foreword

Since the first yearbook was published six years ago, it has grown from fifty-six to one hundred four pages. The enrollment of our school has also increased greatly.

The yearbook staff hopes you will enjoy this sixth volume of the Blackhawk, because we believe it shows a "true picture" of our school life here at Oxford Academy.

dedication

to a dream that we students hope will become a reality

be strong

Be strong! Be strong!
We are not here to play, to dream, to drift;
We have hard work to do, and loads to lift.
Shun not the struggle, face it.
'Tis God's gift
Be strong!

Be strong! Be strong!
Say not the days are evil--who's to blame?
And fold the hands and acquiesce--oh shame!
Stand up, speak out, and bravely.
Be strong!

Maltbie D. Babcock

in appreciation

It is with much pleasure that we take this opportunity to show our appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Padgett. They have given to the Academy fifty years of devoted service, --Mr. Padgett, thirty years and Mrs. Padgett, twenty years.

Mrs. Padgett, with only student help, fed seventy-eight students in the beginning; but by 1946 she had four women assisting her. She recalls that she used the same size of stove then that they are now using, although now over eight hundred are being fed.

To quote Mrs. Padgett, --"I could write a book about that place--sometimes I think I will. I bet it would be a best seller."

Over the years while Mrs. Padgett has been either the manager of the cafeteria or one of the staff working with her sister, Mrs. Walden, Mr. Padgett has looked after the children in a different way. "Way back when" -- he fired the furnace to keep them warm after having brought them to school in the bus.

When the new school was being built in 1930, it was Lynn who walked the beams as night watchman, kept the fires going, brought the children to school, went home to take a nap only to return to school to take the children home and at 10:00 P. M. begin his watch for another night.

During the day Lynn could be found running the movie projector. When there were evening affairs, it was Lynn who "saw to" the fires and locked up the school.

During the first three or four years of his service his work necessitated additional help so he personally employed his brother-in-law, Arthur Smith. Later, help was provided for him.

