Alma Mater

Fair Oxford, Pride of all the valley,
We come with our all to thee
To mold our lives and build our hopes
As thou wouldst have them be,
The lessons thou dost give us here
Will fit us well for life,
In later years we'll still love and bless thee
When in the great world's strife.

Oh, Alma Mater, thy sons and daughters
Will strive to honor thee,
As time rolls on our glorious bright banner
Is noble and pure and free;
And when we come back in memories' eye
To scenes that long are past,
We'll look with joy on the days that we spent
'Neath the hues of the red and black.

Foreword

The theme of this fifth volume of The Blackhawk is Oxford's sesqui-centennial. We have tried to compare the present with the past and trust that these pages will bring fond memories to fathers, mothers, grandparents and great-grandparents, since we have endeavored to bring to your eyes the growth of our community. We hope you will enjoy our "birthday present" to the village of Oxford.

Dedication

As our contribution to the spirit of the sesqui-centennial, we, the student body and planners for the future, dedicate this 1959 BLACKHAWK to our town, our foundation, one of the oldest and most important landmarks in the history of this section. Oxford proudly boasts of an academy, one of the first four schools to receive a charter west of the Hudson River, where we prepare ourselves for the future with the help and understanding of parents, friends and teachers--a period of our lives filled with both rough experiences and gay times.

We look forward to the day when we may, in some small way, add to this fine tradition and development of our historic Oxford.

BURTON ALGER

I'm a woman hater, but the Bible says, "Love thine enemies!"

ALICE ANDREWS

A handsome face, a flirtatious glance;
Down go my books and away I prance.

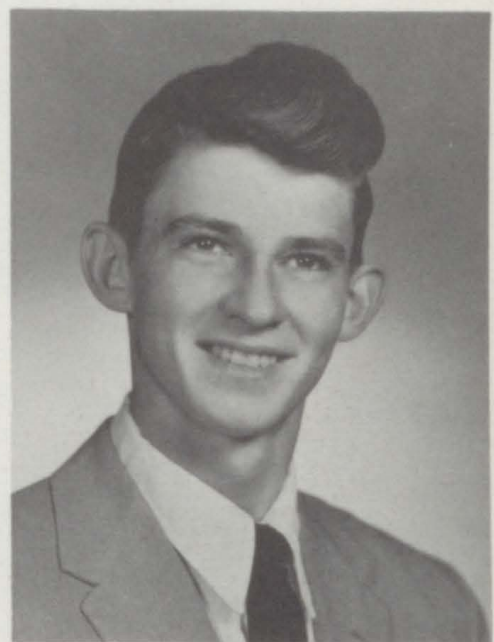

BARBARA BARRINGER

I may not be much, but I'm all I've got!

DUANE BARTLE

Money can't bring happiness, but it sure can make you enjoy being miserable.

DONALD BRADT

Better late than never.

JAMES BRANT

"What, me worry?"

