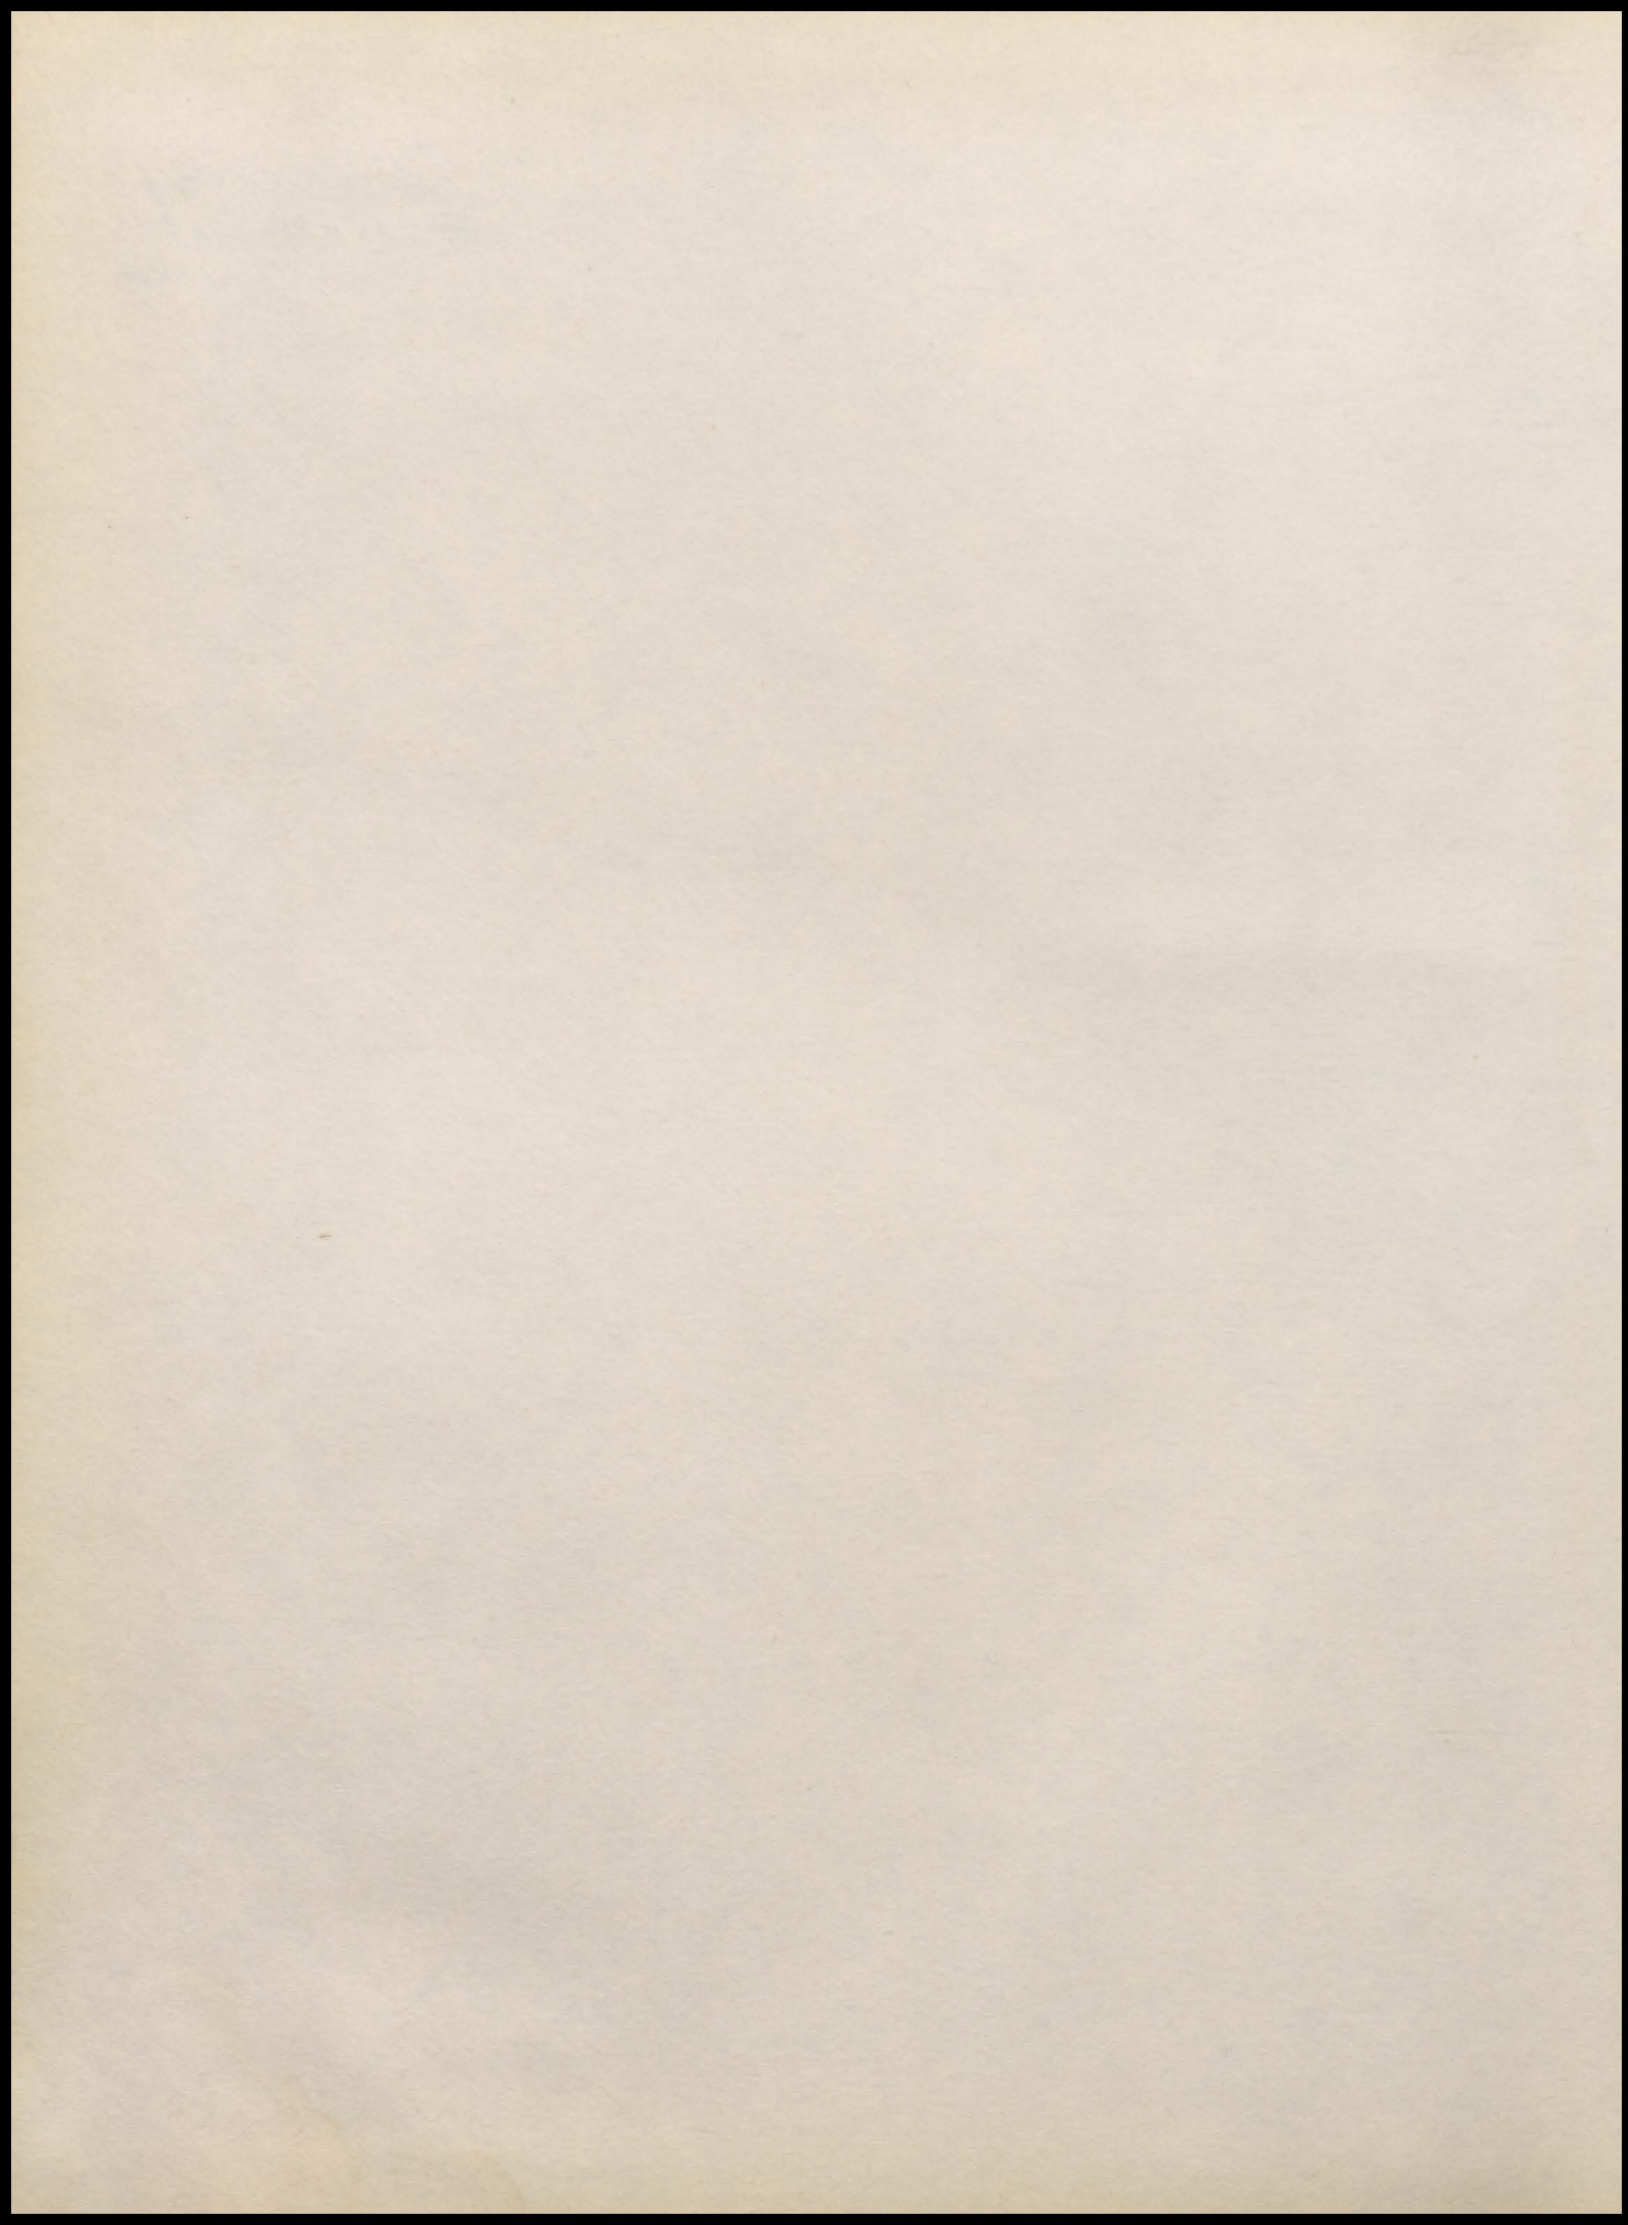

Fair Oxford, Pride of all the valley
We come with our all to thee
To mold our lives and build our hopes
As thou wouldst have them be
The lessons thou dost give us here
Will fit us well for life
In later years we'll still love and bless thee
When in the great world's strife,

Oh, Alma Mater, thy sons and daughters
Will strive to honor thee
As time rolls on our glorious bright banner
Is noble and pure and free
And when we come back in memories eye
To scenes that long are past
We'll look with joy on the days that we spent
'Neath the hues of the red and black,