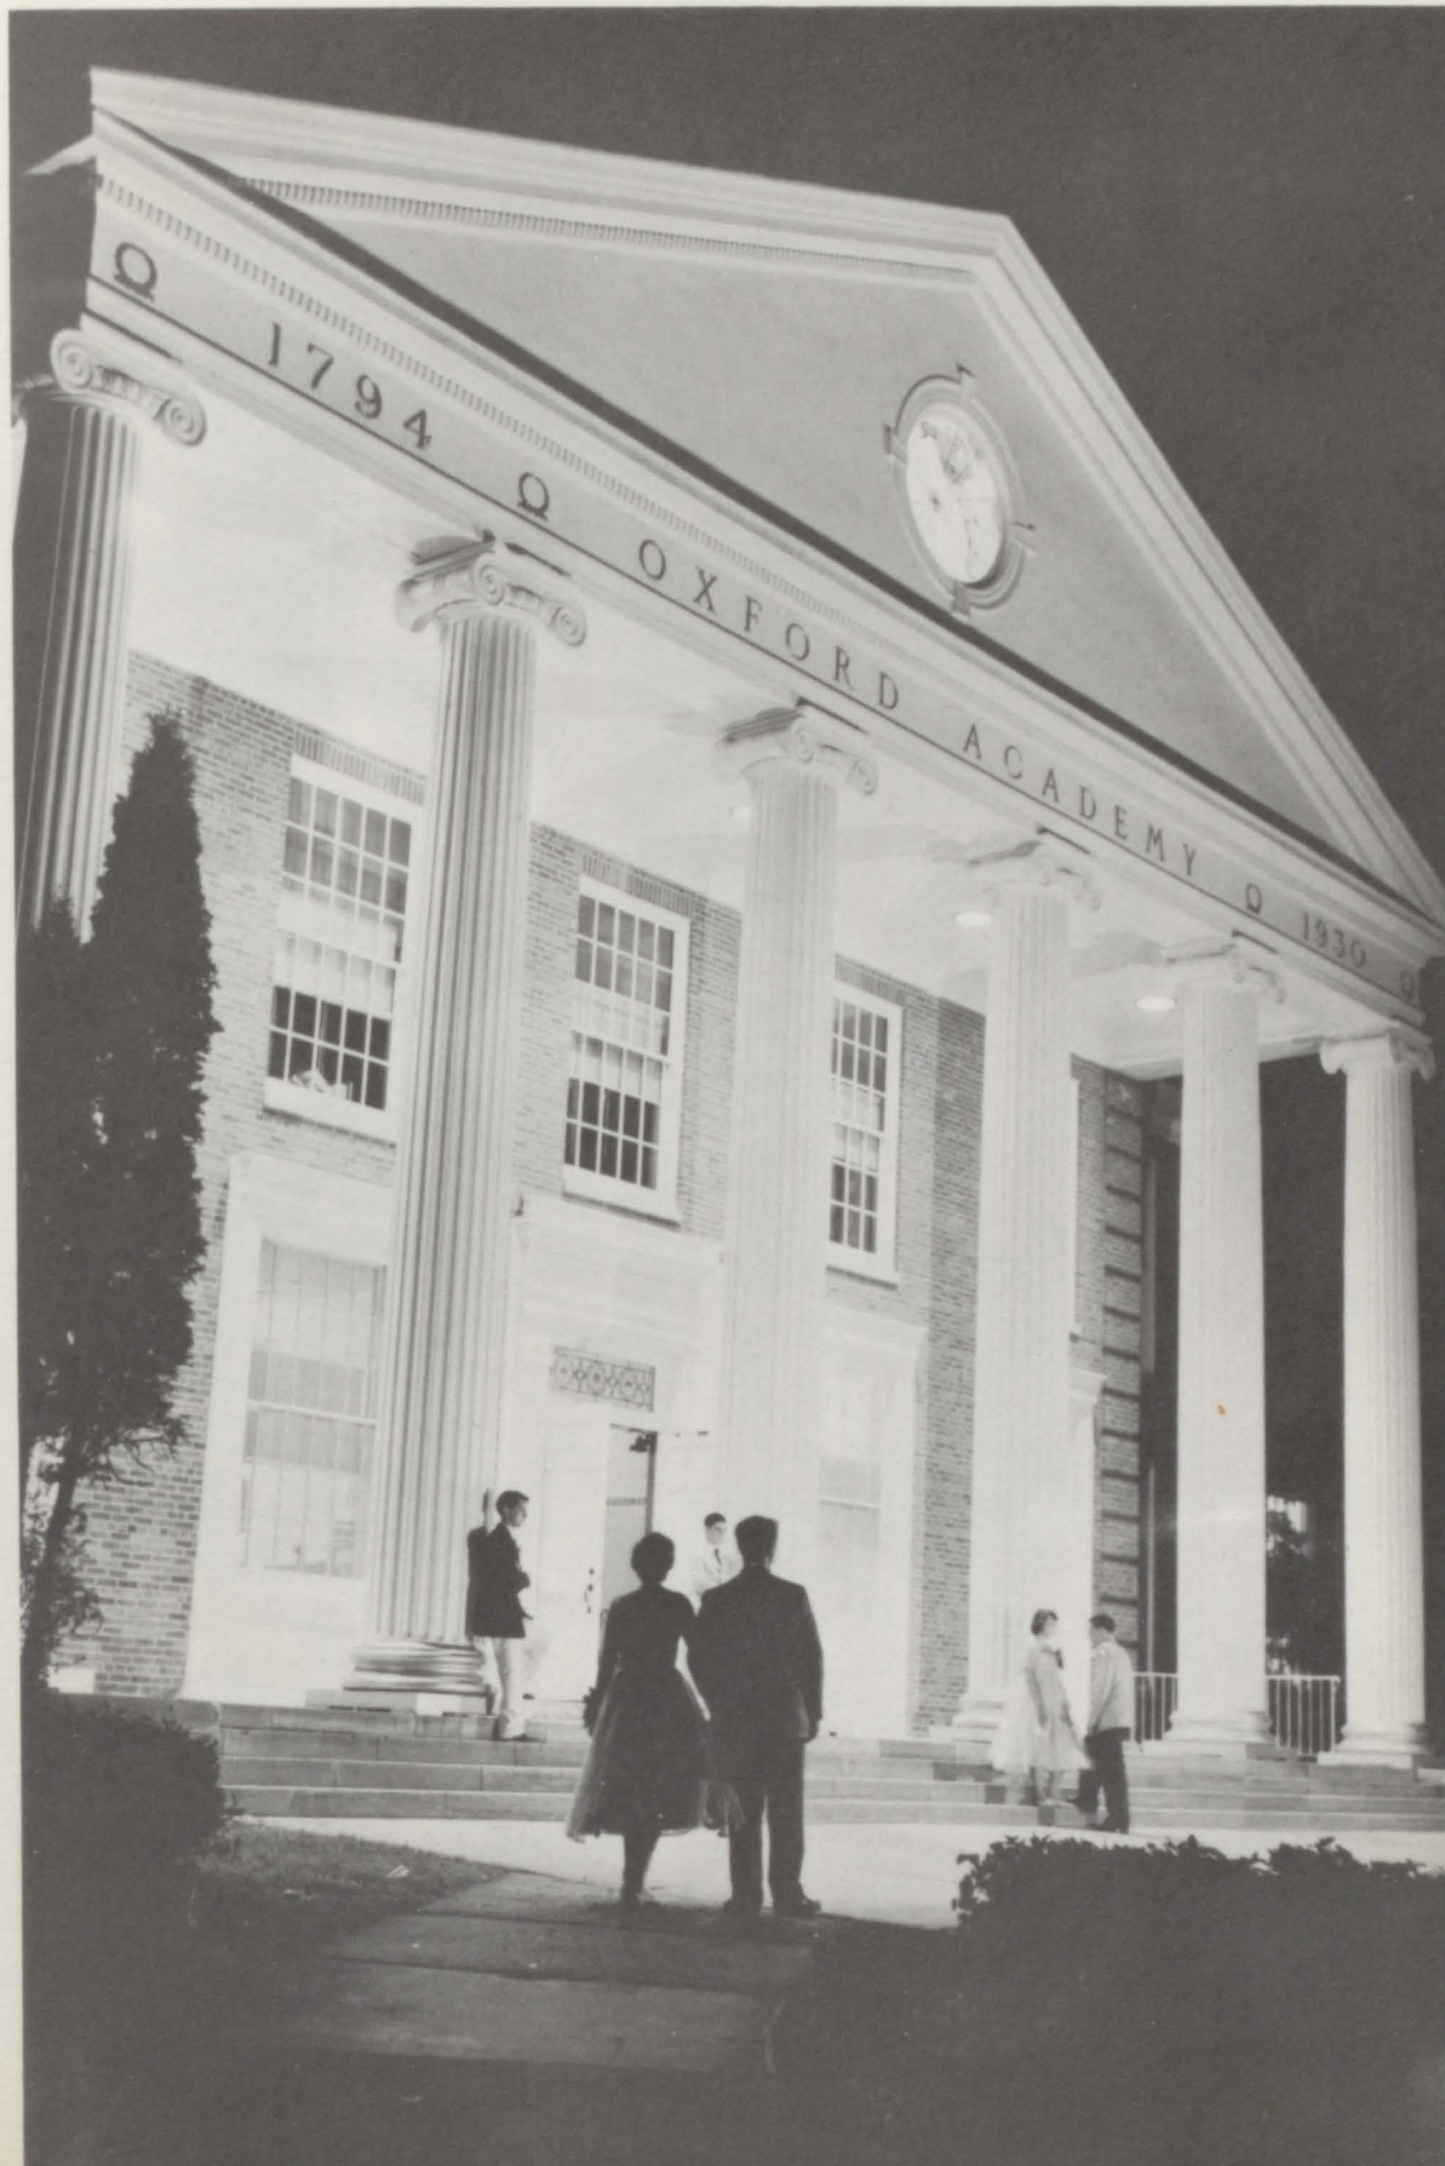

Tom Tansey has worked with Lynn for twenty years and is now replacing him as Head Mechanic in charge of bus transportation.

It has been a full life that each of these "school citizens" has given in loving service to Oxford Academy and Central School.

We honor and appreciate them both and assure them that they will long be remembered by those who have had the good fortune to be cared for by them.

Mr and Mrs Lynn Padgett

graduates

fair oxford, pride of all the valley, we come with our all to thee...

BONNIE BAKOON

Those who wish to appear wise among fools,
Among the wise seem foolish.

BETTY BARROWS

A multitude of books distracts the mind.

CAROL BARROWS

The higher you go, the more room to fall.

CAROLE BARTLE

Conscience: an inner voice that tells us someone is looking.

CYNTHIA BEAUMONT

True worth is in being, not seeming.

