A Lasting Impression

Oxford High School

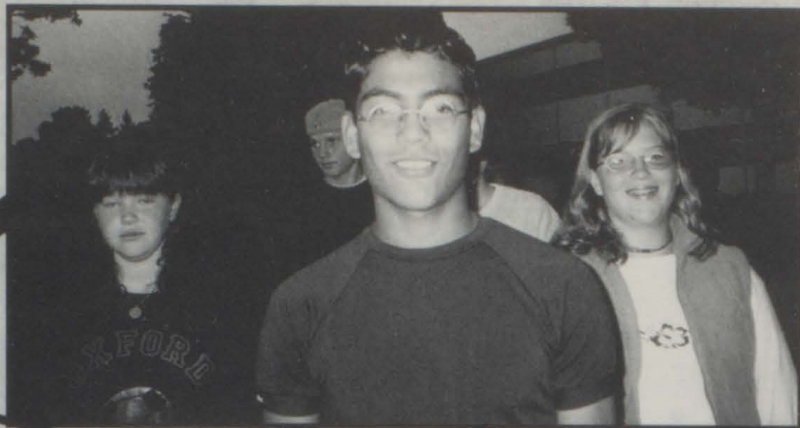

South Washington Avenue
Oxford, New York 13830

JAMMIN' Eric, everyone knows we're not allowed to have headphones in school. Bad boy.

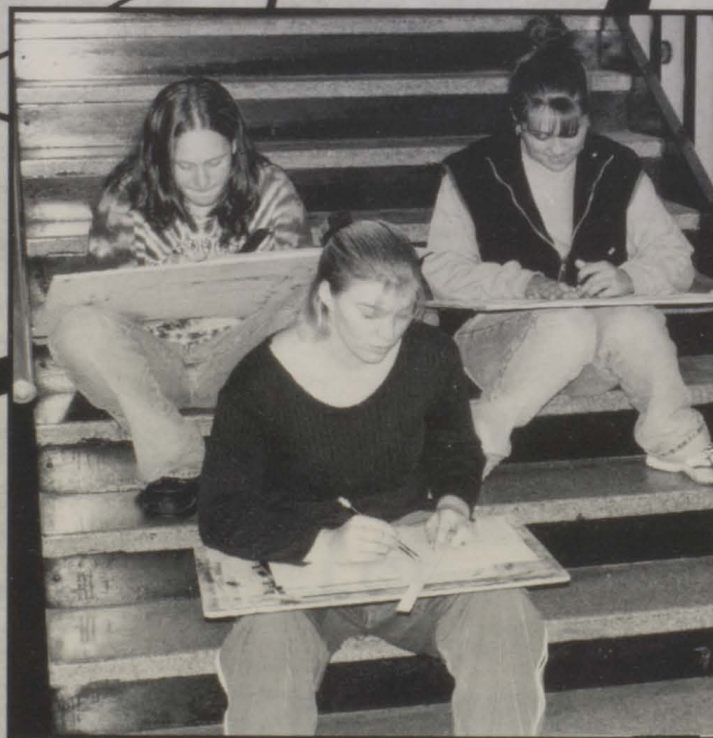

MR. POPULAR

Roberto always seems to be surrounded by a crowd of freshmen girls. Must be his fan club.

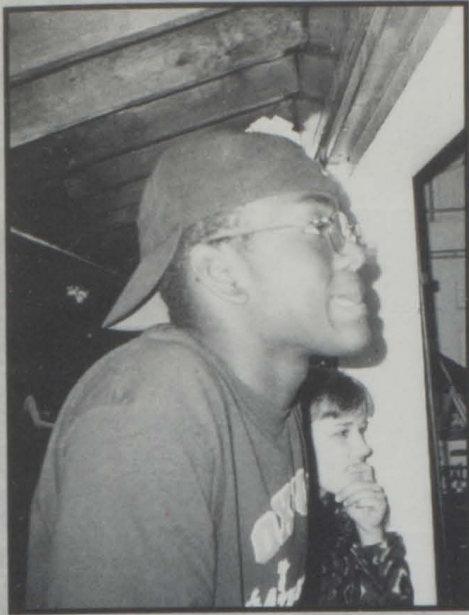

BUDDIES Mike and Adrianne get close in the cafeteria. You two are just too cute.

