BLACK HAWK

1968

when through all the valleys
we have travelled,
voyageurs and vagabonds with shodden
ways,
when today is already too far a tomorrow,
think calmly of the innocent
and youthful,
the aching laughter of adult children
and grieve but in silence
for that silver fountain lost to all but the young strangers.

Although the Juniors have no financial worries, they went ahead with the annual magazine sale which proved to be a big success. It brought in an amount well over the two thousand dollar mark. They now are in the process of planning for the 1968 Junior Prom.

With the thought of only one more year to go, the class starts each day with a renewed enthusiasm.

JUNIOR PROM

The evening of May 20th was the enchanting night of "Carousel", the Junior Prom of 1967. Hours were spent decorating the gymnasium in shades of various pastels. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Debbie Rice and Mike Paino as the new royalty by last year's royal couple, Donn Carroll and Linda Kessler. Sandra Barber and Lucy Race were chosen as the princesses. Sandra was escorted by Mike Pollie, and Bruce Preston escorted Lucy. Music was provided by the band of Don Godfrey, making this a most enjoyable evening.

The theme for the Snoball this year was Silver Bells. The gym was decorated in silver and blue. The queen's throne was enhanced by two large silver bells. The climax of the evening was the crowning of Carol Taranto as queen and Robert Denz as king.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming weekend started off Friday night with a big parade and pep rally. All the candidates rode in convertibles while the band marched and everyone was happy! The traditional fire was started and we all cheered, hoping to beat Harpursville. The next day at the game the spectators voted their choice for the queen and Saturday night after a victorious game Chris Hart was crowned Homecoming Queen for 1967 with Donna Ross as first runner-up and Collen Champlin as second runner-up.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The role of the Student Council in any school is to help achieve the smooth operation in the school life between teachers and students. Also the Council coordinates the schedules and programs necessary to carry on the activities for the different divisions within the school. In short, a Student Council is the blood plasma that runs through the halls of a school, assisting the administration and faculty in the efficient routine at Oxford Academy.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the National Honor Society is based on scholarship, leadership, character, and service. It is one of the highest honors a student may receive during his school years. This year students were tapped throughout the school day rather than in an induction ceremony. At a later date, a dinner was held in honor of the new members.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The members of the Future Teachers of America willingly helped to guide parents and guests around our school on Open House night. The Future Teachers have been planning a teaching program in which each member will have an opportunity to teach in his desired field. Considering that this is only their second year, the Future Teachers have made much progress.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

The Junior Red Cross made gifts for Thanksgiving and Christmas for the W.R.C. Home. The group sang Christmas carols to the residents of the nursing home and sent Christmas cards to their adopted Korean girl. The Junior Red Cross appreciates the help of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Hill and looks to them for future guidance.

All year round visitors, as well as the faculty and student body, can see the proof of the time put in by these students in the flower-beds and wreaths at Christmas. Through their efforts the members are learning practical horticultural lessons, something that will serve them well in future years.

Months of hard work are spent to prepare the Blackhawk for publication. A great deal of responsibility burdens the layout editors who must put our yearbook together by planning each page. However, their work would be useless without the subscriptions, advertising, and typing provided by the other members of the staff. If this yearbook adequately represents Oxford Academy life and student body activities as well as containing a volume of memories for you, our work will have been well worthwhile.

OFFICERS

RIGHT: Band officers: R. Duell,

R. Denz, J. Winner.

The Senior Band's success during the past year should not be measured by the amount of money it won in competitions alone, but also in other fields. The band's discipline, sportsmanship, and fine display of musical abilities have made it a worthy representative of our school and community.

COLOR GUARD

We have one of the best color guards in New York State. At the State Fair last year they did very well. They entered many competitions throughout the area, and usually came close to the top. This is one reason why the band wins many prizes. However, there is much work in achieving this high standard. They practice one night a week and much more in the summer.

SENIOR CHORUS

The Senior Chorus has accomplished much this year in the area of discipline as well as music. The changing of chorus to sixth period has helped to make the chorus an organization which can achieve perfection in its music.

Chorus also encourages its members to continue with music as a pastime or as a career. A few of the numbers they have sung this year are Wizard of Oz, It's Up To Us, and Impossible Dream. These are just two of the ways chorus helps its members to become more musically inclined.

JUNIOR CHORUS

Junior chorus is another cultural organization at Oxford. It helps its members to be more culturally aware. They become acquainted with different composers, types of music, and the interpretation of the music they sing.

Junior chorus is also very enjoyable. What could be nicer than to sing cheerful music after working hard all day in school?

Willa Hewitt--Volivia

Anne Marso--Japan

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Willa received her Bolivian diploma before she returned home in March. While in Bolivia she lived with our Bolivian exchange student's parents. She and Graciella had a lot to talk about, and they struck up a great friendship.

Donn, who spent the past year in Mexico, is shown in the picture below with some of his school chums. He plans to return before graduation, "to move out" with his own class.

Anne spent the year in Japan where she learned a lot about the culture of the East. While our school was having classes, she was on her summer vacation and traveling throughout Japan. She wrote home often and sent pictures of herself with some of her Japanese teachers and friends.