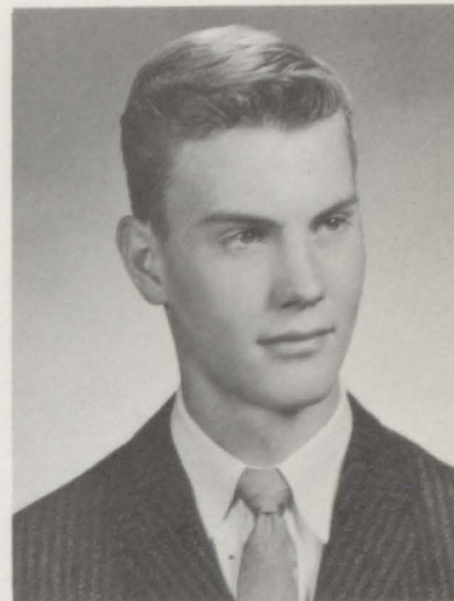

LINDA BECKWITH

A first grade teacher is someone who makes the little things count.

...to mold our lives and build our hopes as thou wouldst have them be...

JUNE BLIVEN

Some people have tact; others tell the truth.

ROY BLIVEN

If I don't find the answer, I'll make up one.

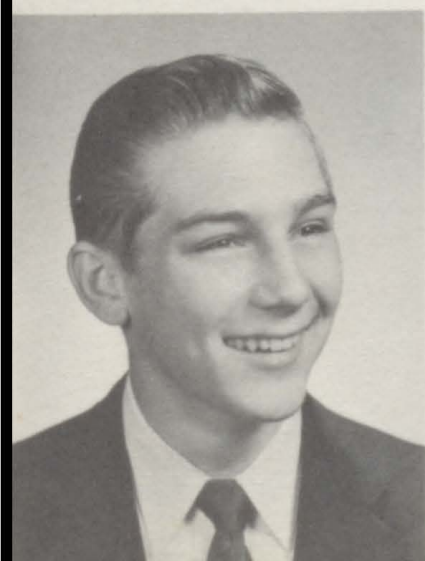

LLOYD BRADFORD

Ambition should be made of sterner stuff.

TED BRANT

Girls never bother me; they don't even speak to me.

EDWARD CARKUFF

Early to bed, early to rise keeps a man healthy, wealthy, and sober.

JOHN CARLSEN

Big minds think about big things -- I think about atoms.

...the lessons thou dost give us here will fit us well for life...

CATHERINE CLARK

Talking, talking, all the time; she's an expert in that line.

MARILYN COLE

Don't judge a man by the clothes he wears;
God made one, a tailor the other.

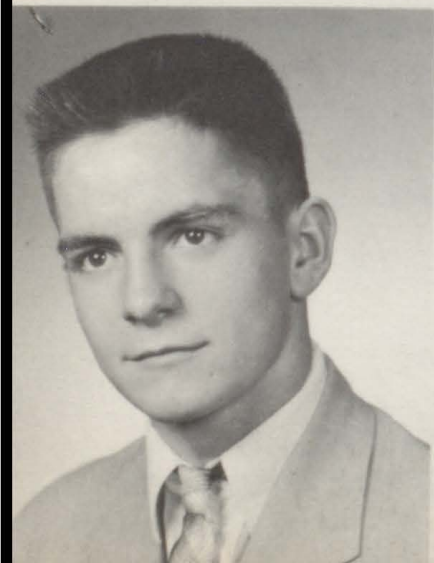

CARL COLLVER

History repeats itself, but not loud enough for the school boy to hear.

BEVERLY COVELL

Where there's trouble -- there's "me"!

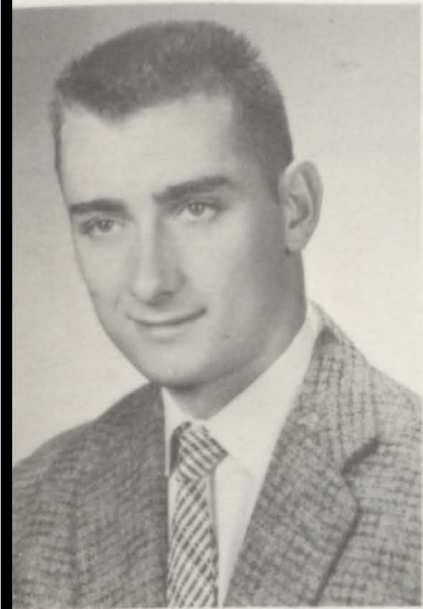

PAUL COX

Better late than never.