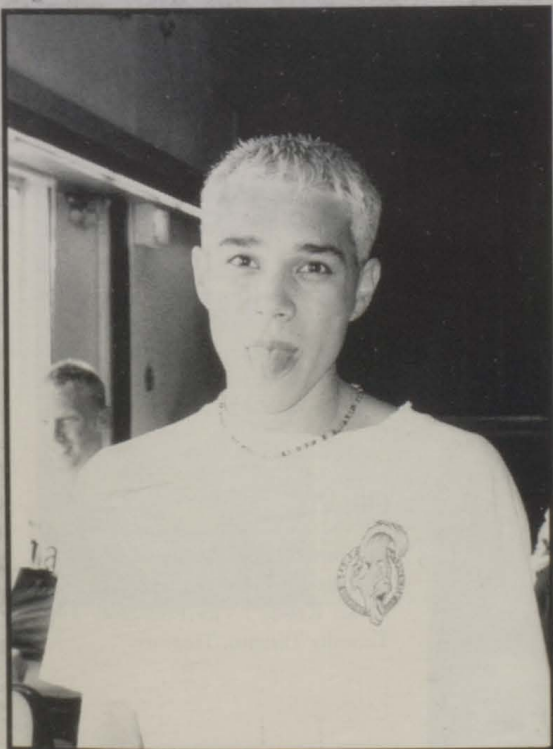

HARD AT WORK? At least Amanda B. seems amused. Now what's wrong with Wendy and Amanda F.?

MMMMM, THEY ALL LOOK SO YUMMY! Sam Boyer is standing outside the concession stand trying to decide what to have. Go for the Skittles, man.

BLEACH Soccer players think they're so cool. Brandon has such a unique way of telling us how he feels. Nice tongue.

Every day we see the same group of People

Some are just coming to high school some are getting ready to leave

this place. Hopefully having been educated and forming lasting friendships. The year's end brings a new beginning which in turn brings new first impressions.

Use them wisely.

Class of 2003

Our enthusiasm and dedication will take us far

I am very proud to be a member of the class of 2003. This year's Freshman class is enthusiastic and always wants to be involved in whatever is going on. Everybody had a great time working together for days for Homecoming and beat all the upperclassmen with our SaturdayNight Live-25 Float!... We can't wait for Spirit Week! As a class, we will always be dedicated to each other, to our school, and to our community. I hope that by the time we become Seniors that we only become closer and closer and never forget our friendships along the way.

Drew Gates

TOYSTORY? Jessica Bartle, Heather Fredenburg, Matthew Franklin, and Lisa Favorito work at the class' child care service during the Mat Boname Holiday Craft Show. They were some of the toy testers that came that day.

Raised a lot of money and had a lot of fun!

This year, the sophomore class was very successful with our jewelry fund raiser. We raised more than expected and it was great. We all really enjoyed Homecoming. We always do! We got it together this year and even though we got 3rd place for our "Teen Spirit" float, again, we all had a lot of fun.

Everybody always says, "Wow, I can't believe we are Juniors." Well here we are and here we are together, as the class of 2001. We've grown and all learned a tremendous amount from each other. With only one year left after this, we've realized how time flies by. We now cherish our memories more and make the best of our future. We have always worked together and got along most of the time. The junior class has never had any major problems.

We have also contributed to a great year in varsity sports. Being a competitive class makes it even better. We strive with the best, for the best, to be the best because we know we can if we all work together.

This is our last year...

Through the years of 3rd grade field trips and sleepovers at the school we have come together to make our class unique in its own way! Remember the 8th grade food fight where we decorated the cafeteria with an assortment of lunches and the morning program where we experienced something new every day? When we did something as a class we made an imprint on our class history that will never be forgotten. Though fellow classmates have left, we will always share memories of them in our hearts. The memories of students who have stayed will be our memories for years to come. To all of the seniors whom we have worked and played with and become friends with, may all the memories we have shared be our fondest for we are the Class of 2000 and will never be forgotten for years to come.

A NIGHT WE'LL NEVER FORGET

May 15, 1999 - our Junior Prom. To some, this day was just like any other, but to the rest it was one that nothing else in our high school years could ever equal. After the many hours of hanging those glittery paper snowflakes all over the gym (and the fifteen minutes it took to tear them down), we finally realized that we had created something that had brought us all together and made a night that we'll never forget. The cliques that separated us seemed to melt away as soon as we walked through the gym doors. It didn't matter if you were the class jock or the class nerd. It was our prom and we were having the time of our lives. Everyone around you had a smile on their face and looked great. Songs such as "I Will Remember You", "Tuesday's Gone", "November Rain" and "The Dance" played that night at crowning and in one way or another, reflected on the Class of 2000. Being together as a class for our Prom is one thing we'll look back on after we leave this school and wish that we could do it all again.