Music--"Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes,"

OXFORD ACADEMY and CENTRAL SCHOOL

Oxford, New York

Foreword

For the purpose of preserving the many memories of our school life, the class of 1956 has edited the 1956 Blackhawk. Throughout our days at Oxford Academy and Central School we have shared many experiences, met new problems, and depended on our mutual friendships to surmount each obstacle.

Through the pictures and words in this book we hope we have made it possible for these most treasured memories to be relived many times.

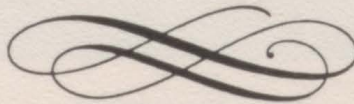

MRS. IDA GRIFFIN

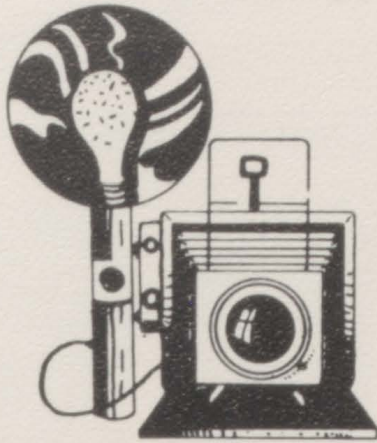

Dedication

To Mrs. Griffin for her sincere and patient guidance throughout our high school days and her invaluable advice in our many activities, we dedicate the 1956 Blackhawk.

Appreciation

A yearbook, regardless of size, takes endless effort to prepare. We, the class of 1956, feel especially indebted to Mr. Tinker, the principal, the board of education, and the two yearbook advisors, Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Adams, for all they have done. The merchants have also supported this project in no small way by their subscriptions for advertising. May we say "thank you" to all of you.