ANNE D'AMBRA

Flirtation -- attention without intention.

...in later years we'll still love and bless thee
when in the great world's strife...

DOUGLAS DAVIS

Behind each over-night success lie years of hard work.

PAUL DWYER

Never trouble trouble until trouble troubles you.

JUNE FAIRCHILD

It is better to remain silent and be thought a fool, than to speak and remove all doubt.

JOAN FLEMING

I may be short but my feet still touch the ground.

PATRICIA FORD

It is a poor sport that is not worth the candle.

JOAN FOWLSTON

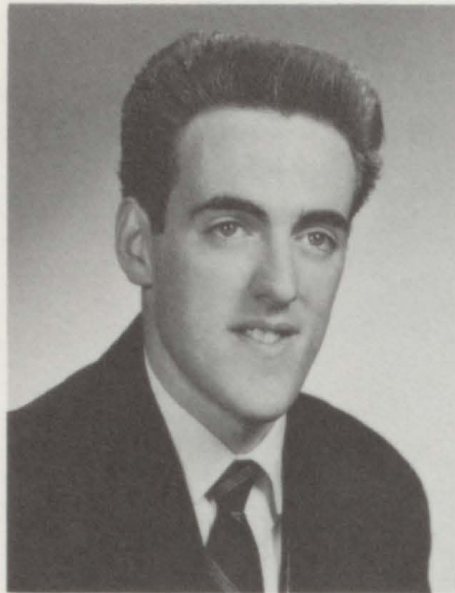

What fools these mortals be!

...oh, alma mater, thy sons and daughters will strive to honor thee...

CAROLYN FRANK
Forgiveness is the noblest revenge.

JAMES GALLAGHER
I'm searching for the girl of my dreams, not a nightmare.

JOANNE GYLES
I was cut out to be a genius; unfortunately, someone forgot to put the pieces together.

WILLIAM HAYDEN
A lot of auto wrecks are caused by the driver's hugging the curves.

GEORGE HILL
The world is as ugly as sin, and almost as delightful.

MARGARET LASHER
Man has his will, but woman has her way.

...as time rolls on, our glorious bright banner is noble and pure and free...

RANALD MACDONALD

I'm at a loss for words.

KAY FRANCES MARSHMAN

Whatever comes; this too shall pass.

DONNA MARTIN

I can resist anything but temptation.

RUTH MEADE

Some people are wise -- some otherwise.

AUDREY MERRILL

Live, love and laugh; there may come a time when you can't.

CAROL NICHOLS

Love is to absence, as wind is to fire; it extinguishes the small and enkindles the large.

...and when we come back in memories' eye to scenes that long are past...

NANCY NORRIS

A man is a problem.

GERALDINE PALIOTTA

You may have the universe if I may have Italy.

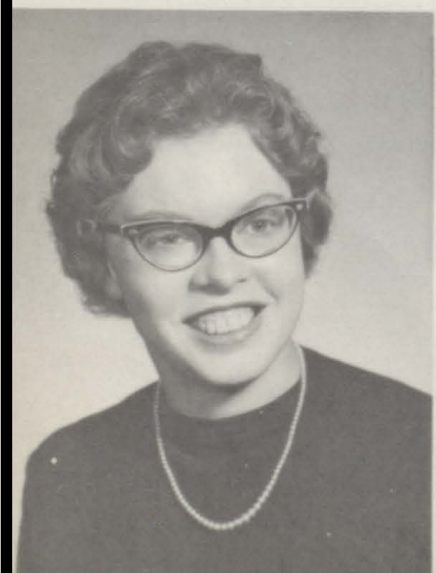

PATRICIA PIERSON

There are only two things wrong with boys -- everything they say and everything they do.

SANDRA RACE

The greatest pleasure in life is doing what people say not to do.