Fun-Filled Homecoming

Highlights from Homecoming

- Wood was used for the bonfire instead of cardboard as usual.
- The senior class won 2nd place for their float, but appeared on the front page of the "Evening Sun" due to the political subject matter.
- A great crowd turned out to watch the football game on a rainy, soggy evening.
- The Senior cheerleaders worked hard to put on an entertaining halftime show, improvising because of the muddy conditions.
- Scott Cummings and Josh Washington were the life of the party, wearing feather boas to the dance.
- Recent Oxford graduates came to the crowning and stayed around to party at the dance.

MY FEET HURT Melissa and her boyfriend Jesse sit and take a break from a long dance.

WOW LOOK AT THEM! Jaret and Chad watch all the girls go by.

Homecoming Floats

FRESHMEN: 1st place
 "Saturday Night Live-25 years" came to us up close and personal.

SENIORS: 2nd place
 This float was a protest against the poor funding of upstate education.

JUNIORS: 3rd place
 There was an old woman who lived in a shoe.

SOPHOMORES: 4th place
 Let's hear it for "Teen Spirit."

THE FRESHMEN FIRST
 The crowd goes wild when the freshmen find out they won first place for their float.

OOH RAH The football players showed their team spirit by riding on a float in the Homecoming Parade.

GOT ANY CHESTNUTS? This once was a small fire until the football team went out into the woods. Look at that fire go.

Mrs. Carol Russell is retiring this year after devoting 21 years to Oxford Academy. Mrs. Russell was born in the Bronx and her family moved to a farm in Freeville when she was ten. After high school she worked at Cornell in the Agricultural Economics Department. In 1963 she married Merritt Russell and moved to Oxford on July 1, 1964. The Russells have three children: Heidi, Scott and Heather. In March of 1979 she began working for the school as a main office secretary. In 1987 she became the guidance office secretary. After her retirement Carol will attend her 45th class reunion. She will continue to be active in her church, collecting dolls, enjoying antique shows, contributing to a book club and researching her family's genealogy. She hopes to travel the United States and make a trip to Denmark to visit relatives. Carol will remain an Oxford resident so we will see her around town.

Thanks so much for everything you've done. Enjoy your retirement!

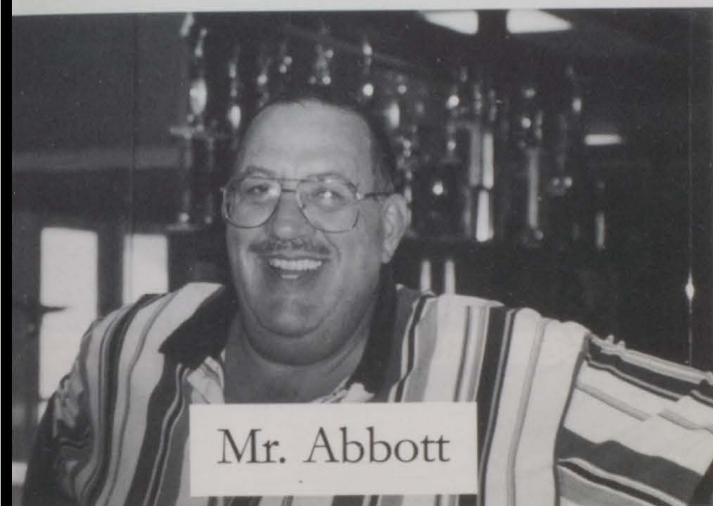

Change of hands at the helm

Mr. Collea, our principal of two years, originally decided to come to Oxford because he has had experience working with both large and small school settings in rural and urban districts. He says, "I felt most comfortable in the kind of environment that Oxford had to offer." After two years he is leaving Oxford High School. He will be returning to the Ilion Junior-Senior High School, where he graduated from and worked for 24 years. The Ilion School is at the northern end of Route 51, which starts in Mt. Upton. It is located in the Mohawk Valley near Utica. His youngest son is a freshman there and his wife, parents, and sisters all live only a few blocks from the school.