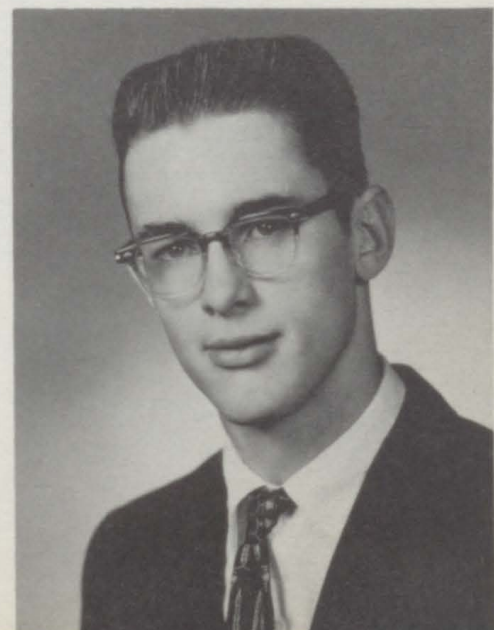

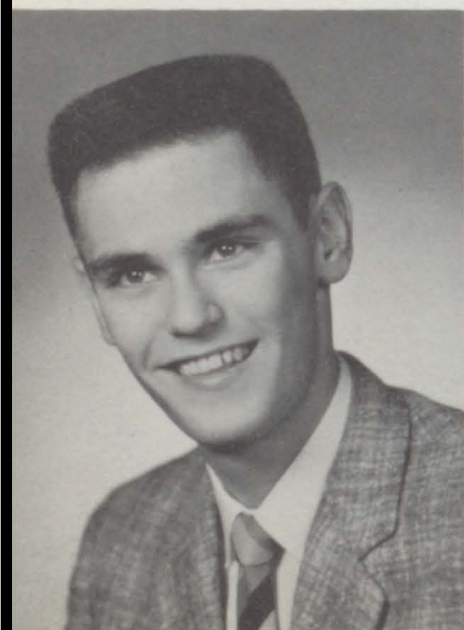

FRED COSEN

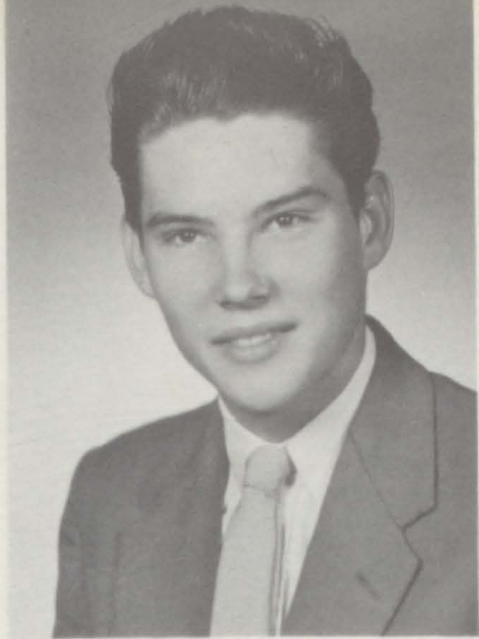

Wine, women and song help a dull day along.

DAVID CRANDALL

A superman from outer space,
Now here to join the human race.

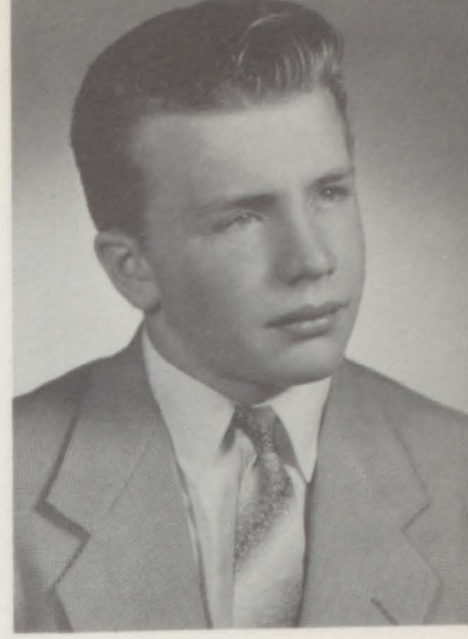

DONALD CYR

Work fascinates me. I could sit and watch it for hours.

MILDRED DEETER

Life is too short to waste.

DENNIS DeLONG

I can resist anything but temptation.

LINDA EMMICK

Thou has seen nothing yet!

MARIE DUNN

Her ways are ways of pleasantries, and all her paths are peace.

JAMES FLEMING

It isn't what you earn, it's what you save!

JUDY FLEMING

Shy at a glance, but give her a chance.

PATRICIA FUNARO (WILLIAMS)

A true friend is precious but rare;
a false friend is like autumn leaves falling everywhere.

CHARLOTTE GIBSON

Just look what you're going to miss next year!