JOANNE REID

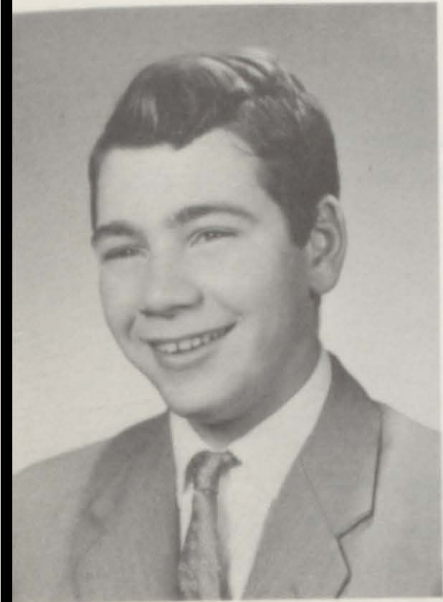

A guilty look in period one; out last night, no homework done.

EUGENE ROOD

How can a man think straight, when all he has on his mind is corners?

...we'll look with joy on the days that we spent
'neath the hues of the red and black.

STEWART RUSSELL
Sow a thought and reap an act.

JOAN RYDZEWSKI
Women are meant to be loved, not understood.

SHIRLEY SAYLES
Mountaineers are freemen.

JOYCE SCOUTEN
Cute and clever, naughty never ... Well, hardly ever.

JACK SHAW
Better to wear out than rust out.

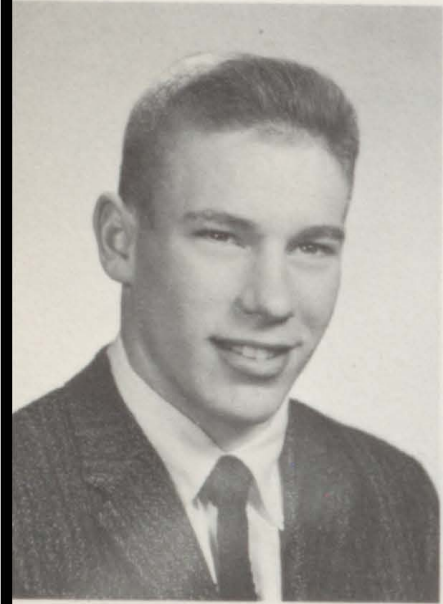

MILRENE SHEPLER
Experience is what enables us to recognize a mistake when we make it.

class motto:

God never imposes a duty without giving time to do it.

JOHN SOUDERS

There is just one thing I can't stand and that's my conscience.

JUNE STAFFORD

The key to success doesn't fit the night lock.

CHARLES STORK

I don't know what education could do for me 'cause I've never tried it.

KENNETH SUMIDA

Be good and you'll be lonesome.

LANA TEMPLIN

Don't put off today what you can put off tomorrow.

DONALD THOMPSON

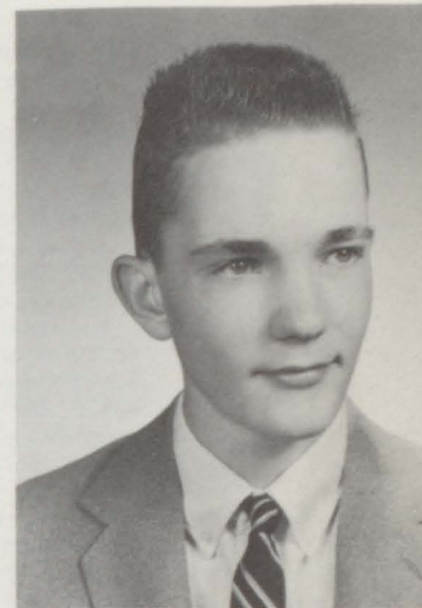

I'll always have two reasons for doing anything, a good one and a real one.

class colors: red and white class flower: red carnation

GARY THORNE

Three-fifths of him is genius; two-fifths, sheer fudge.

ROBERT TINKER

I must admit that the last thing that men will conquer on the earth is women.

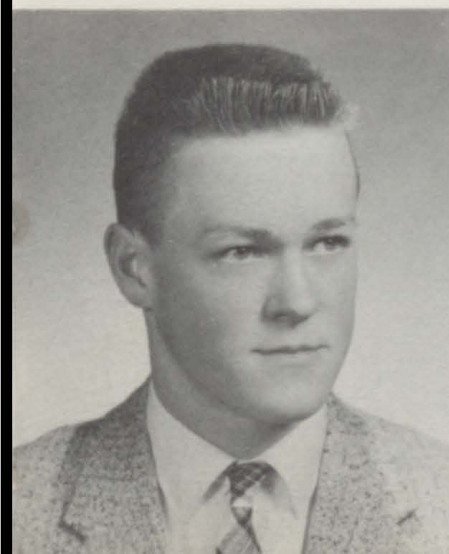

KENNETH WEAVER

If a man could half his wishes, he would double his trouble.