Mr. Collea's favorite memories are the activities involving Homecoming and Spirit Week. "They have always been fun. The friendly people in Oxford welcomed me as a stranger and made me feel comfortable and valued." The only thing he would change about Oxford is moving it about 61 miles closer to Ilion so the two districts could merge and he could have the best of both worlds.

Mr. Collea's whole impression of Oxford was that, "It is a fine place to live and work and, most of all, attend school. It is small enough to know you but still big enough to serve you. The people are friendly, hard-working and possess good family values."

From the time Mr. Collea left at the end of October until Mr. Hine took over at the end of November, Mr. Abbott filled the void.

Mr. Abbott says he, "Enjoyed having contacts with the teachers on different topics besides the ordinary ones, like talking about how their classes had gone each day." He says, "If I had the chance to become the permanent principal I would not." He enjoys being the boys' PE teacher too well. He disliked seeing people in the office because of bad news. He did have some enjoyable moments, such as working with Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Carey in the office. He also enjoyed having the opportunity to help out a student who had some bad personal problems.

Mr. Hine came to Oxford after being the principal of the Unadilla Valley Middle School for two years. He decided to come to Oxford because he heard such great things about Oxford. Mr. Collea told Mr. Hine that he was leaving and that there would be an opening for a principal and that Mr. Hine would be able to work with a great student body and be in a great working atmosphere at Oxford High School. Mr. Hine taught high school social studies for 12 years and is happy to be working with high school students.

Mr. Hine intends to listen to what both the faculty and student body have to say before he decides to change anything about the school. He says, "The door is always open to suggestions and questions." The one thing that he really wants to enforce is that the school provides the students with the education that is needed in order for them to pass their regents to graduate and get their diploma. In the short time that Mr. Hine has been here he has enjoyed the friendly atmosphere and the abundant amount of student participation in all extra-curricular activities during and after school hours. He mostly is amazed at the amount of school pride that everybody reflects.

COME PEOPLE EAT, EAT
 Sarah, Kyle, Emily and Mike are in a race to see who can eat the fastest.
WE'RE DONE!
 All the classes finish up while they find out who won.

The challenge for Spirit Week is simple. The student council left the same games as last year but the theme for the posters and air band was different: there was none. Every class was competing for first place which made it challenging. The juniors made their own "Mambo Number 5". Also the Class of 2000 overcame the impossible and won 1st place. This year like every year, was memorable. Elaina Lazarus

ARE YOU READY? YES, HE SAYS.
Danielle Nightengale helps heath Samsel get ready for the toss.
DIZZY IZZIE, DIZZY IZZIE
I guess you can say they now know how it really feels to be dizzy.
WHERE DO I THROW THE BALL?
Bart Brown tries his hardest to show everyone he can throw the ball to the right place.

1ST PLACE: The juniors did a country version of "Mambo #5" by Lou Bega.
2ND PLACE: The freshmen munchkins did songs from the "Wizard of Oz".
3RD PLACE: The seniors' "All By Myself", like how it turned out for air band.
4TH PLACE: The sophomores, "u+me = us".

The Final Results

Seniors	First	113
Juniors	Second	109.5
Freshmen	Third	98
Sophomores	Fourth	94.5

Why Kids Want Jobs?

Kids want jobs to pay for a car, pay bills and to have extra money for things they want or need and for fun.

What's the best way to get a job?

When looking for a job you should try to find something that you would like, put in applications in more than one place and try to get one with the most pay. Sometimes you are stuck with a job you don't like, but if you need the money, you aren't going to be picky.

How does work affect your school performance?

When taking on the responsibilities of work and school, you need to make a schedule that will work around work and school. If you are in any after school sports let your employer know ahead of time so they can work around your sports schedule. If things get too hard on you, you need to make a decision: either play sports or quit the job.

What happens to your free time?

When getting a job you don't have free time. On your days off, you will find yourself either at a game or practice. When you're done usually you will go home and do your homework or just be plain lazy.

If you could have any job, what would it be?

Cashier, helping the elderly, gas station attendant, farmer, cook, waitress, teacher, nurse (CNA), doctor, secretary, lawyer, dancer, artist, computer techie, engineer.....

Marching in Sherburne An annual event

LET'S STOP AT THE GAS STATION. We need to refuel. This has been a long parade on such a hot day.

YOU AIN'T NOTHING BUT A HOUND DOG! The band played an Elvis Presley medley this year. As you can see, Trevor and Sam get to dance and shake their hips.