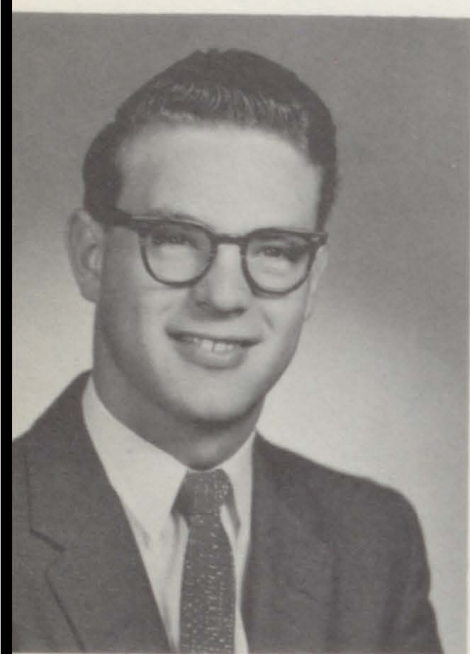

WILLIAM GOLDEN

A man can die but once.

RAY HALLOCK

Even a poor wisecrack outlives a good sermon.

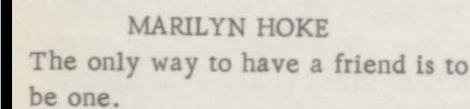

DAVID HARVEY

Everything comes to him who waits.

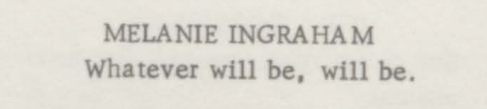

JAMES HODGE

Early to bed and early to rise is okay for all the other guys.

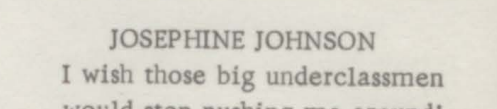

MARILYN HOKE

The only way to have a friend is to be one.

MELANIE INGRAHAM

Whatever will be, will be.

JOSEPHINE JOHNSON

I wish those big underclassmen would stop pushing me around!

STUART JOHNSON

You can put out the fire, but what are you going to do with the smoke?

BARBARA JONES

She speaks like her typewriting record---60 words a minute.

WILLIAM JONES

He who laughs last never got the joke at all.

MARY LOUGHEED

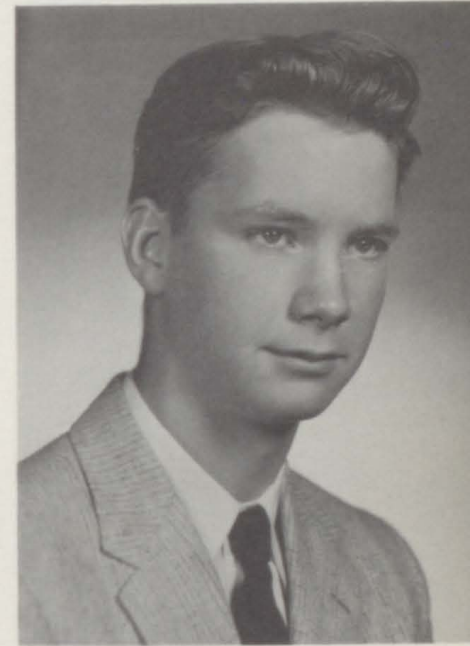

Leave it to beaver!

ROBERT KNOLL

A man's greatest asset is his ability to take advantage of others.

JESSIE KINGSLEY

A smile for every girl, and two for every "fella"!

