Douglas Schlafer

David Walsh

This year our school was rewarded with 2 Rotary Exchange Students. Of the many juniors who tried for this position, two came up with the honor. These two people are Doug Schlafer and David Walsh. Doug, who was sent to Costa Rica in South America, is spending a year with Spanish speaking people. While in the northern hemisphere, David is living in Viiala, a small town in the lake country of Finland.

In December we said farewell to Kevin Meade, last year's exchange student from Australia, and in January, we welcomed Mark Goedecke, his fellow country man. We wish all of them much luck!

Mark Goedecke

Class History — 1971

Well, the end of another school year is quickly approaching, but for us it's only the beginning.

In our freshman year, Karen Quinn led us as president with Alan Dutton, Penny Newland, and Jim Sylstra as vice-president, secretary and treasurer, respectively.

In our sophomore year, Jim Race was at the helm with Mitch Race, vice-president; Karen Quinn, secretary; and Gary Eldred as treasurer.

Then came our junior year, and with it came all the joys of the Junior Prom.

We chose "A Time for Us" as our theme. To weeping willows, a foot bridge, and a balcony, add yellow and green decorations and the Russ Black Orchestra and a beautiful queen, Karen Welsh, escorted by Jeff Rice, and our Prom was complete.

That year we were led by Karen Quinn, president; Janet Paser, vice-president; Andrea Paino, secretary; Dawn Wheeler, treasurer.

Well, we now have our senior year with Gary Eldred president; Janet Paser, vice-president; Tina Davis, secretary; and Dawn Wheeler as treasurer.

The events of the year were 1970 Homecoming, "We've Only Just Begun." Fat Chance provided dancing music and Dwight Rucker entertained during intermission. Janet Paser, escorted by Gary Eldred, was crowned Queen. First princess was Debbie Ryberg escorted by Jim Sylstra, and Andrea Paino escorted by Joe Castaldy was second princess.

On December 10 and 11th the senior class presented "Everybody's Crazy" by Jay Tobias. Sixteen of the seniors participated in the senior play.

We could add much more about the class of '71, but with the space provided all we can give you are some of the highlights of our four years at O.A.C.H.S. We can say that the class of '71 will always be proud to be called the class of SCHOOL SUPPORTERS!

CLASS MOTTO: '71 Endures Forever

"The Miracle Worker"

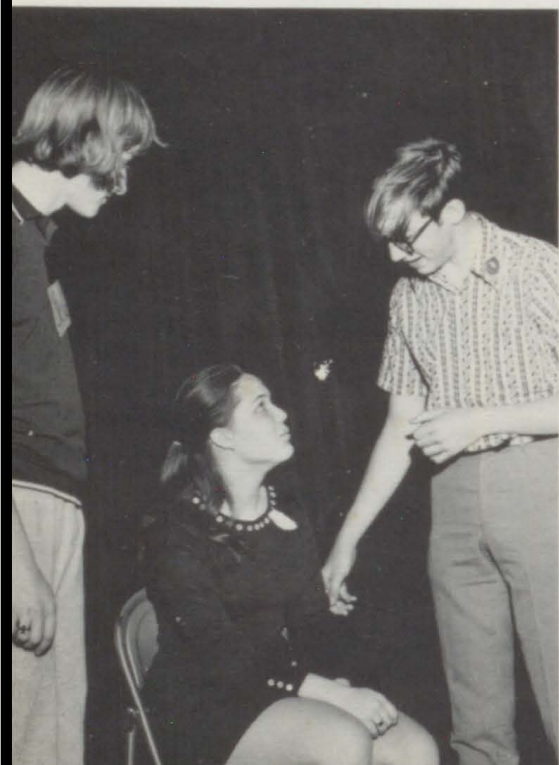

By William Gibson

. . . On the nights of May 27-28, the Drama Club presented the story of Helen Keller and her teacher, Annie Sullivan. Miss Gregory directed the play, with the following cast members: Helen Keller, Lori Batterman; Annie Sullivan, Sylvia Yale; Mrs. Keller, Jane Lewis; Captain Keller, Dennis Walsh; James Keller, Mike Maholchic; Aunt Ev, Linda Manheim; Others included; Brian Walsh as Percy, Mark Godecke as the Doctor, Teena Whitaker as a negro child; Betsy Cooke as Viney.

Set design by Gretchen Steffen and Mr. Batterman. Props by Virginia Mangels and Terri Smith.

ABOVE, Annie says good-bye to the blind children at Perkins Institute for the blind in Baltimore as Mr. Anagnos (Mike Phoenix) looks on. BELOW, Mr. and Mrs. Keller receive news that Helen will live after a long illness that will leave her deaf, dumb, and blind. BELOW RIGHT, Mrs. Keller struggles to get scissors from Helen as Mr. Keller, Aunt Ev, and Percy look on.

Student Council Elections

Candidates:

President: Dennis Walsh; Margaret Maynard; James Root; Vice Pres: Stella Stratton; Jenny Preston; Joanne Quinn; Treasurer: Jeff Finch; Sue Race; Secretary: Pam Troxell; Gail Preston; Steve Locke.

Campaign posters festooned the halls as candidates competed for the winners circle.