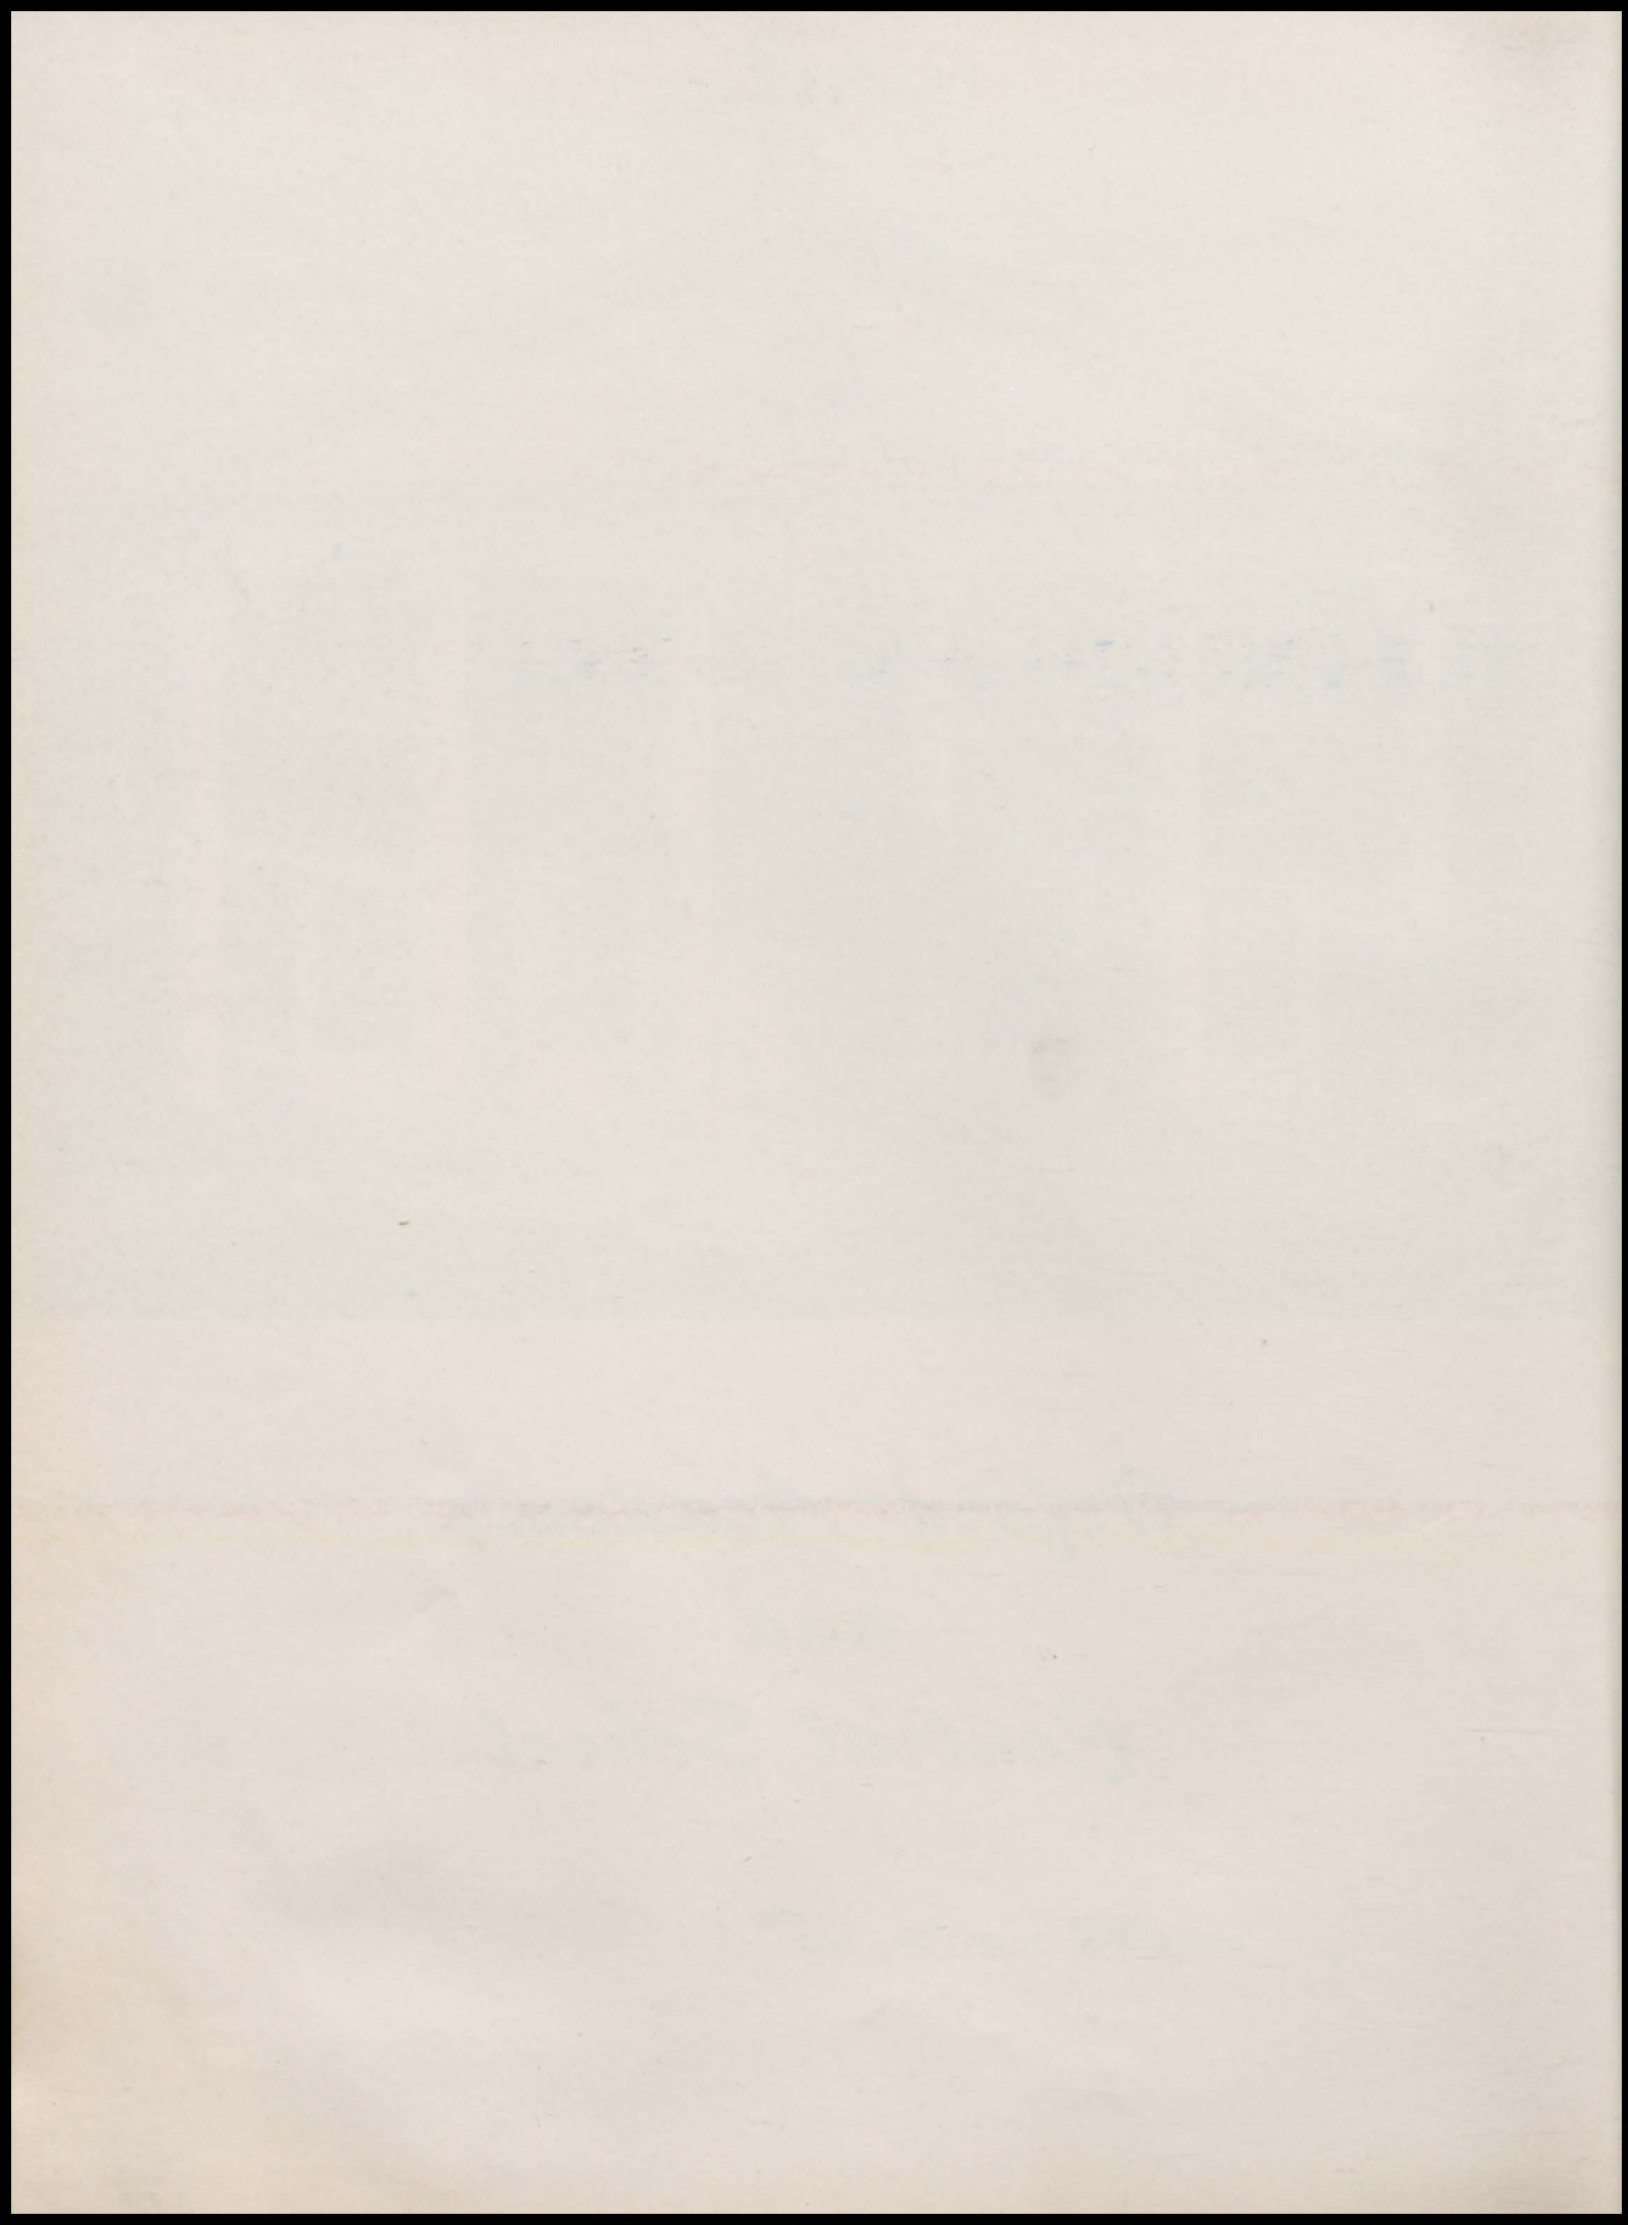

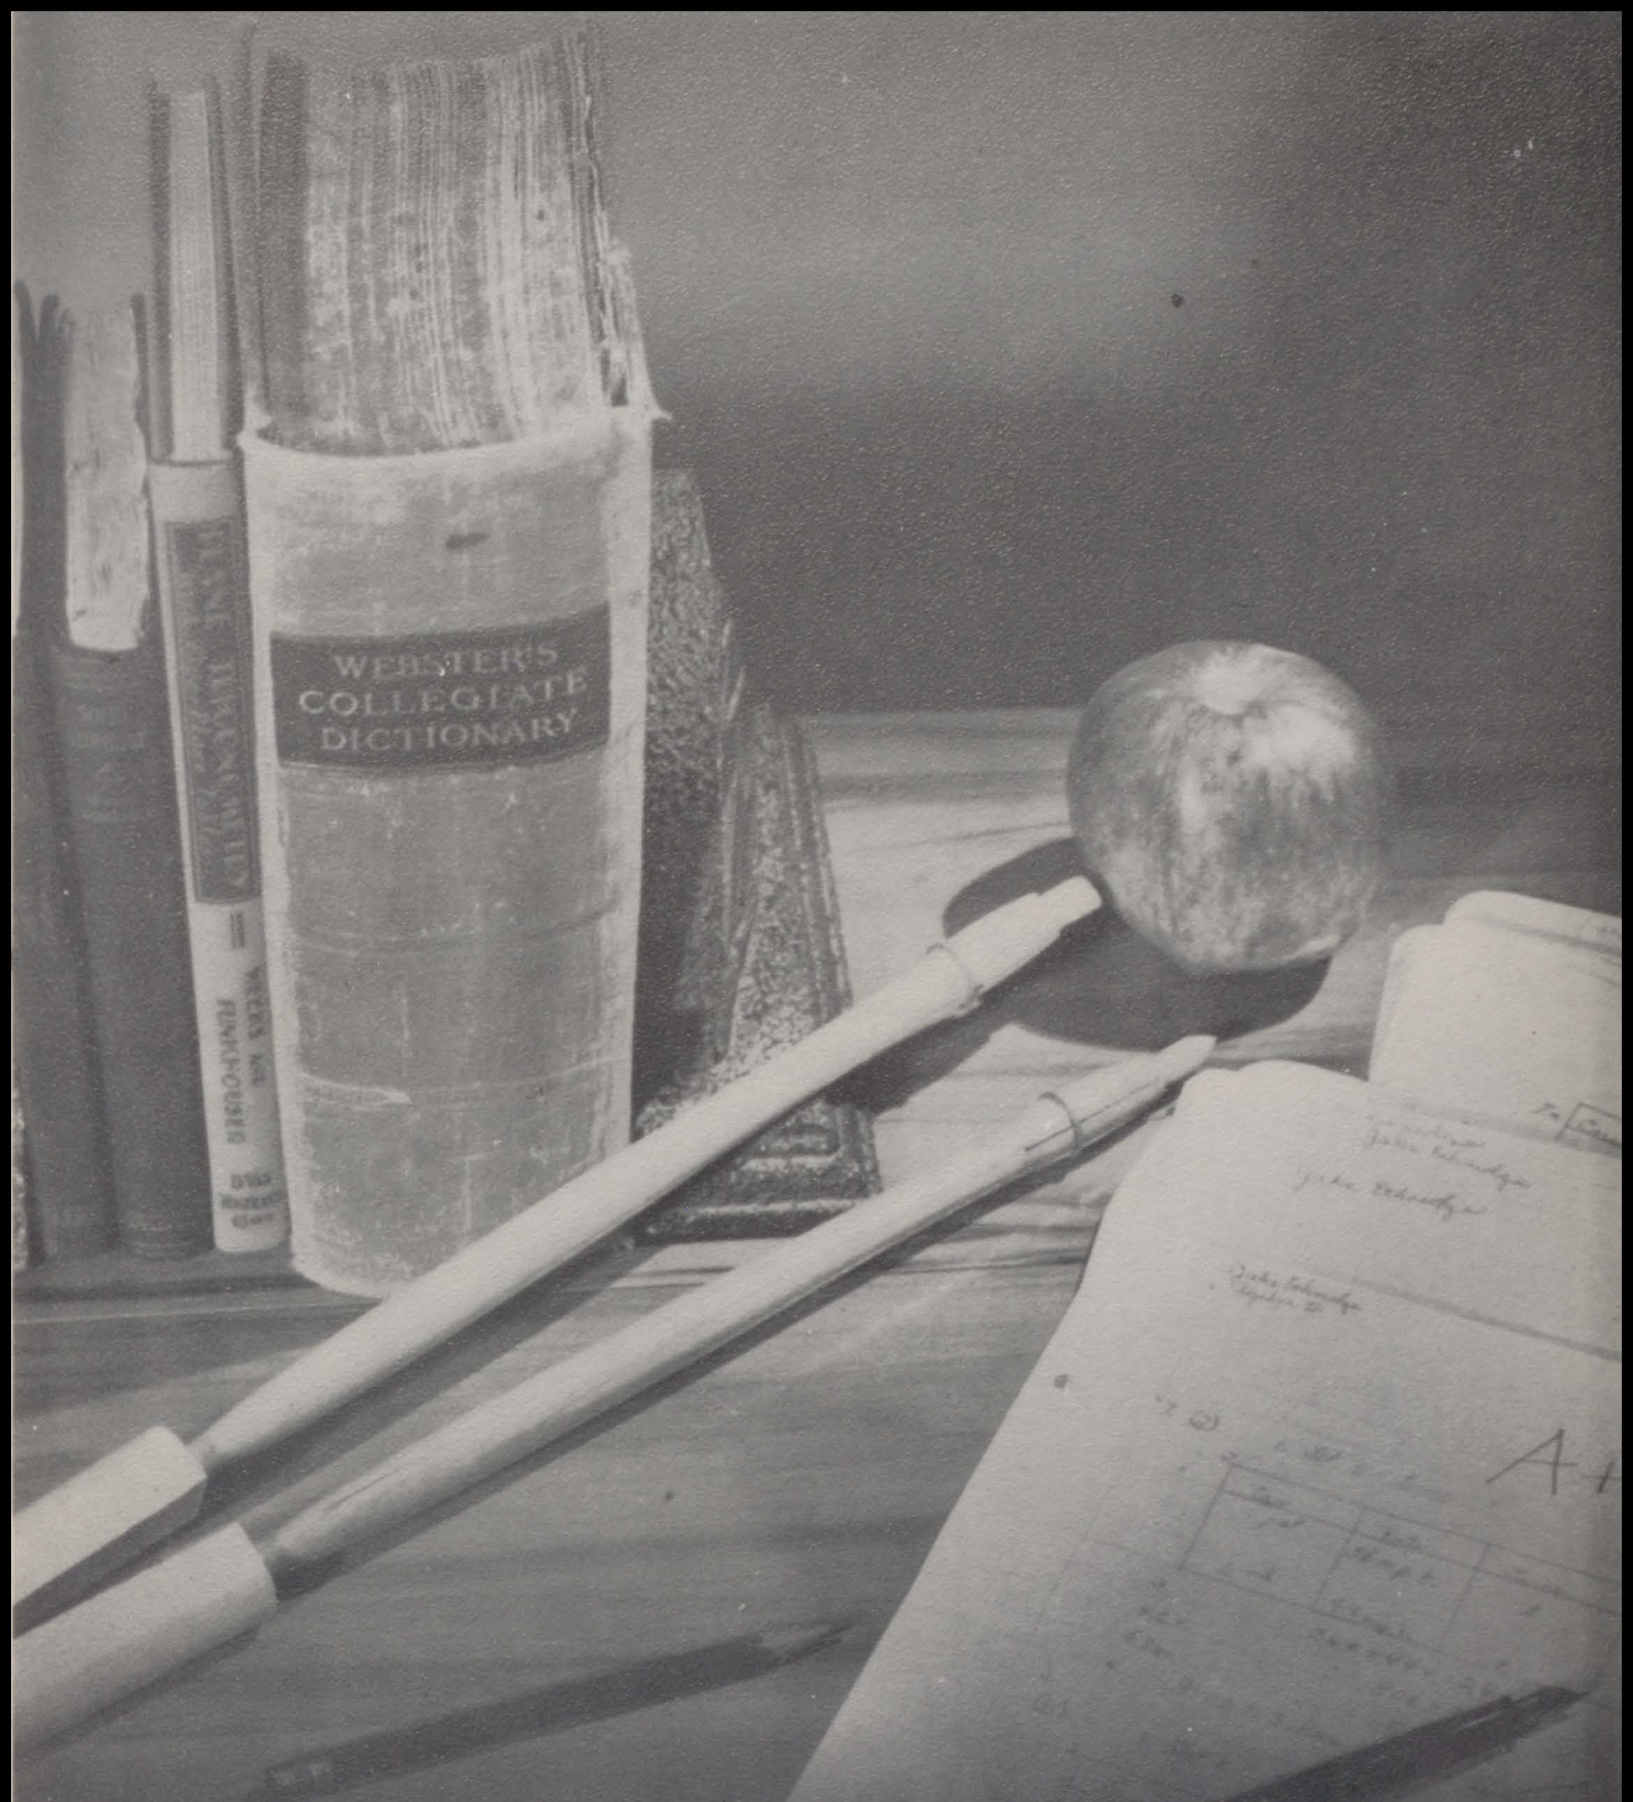

In making this yearbook, the staff depended on Mr. Paul Crawford for most of the photography work done. Mr. Crawford took the time from his Pharmacy to carry out this task for us. Therefore, we feel deeply obligated to him and sincerely thank him for his service.