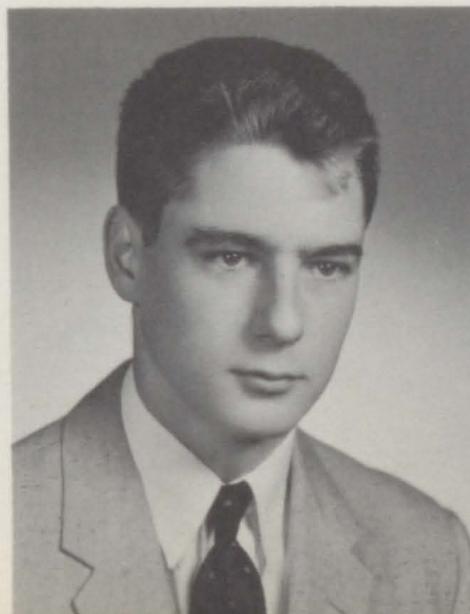

ALFRED McNITT

Life hath snares!

MARIAN McNITT

I seldom run into trouble; I back into it.

KATHRYN MACDONALD
Never do today, what you can put off until tomorrow.

MARGARET MAYNARD
A quiet person except when otherwise.

LAWRENCE MEAD
Live and let live.

SUSAN PURDY
I am not what I am.

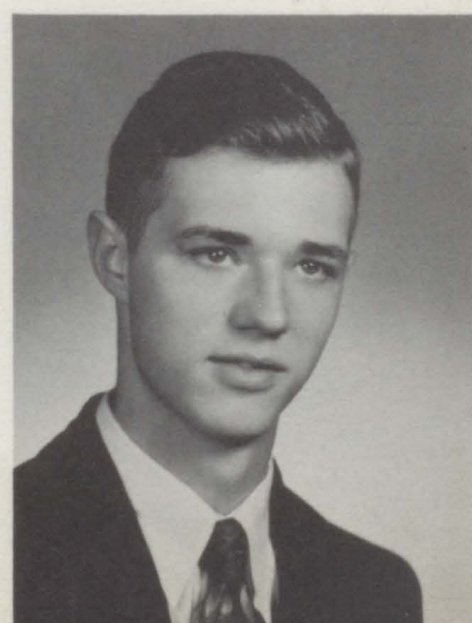

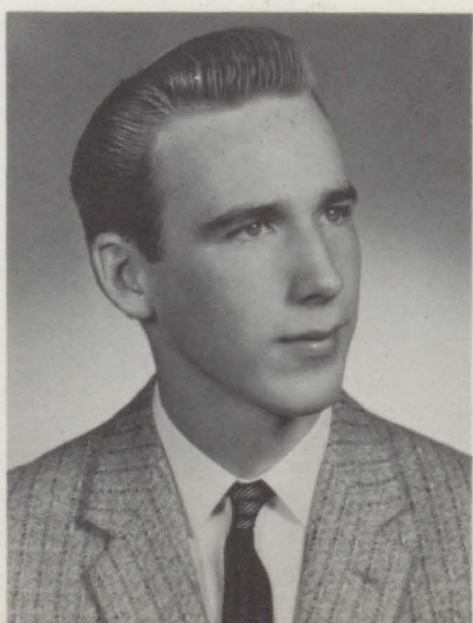

JOAN MILES
When youth calls to youth, the telephone company makes money.

SALLY PARCIANY
All the things I really like to do are either immoral, illegal, or fattening.

DENNIS REDENBECK
Wine, women, and a song help a dull day along.

ROBERT RACE
There's one thing in school he likes quite well;
That's the sound of the dismissal bell.

LOWELL ROBERTS
All great men are dying--actually
I don't feel too well myself!

JON ROBINSON
Born within a stone's throw of it.

SHEILA ROOT
Success is gained by acting, not wishing.

THOMAS SEELY
They say girls were put here for men--I agree!

VIRGINIA SAYLES
You should hear her laugh about the mistakes she makes!

KEITH SABIN
Four seasons fill the measure of the year.

JAMES STEVENSON
Wealth, health, love and time to enjoy them.

DAVID STRATTON
Be nice to people on your way up, because you'll meet them again
on your way down.