About the Supplement

This year we decided to have the Spring Events in a supplement, to make it possible to receive the yearbook in May and the added benefit of having the full school year in the Blackhawk '71; thus, you will receive the supplement in September. We would like to hear your opinion concerning this new idea.

Acknowledgements

We wish to thank the staff of the Blackhawk '71, and those who helped to make this yearbook a success: Mrs. Walsh, Advisor; Mrs. Grimes, Advisor; Mr. Walter Fort, Photographer; Mr. McWilliams, Publisher's Representative; and special thanks to the Administration and Faculty for their cooperation.

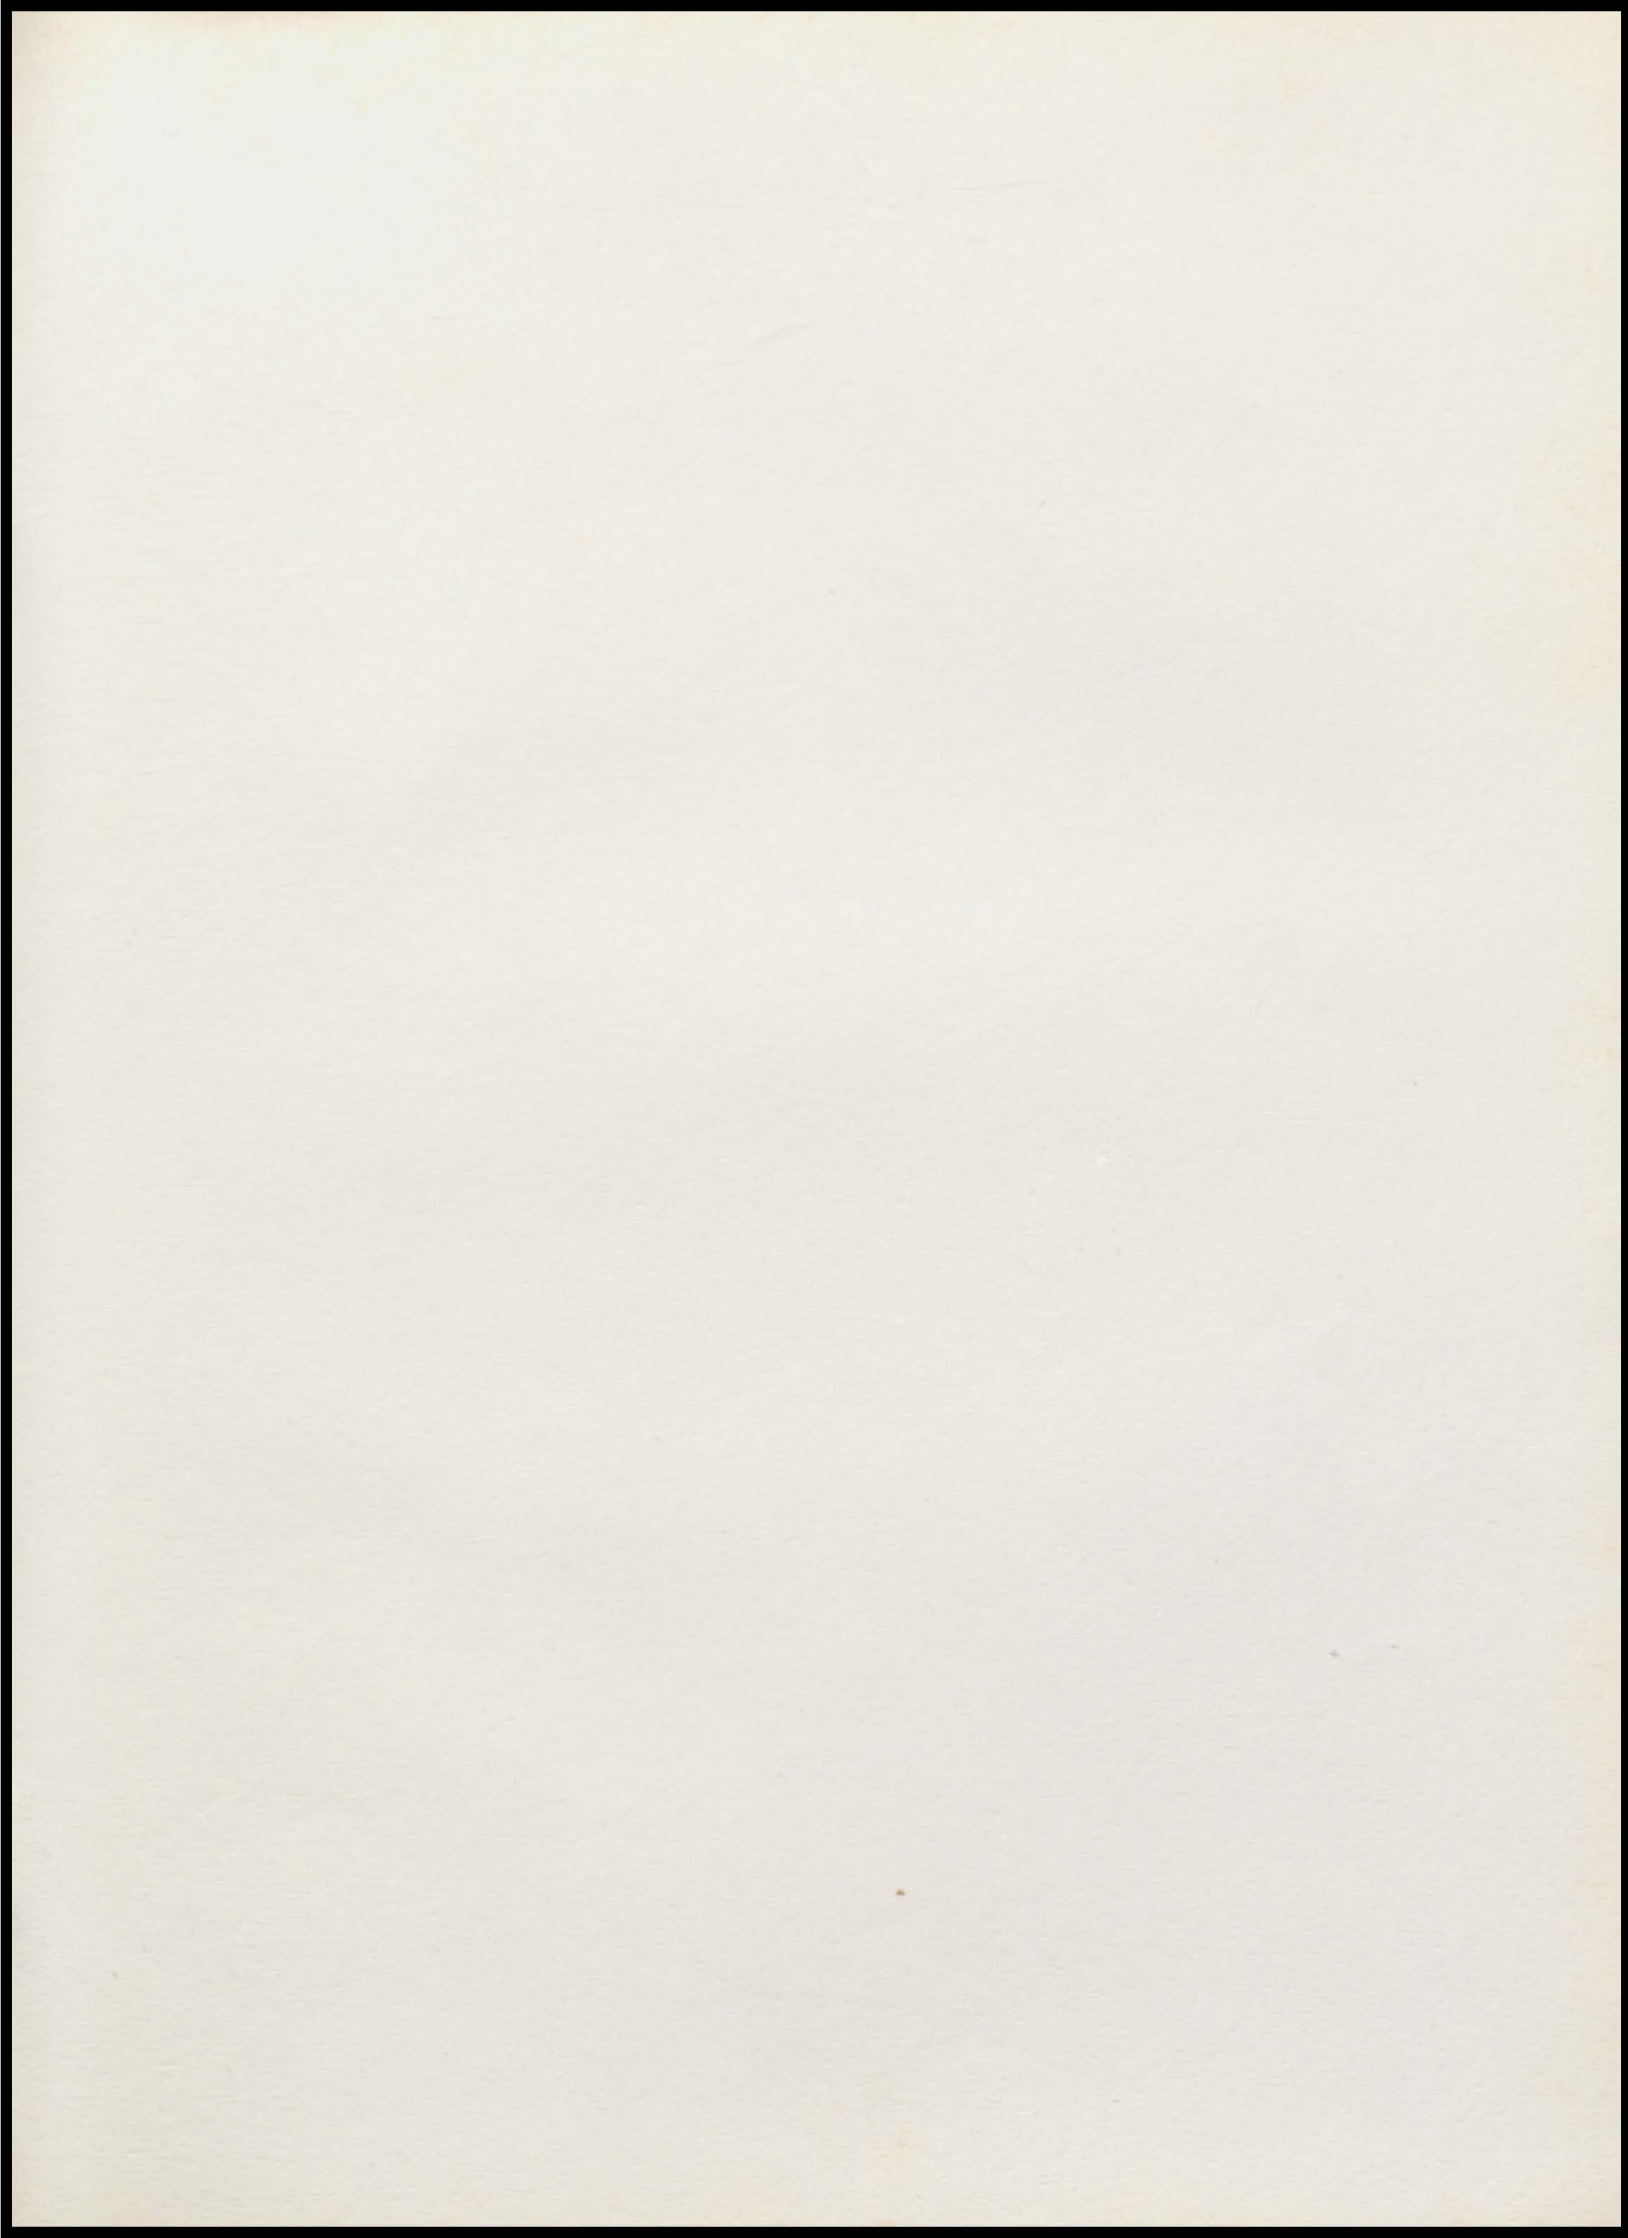

The Advertising Staff wishes to thank the businessmen and patrons for their generous contributions to the advertising campaign.