DUANE WETMORE

A good education enables you to get into more expensive trouble.

DUANE WILCOX

Nothing is impossible if you can get someone else to do it for you.

class history

Our class entered its freshman year in September, 1956, under the guidance of Mrs. Griffin and Mr. Koslowski. We elected John Souders, president; Peg Lasher, vice-president; Anne D'Ambra, secretary; and Ruth Meade, treasurer. We started the social season for the year with a very successful "Round and Square Dance."

In the fall of 1957 we entered our sophomore year with Mrs. Griffin and Mr. Batterman as our advisors. Our class officers were Duane Wilcox, president; Sandra Race, vice-president; Joan Fowlston, secretary; and Joan Fleming, treasurer. This year during the summer three people from our class were able to go to Europe. Geraldine Paliotta was chosen as a delegate to take part in the American Junior Red Cross International Study-Visit Program. Kay Marshman and Charles Stork went to Europe as members of the Christian Youth Caravan.

With our advisors, Mrs. Griffin and Mr. Souders, and class officers Joan Fowlston, president; Ken Sumida, vice-president; Jim Gallagher, secretary; and Cathy Clark, treasurer, we began our busy junior year. First we chose our class rings and were very glad when they arrived early in November. Then we chose our class magazine subscriptions. Geraldine Paliotta, the highest salesman, was awarded a trophy by the Curtis Circulation Company.

Our biggest project of the year was the junior prom, "Oriental Paradise." From the Triple-Cities area the dance band of Gino Calistri, which had not played previously in this area, was engaged and proved a good selection. The judges selected Sandra Race, a member of our class, as the queen of the prom, which we thought was a very successful one.

On May 21 the following members of our class, George Hill, Kay Marshman, June Stafford, June Fairchild, Margaret Lasher, and Joan Rydzewski were inducted into the National Honor Society at its second induction ceremony in our school.

At last our senior year arrived, with Mrs. Griffin and Mr. Tefft as advisors. Again we elected Joan Fowlston, president; Ken Sumida, vice president; and Cathy Clark, treasurer. Gary Thome was elected secretary. Others from our class held important offices: Ranald Macdonald, president of the Student Association; Joan Fowlston and June Stafford, co-editors of the school news; Gary Thome, president of senior band; and Peg Lasher, editor of the 1960 Blackhawk. The class selected red and white as our class colors, and the class flower is a red carnation. The class motto, "God never imposes a duty without giving time to do it," was selected; and the class song, "Graduation Night," was written by some members of the class. The senior play, Don't Take My Penny, was presented in the fall.

One of the great losses to our class was the death of Fred Carroll, who was a well-liked member of our class and has been missed very much. During the last four years, his parents have remained interested in our class and its activities.

On October 16 at the third induction of the National Honor Society, John Carlsen from our class was inducted.

The 1960 Blackhawk arrived in the spring. We were glad to see our pictures at last in the senior section, but it made us realize that it would not be long before our graduation.

national honor society

The Oxford Academy Chapter of the National Honor Society was granted its charter, No. 7504, on the 5th day of December, 1958.

Since its formation, the chapter has inducted eighteen members into its organization.

The National Honor Society emphasizes scholarship, leadership, service, and character. This year the members rendered service to their school by helping stamp new books and aiding in the library on teachers' workshop day. They also guided the four seventh grades to their classes on the first day of school. As the chapter grows, it is hoped that more of this type of service can be carried out by the members.

Meetings are held regularly on the second Tuesday of each month. At the last meeting the members voted to organize themselves into two debating teams that will, during some of their meetings, discuss some controversial issues of today.

This year the Oxford Academy chapter along with all the National Honor chapters have the privilege of participating in the nomination of a great American for the Hall of Fame. This has been done every five years since 1900 by the National Honor Society. The Hall of Fame is located at New York University.

We are very proud that our president, George Hill, has been selected as one of the semi-finalists for the National Honor Scholarship. We wish him success in the final examination.