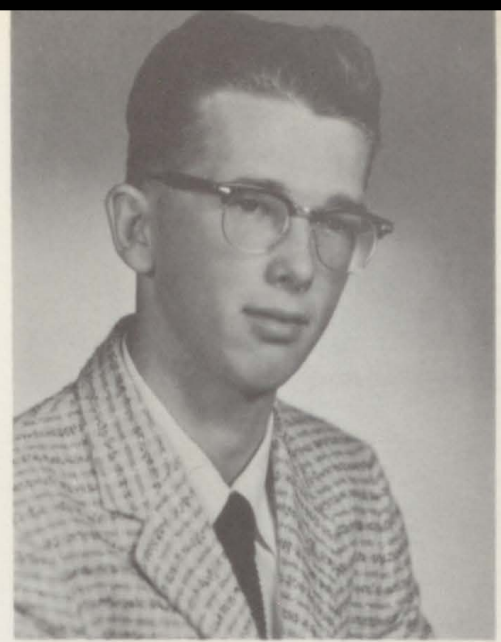

RICHARD SWIFT

In order to do a great right, you must do a little wrong.

BARBARA TEFFT

Call me at sunrise, but don't make the sun rise too early.

JAMES WHITTAKER

It is better to wear out than to rust out.

LOIS WILKIE

Ambition is the germ from which all growth of nobleness proceeds.

DEANNA WOOD

I am what I am, and that's all I am.

Senior Class History

In September 1955 we ventured warily into our freshman year of high school under the guidance of our advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Richmond, and class officers, Robert Race, Dennis DeLong, Barbara Jones, and Lois Wilkie. In the fall we put on a very successful Raggedy Ann Dance, where we crowned our King and Queen of Rags. That year we also started contributing to the school annual, The Blackhawk.

When we started our sophomore year, still with the wonderful guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Richmond and our new class officers, Robert Race, Peter Clintsman, William Jones, and Barbara Tefft, we were a little more sure of the ourselves. We ventured out into the outside world to sell tickets for the Magician Show sponsored by the Oxford Firemen and tickets to the Colgate Men's Choir sponsored by the Rotary. Then, after all the town folk were used to our beaming faces, we were out again, selling subscriptions to the Oxford Review Times. Later in the year, we put on a Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Our junior year was indeed a busy one for all of us, including our advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Richmond, and our class officers, Robert Race, Ray Hallock, Susan Purdy, and Marian McNitt. In the early fall we picked out our class rings, and after what seemed to us like ages, we received them just before Christmas. Also in the fall we were once again knocking on doors, selling magazine subscriptions. This venture proved very profitable and we were all very proud of ourselves. Early in the spring we began planning for the biggest event of all--the Junior Prom. We chose our theme, "Stairway to the Stars", and began decorating with stardust and angel hair everywhere. The fun of planning it and the work we put into it, turned the Prom into a great success. At the end of our junior year we lost our two wonderful advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Richmond. We were all very sad to see them leave.

At last we began that long awaited year--our senior year--with Mr. Walsh and Mrs. Fowlston as our advisors and class officers, Barbara Jones, Linda Emmick, Judy Fleming, and Richard Swift. In the early fall we put on a Victory Hop to honor the football players. We chose our senior play, Blithe Spirit, the very outstanding Noel Coward play. It was put on two nights and received good reviews. Our class colors are royal blue and silver; our flower is a yellow rose; our motto is "The best is yet to be," and our song is "Graduation Means Good-bye." In the spring we received the 1959 edition of The Blackhawk. Now it will not be long before that glorious "graduation night."

Now we must advance into the world of colleges and jobs, but we will not soon forget our wonderful years in Oxford Academy.