Administration

MR. ERNEST G. YOUMANS
District Supervisor

I am always proud to say that I graduated from Oxford Academy. All of us have a responsibility to help maintain the good reputation of our Alma Mater.

Ernest G. Youmans

Board of Education

Mr. William Hayden, Jr., Mr. Robert Race, Mr. Wayne Bullock, Mr. Baumes Marshman,
Mr. Lynn Seymour, President; Mrs. Barbara Whittaker, Clerk.

MISS WINIFRED MILAN
Secretary to the Principal

The graduates of Oxford Academy and Central School are the proud possessors of a fine body of tradition built up from a span of more than a century and a half. Each year Oxford's graduates enter the world of adult life equipped with fine manly and womanly traits as did those who have gone before.

MR. FREDERICK D. TINKER
Supervising Principal

You may well be proud of the quality of education you have received. Continue to ladies and gentlemen in the finest sense that you may reflect only that which is the best so that your school and your country may well be proud of you.

Class History

In 1952, we entered our freshman year under the guiding hand of Mrs. Griffin and Mr. Kruse. At the beginning of the second semester, Mr. Weinstein took Mr. Kruse's place. We elected Eddie, president; Wayne, vice president; Midge, secretary; and Marilyn, treasurer. Our first project, a television show, went over with a bang. That year we acquired a good reputation for sponsoring class parties.

As sophomores we discovered just how much work high school really was. Mrs. Griffin's watchful eye was again upon us with Mrs. Frasure as her assistant. Wayland was elected president; Midge, vice president Marilyn, secretary; and Julia, treasurer. Wayland was also elected secretary of the Student Association. That year we sponsored a minstrel show which unveiled all the hidden talent in our class.

We started our junior year in '54 under the direction of Mrs. Griffin and Mr. Preston. Our class officers were president, Eddie; vice president, Daphne; secretary, Elizabeth; and treasurer, Julia. Jean Bliven was elected vice president and Wayne, treasurer of the Student Association. That fall juniors could be seen tramping the streets selling magazine subscriptions. Several members of the class had parts in a school play, Stephen Foster. This was a very busy year since work was started on the yearbook and we were working on the "Gateway to Paradise" theme for our Junior Prom. The prom was a great success with a member of the junior class, Donna Bradt, and her excort, Dean Simpson being elected queen and king. We finally received our class rings.

In the fall of '55, we were all together in the big study hall for our homeroom under the guidance of Mrs. Griffin. Again we had another new advisor, Mr. Tefft. Joe was elected by the student body as Student Council president. Jean Bliven was elected the treasurer of the Student Association. On November 17, we presented our senior play, January Thaw, which received very good reviews. The events which occurred during this, our last year, came in rapid succession. First, we selected our class motto, "What we are to be, we are now becoming." Our class colors, baby blue and charcoal black; our class song, "Moments to Remember," and our class flower, a pink carnation, were chosen. A group of ten senior girls formed an ensemble called the "Senioresses," and they sang for many organizations with great success. The rest of the year seemed to pass very quickly with many of the class working on the "Blackhawk," which we received in May.

The long-awaited day finally arrived on June 25, when forty-nine of us anxious seniors took our places on the stage for the commencement exercises. We were sorry the wonderful years were over, but we were ready to start out into the world and take our places in life----

LOUIS CARUANA

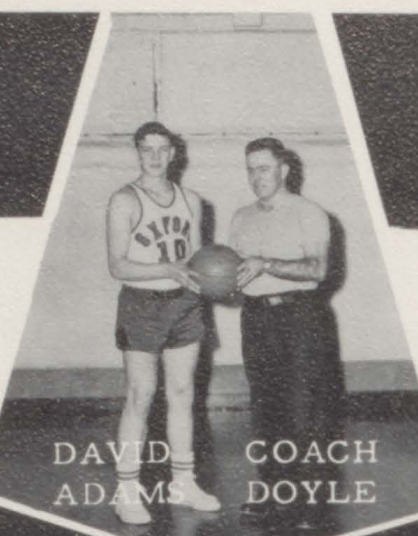

Although the 1955 Football teams did not have a very successful season, they did show a great deal of spirit against such strong opponents as Sherburne. Good sportsmanship and high morale also were shown throughout the season.

Congratulations on your success!

With graduation comes a new feeling of independence. But, along with this independence, there will be increasing responsibilities entering your lives.

It is your responsibility to protect your material possessions, your health and future happiness. Whether it be coverage for your new car, protection for a home and personal possessions, or life insurance, you will find our agency always willing to advise you in your insurance needs.

Fair Oxford, Pride of all the valley
We come with our all to thee
To mold our lives and build our hopes
As thou wouldst have them be
The lessons thou dost give us here
Will fit us well for life
In later years we'll still love and bless thee
When in the great world's strife.

Oh, Alma Mater, thy sons and daughters
Will strive to honor thee
As time rolls on our glorious bright banner
Is noble and pure and free
And when we come back in memories eye
To scenes that long are past
We'll look with joy on the days that we spent
'Neath the hues of the red and black.

Music--"Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes."
Words by Gertrude Snell Scofield, class of 1907.