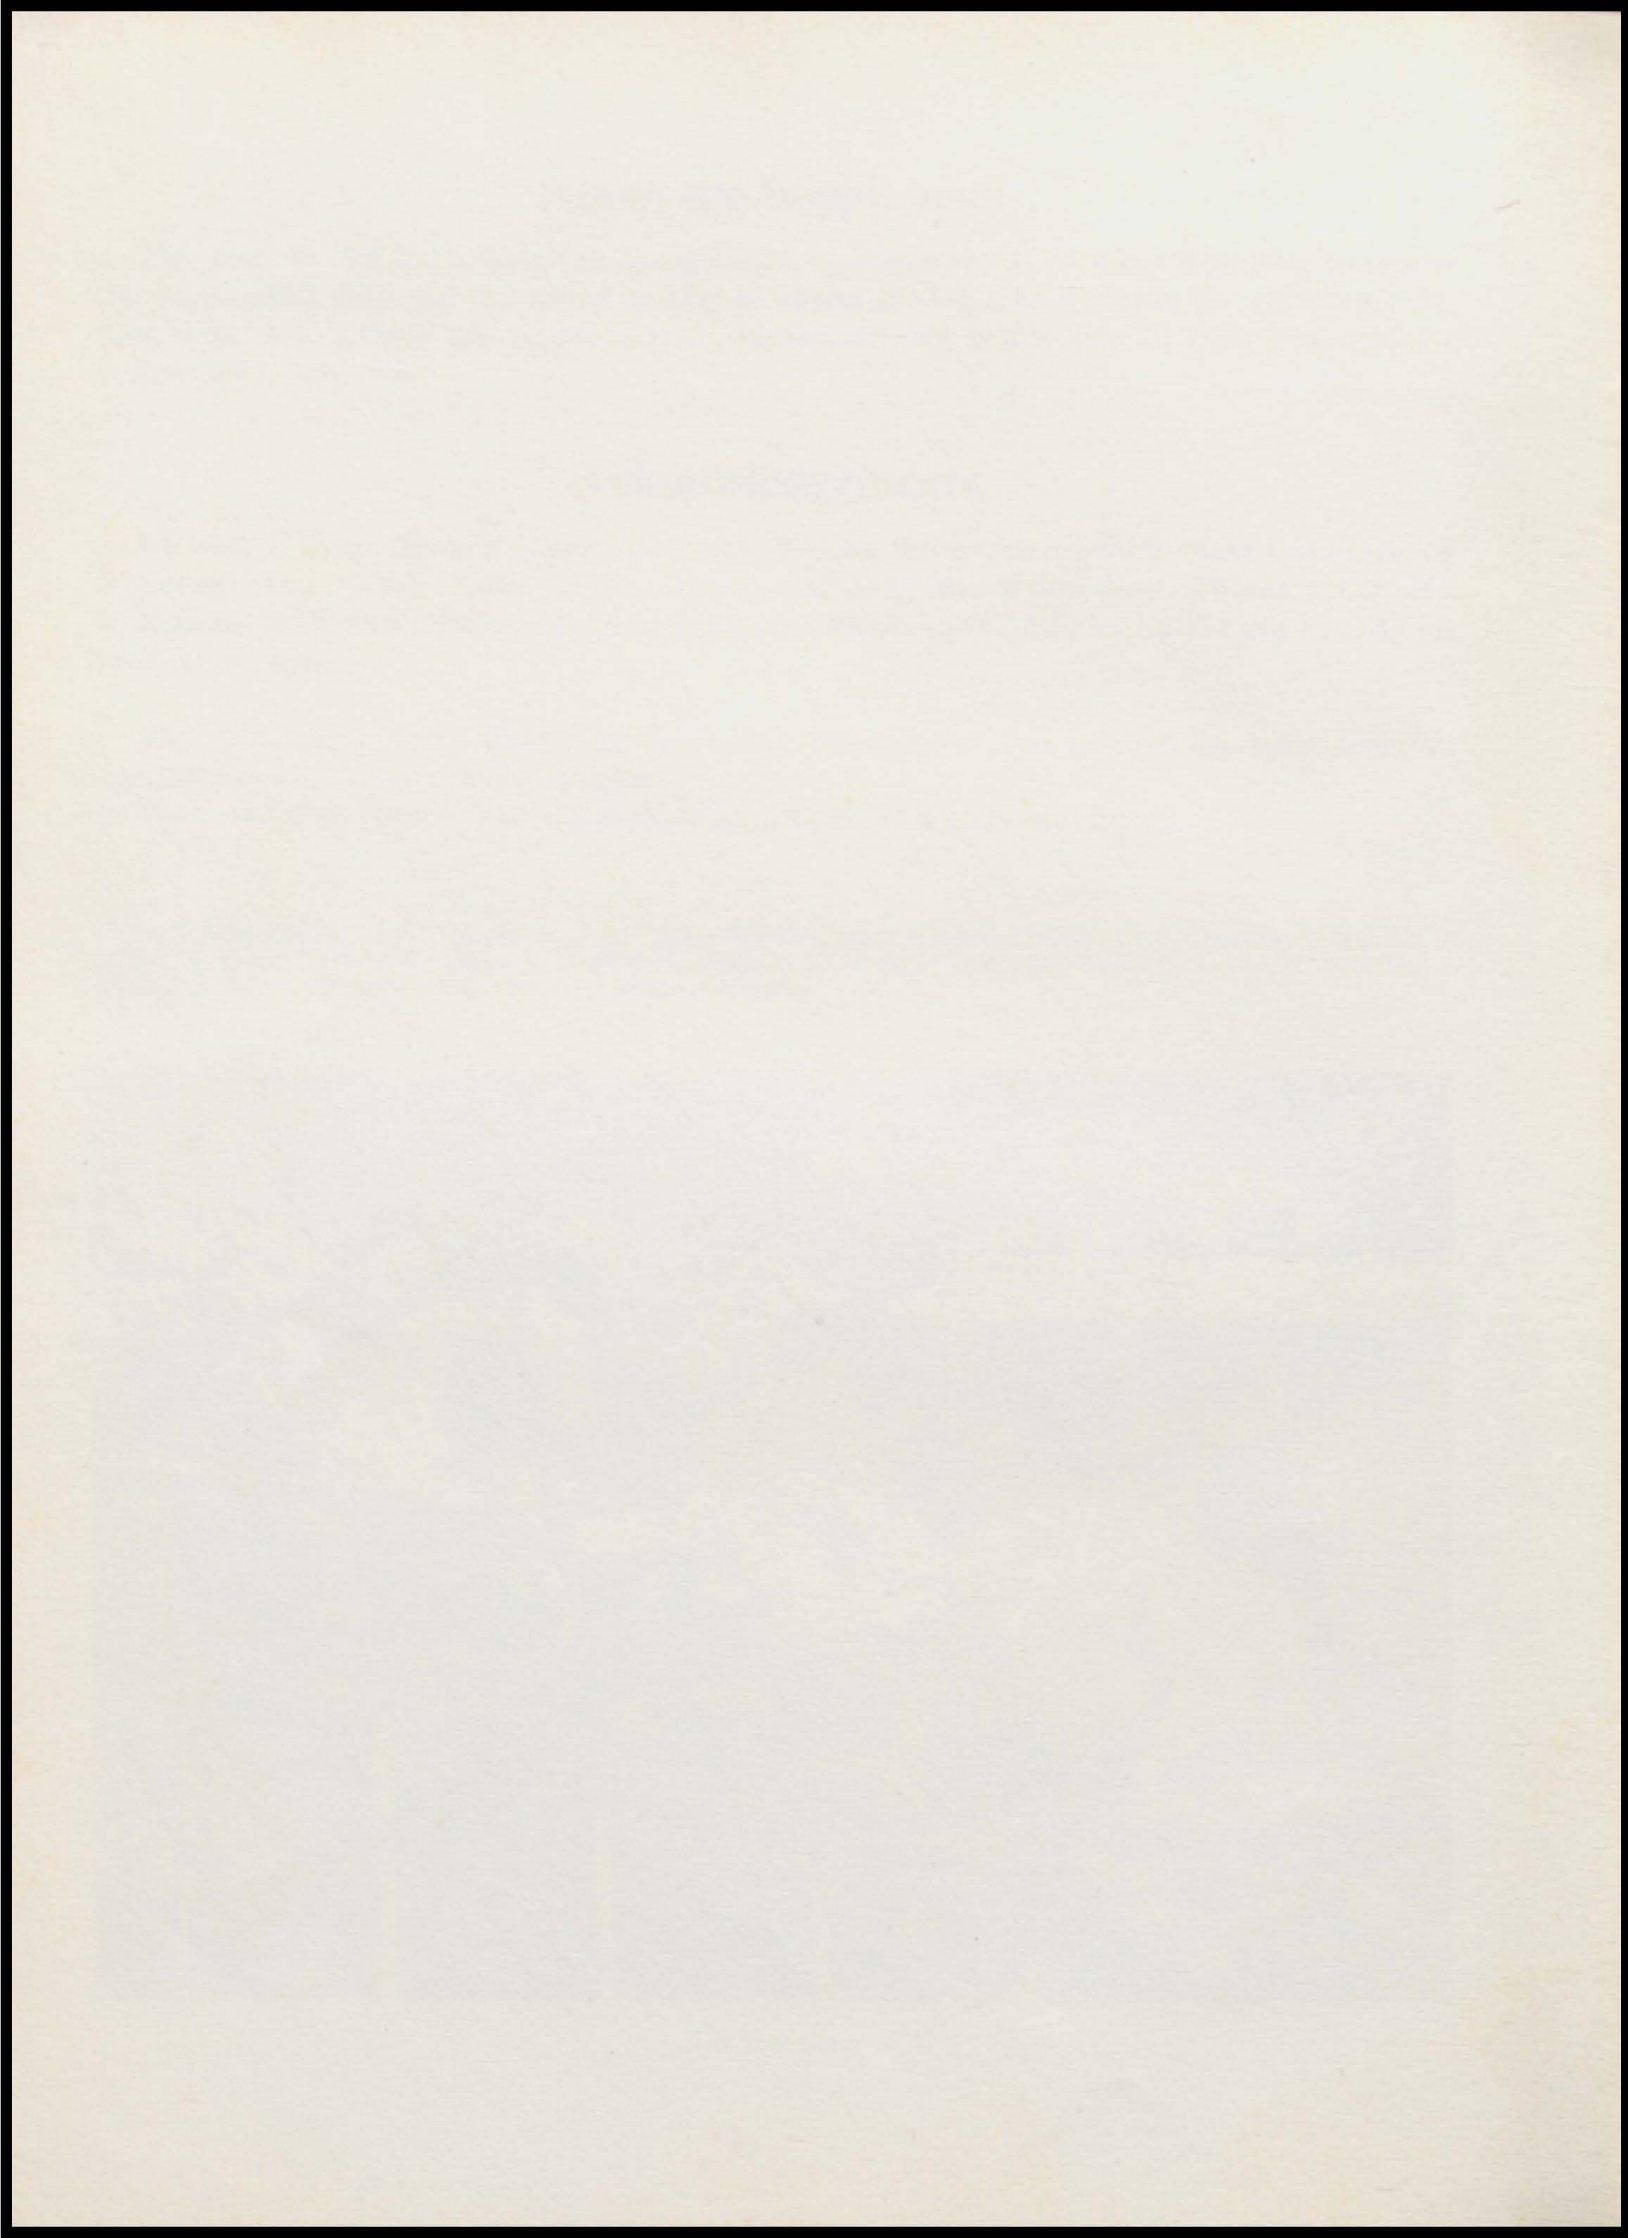

They would also like to wish the graduating class of '71 a successful future.