Senior Class Will

We, the class of 1959, being of sound mind and body bequeath the following: Burt Alger's engine trouble to Carl (Tinker) Cummings. . . . Alice Andrew's long hair to Patty Ford. . . . Barbara Barringer's ability to talk her way out of tough situations to any timid juniors. . . . Duane Bartle's desk in 308 to anyone who cares to be that close to the teacher. . . . Donald Bradt's 1951 Chevy to Jerry Granger, Jr. . . . Jim Brant's sneaky wink to Dick Diamond. . . . Fred Cosen's curly hair to Herb Lashway. . . . Dave Crandall's ability to get stuck to Lloyd Bradford. . . . Don Cyr's motorcycle to his sister Madeline. . . . Mildred Deeter's desk in 305 to anyone who wants it, because she has had it for four years. . . . Dennis DeLong's green "rod" to his brother Doug. . . . Marie Dunn leaves all the cafeteria dishes to any junior girls who want to do them. . . . Linda Emmick's dream of "faraway places" to Joan Fowlston. . . . Jim Fleming's football spikes to anyone who can fill them. . . . Judy Fleming's ability to stay on the cheer-leading squad for four years to Mary Lou Race. . . . Pat Funaro Williams' desk in 308 to her successor. . . . Charlotte Gibson's privilege of being the only girl in physics class to some lucky junior girl. . . . Bill Golden's ability to play basketball to Foxy Souders. . . . Ray Hallock's pharmaceutical abilities to the next employee of Day's Drug Store. . . . Dave Harvey's fiery temper to Paul Furnare. . . . Jim Hodge wills nothing because he needs everything he has. . . . Marilyn Hoke's ability to learn medicine to no one, because she is still learning. . . . Melanie Ingraham's happiness in school to any one who wants it. . . . Josephine Johnson's ability to type to Peg Lasher. . . . Stuart Johnson's stubbornness to Beverly Covell. . . . Barbara Jones' gift of gab to anyone who thinks he can keep up with her. . . . Bill Jones' height to Alan Cardner. . . . Jessie Kingsley's stubbornness to next year's law class. . . . Bob Knoll's green "rod" to Ranny Macdonald. . . . Mary Loughheed's quiet ways to her little sister Sally. . . . Kathy Macdonald's wonderful memories of riding on Bus 22 to Nancy Ford. . . . Alfred McNitt's chair to anyone who has ambition enough to put it on his desk. . . . Marian McNitt's ex-boyfriends to Bonnie Bakkoon. . . . Margaret Maynard's quietness to Joan Rydzewski. . . . Larry Mead's desk in 308 to Milt Shepler if Larry isn't still occupying it when Milt gets there. . . . Joan Miles' driving ability to Joan Fleming. . . . Sally Parciány's out-of-town associates to Anne D'Ambr. . . . Susan Purdy's ability to cram for regents to Joanne Gyles. . . . Bob Race's ability to get hurt while playing football to Dick Hoke. . . . Dennis Redenbeck's A in Ag to someone who needs it. . . . Lowell Roberts wills his physics book to anyone who's crazy enough to want it. . . . John Robinson's football equipment to Dave Mayhew. . . . Sheila Root's typewriter in 310 to next year's head typist on the yearbook staff. . . . Keith Sabin's world history book to a future junior. . . . Virginia Sayles' ability to spell to her sister, Shirley. . . . Tom Seely wills all his nothings to anyone. . . . David Stratton's memories of Paris to "Fox" Souders. . . . James Stevenson's marks to Josephine Jackson. . . . Dick Swift leaves all the rest of Junior Prom nights and mornings to Foxy Souders. . . . Barb Tefft's nicknames to anyone who wants them. . . . Lois Wilkie's ninety-nine years to any junior who already has ninety-eight. . . . James Whittaker's aches and pains to Donnie Thompson. . . . and Deanna Wood's peaceful moments on Bus 22 to Ernie Huffine.

Last, but not least, the Class of 1959 wills to Mr. Walsh a bottle of tranquilizers for all the trouble we've caused him in home room.

Signed: The Class of 1959

High School Travelers

Italy, Switzerland, France and Belgium recall memories of visiting the Seamans, seeing the Pope, being locked in a hotel closet with two others, going to Pigalle and the World's Fair.

In the trains in Italy I also learned the art of squeezing into masses of humanity, like a sardine--miserable experience! It was in northern Italy that I met my pen pal, the girl at the left in the picture.

While our Caravan party was all together in the Scandinavian countries, we had some unforgettable experiences i. e. truly American pranks played on each other; but when we were on our "free time," we learned how very friendly and helpful the people of each country were. Of course there was the time I tried for a half hour to find an English-speaking Italian who could direct me to my next point of interest. Because English is taught widely, we had comparatively little difficulty in finding ourselves understood by people in any country.

David Stratton

The young people of the different countries impressed me the most. From them I formed my opinions of the countries and found that their young people are very much like our own. They have the same interests and were both friendly and willing to help me with my traveling problems.

It was a real thrill to travel from Switzerland to England by myself for twenty hours--changing trains all night long and shivering beneath blankets on the ferry as we crossed the English Channel.

Kay Frances Marshman

From June 19 to August 25 I was one of the twenty-three delegates chosen from sixteen states to take part in the American Junior Red Cross International Study-Visit Program. Assembling in Washington, D. C., we were not only briefed on our study program but were privileged to meet President Eisenhower Abroad, the most wonderful experience was meeting people of different countries--people with different languages, traditions and religions, likes and dislikes--and realizing that they, too, are very human, like ourselves.

Geraldine Paliotta

As a member of Pastor Bill Lyons' Christian Youth Caravan I had a wonderful opportunity to see countries and people in Europe and in England. Everywhere I found a spirit of friendliness.

Since money is always such a problem, I shall always treasure the memory of the unusual outcome of one of my attempts to obtain free lodging in London--in the end the city government furnished the facilities.