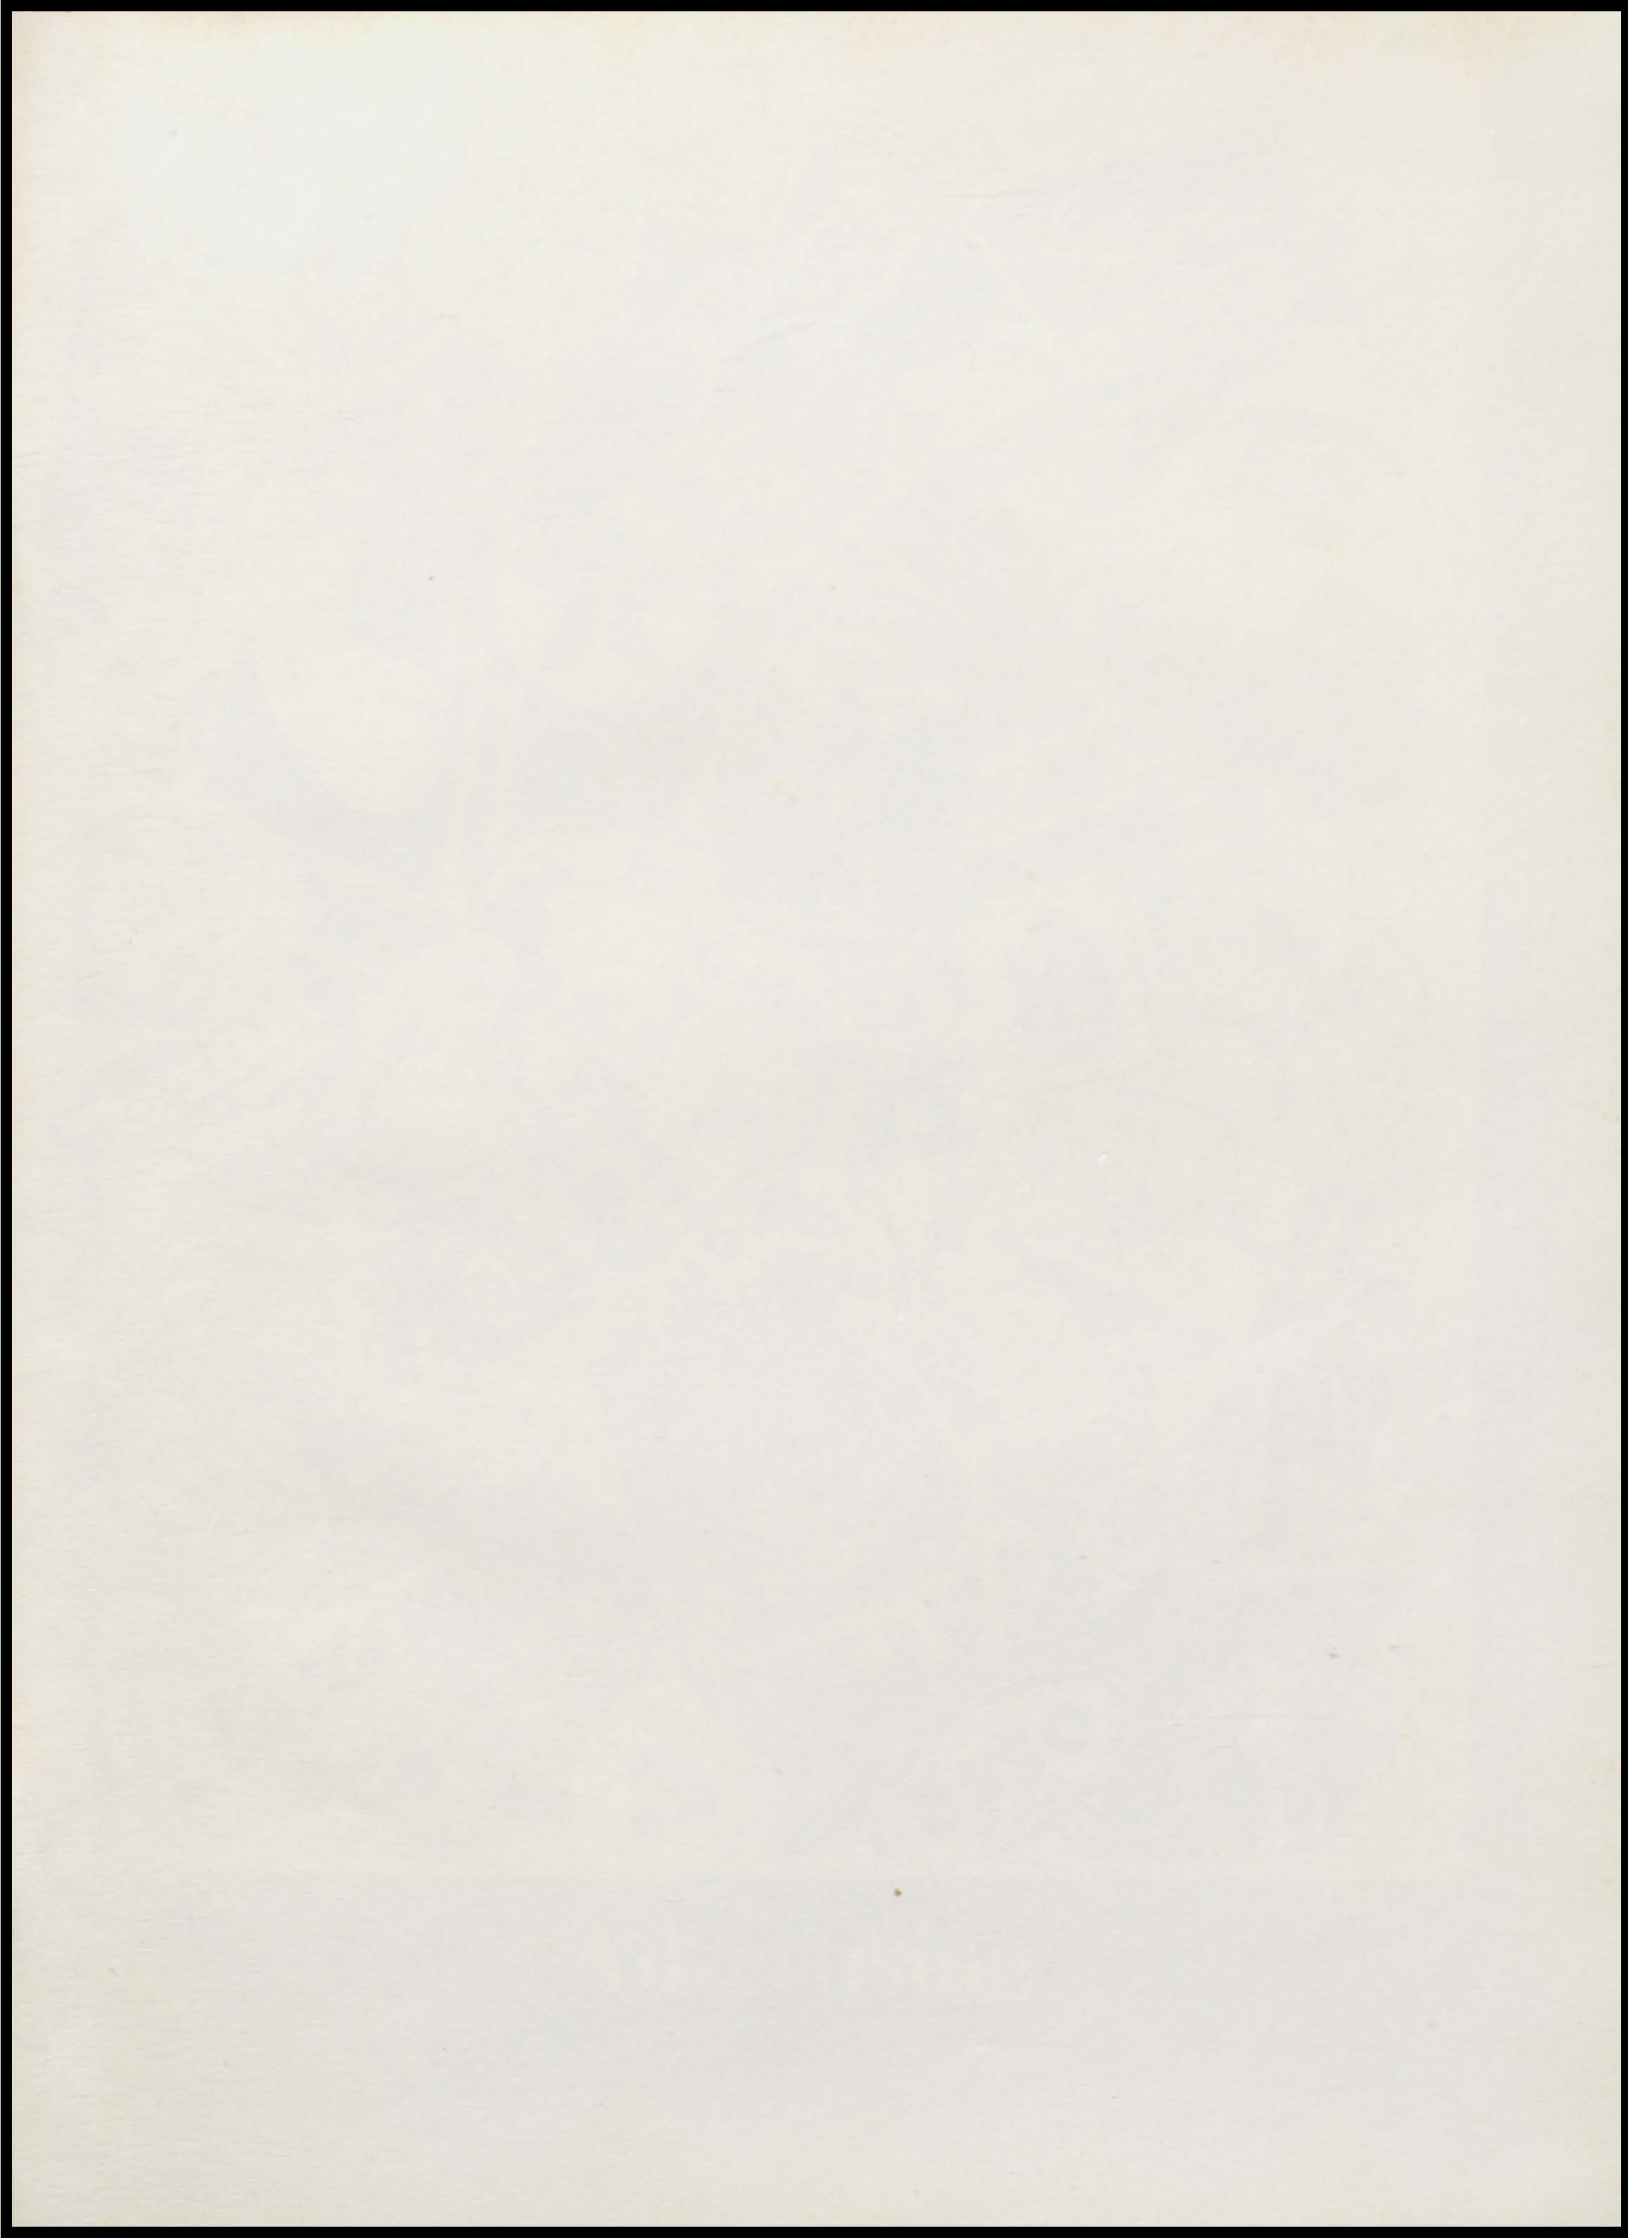

CORRECTION ON PAGE 93: The names of the Varsity Wrestlers are as follows: STANDING: C. Champlin, D. Dunckel, J. Sylstra, S. Locke, G. Roys, T. Tansey, G. Lobdell, C. Stratton, Mr. Turco, Coach. KNEELING: G. Steffen, M. McMullen, J. Steward, R. Schmidt, P. Branham, T. Volk, R. Lobdell, C. McMullen.