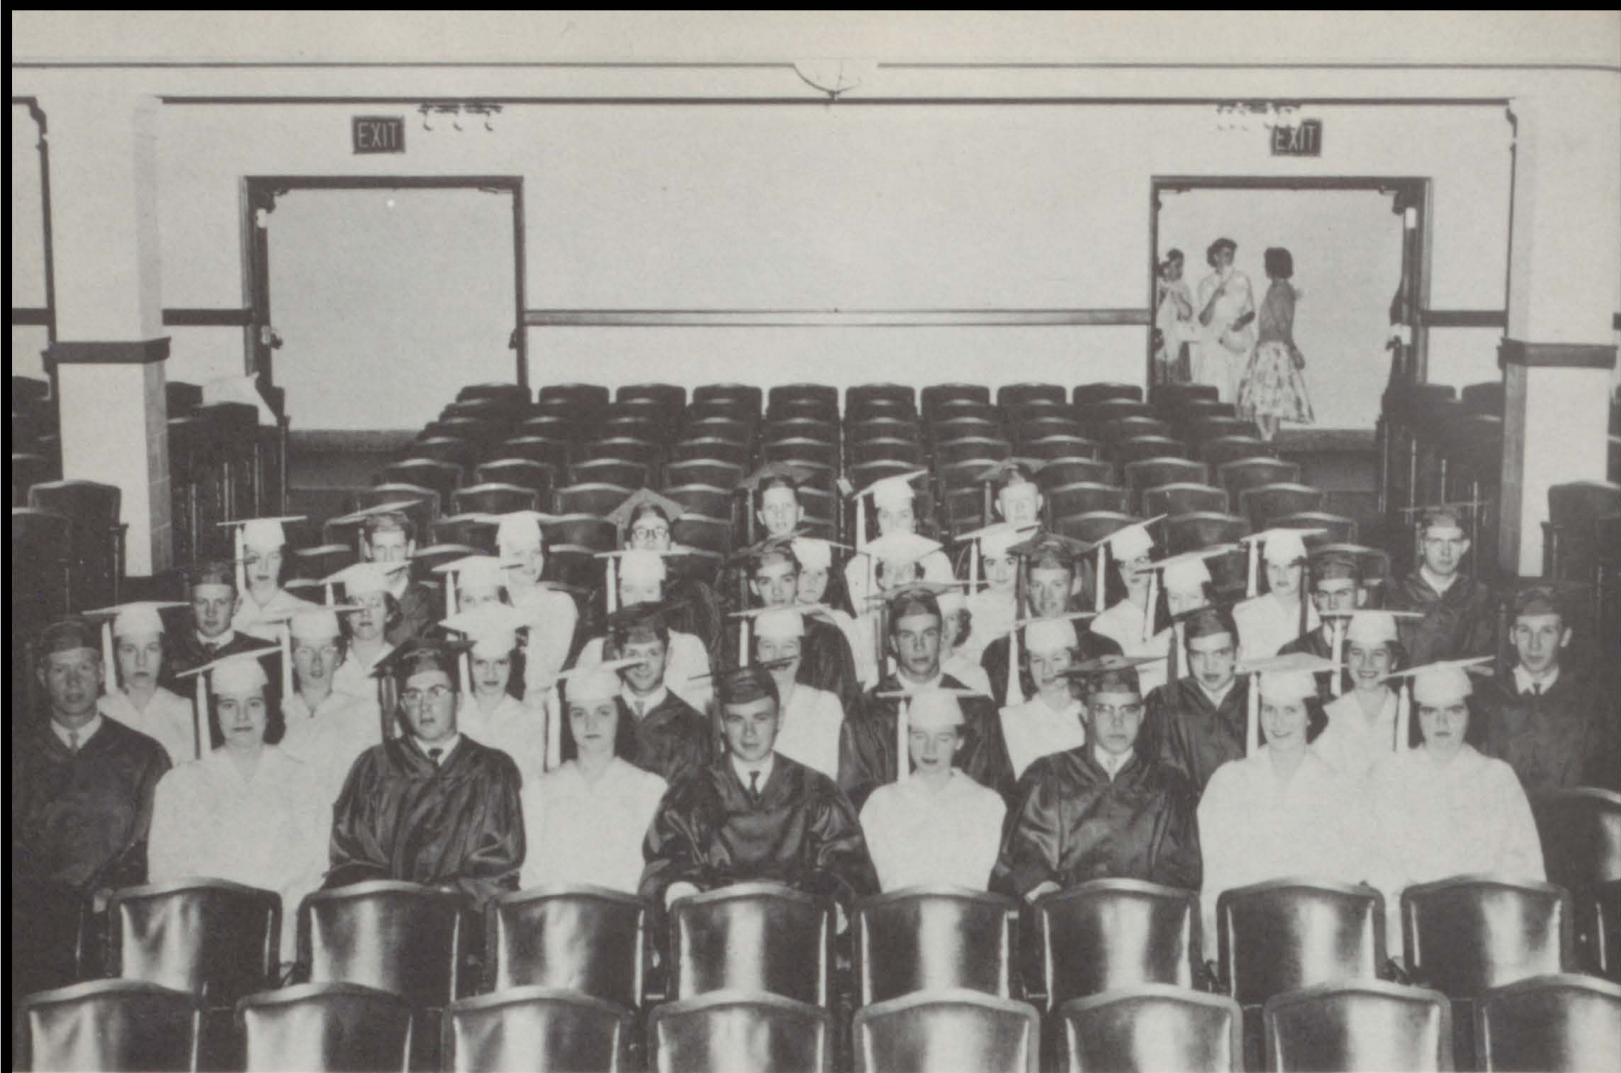

On another occasion I lived four days with an English family; it was with sadness that I said goodbye to those wonderful people.

Message from Yearbook Staff

When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out;
Don't give up though the pace seems slow--
You may succeed with another blow.

Success is a failure turned inside out--
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit--
It's when things seem worse that you must not quit.