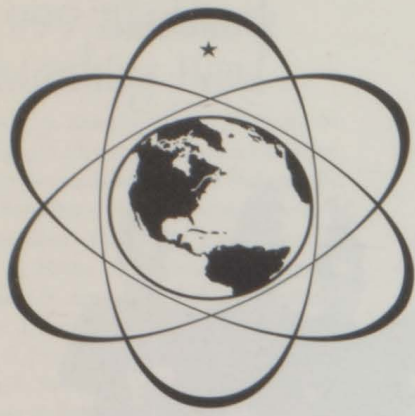

GOOD JOB KEEPING YOUR LINE STRAIGHT. The clarinets swing as they play and march up the street in Sherburne.

THE DRUMS KEEP THE BEAT. Nicole is concentrating on her measures while marching down the street.

And The Band Plays On

BLOW ON GUYS! Casey Ives, Jessica Duncan and Matt Sutton blow their horns during a concert.

LET'S KEEP THE BEAT: Amber Dean, Nicole Soyke and Danielle Tomsa play their clarinets in a music piece.

JAZZ ROCKS: Tom Locke has a solo in this jazz band. Look at him go.

PLAY THAT FUNKY MUSIC: Trumpets blow away the audience at the Winter Concert.

GO OXFORD BLACKHAWKS: The football band plays the national anthem at the beginning of a football game.

A MARCHING WE WILL GO The high school marching band tries to keep in step at the beginning of the Homecoming parade.

WHAT LINE ARE WE ON? Lisa Seaman gets lost behind the music stands during the Christmas band concert.

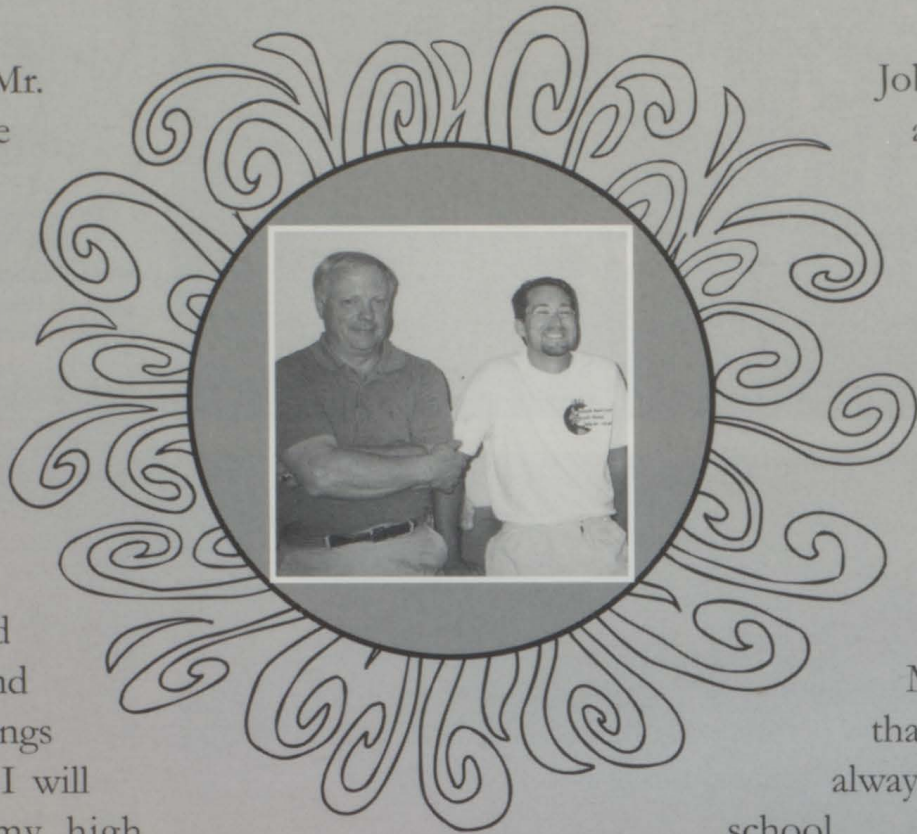

HERE COMES SANTA CLAUS Courtney Voorhis, Luke Williams, and Nolan Wilcox play in the jazz band at the Christmas assembly.

BLOW THAT HORN: Trevor DeSane and Kevin Sheridan, blow on their horns in Sherburne Pageant of Bands.

Mr. Wilcox and Mr. Jobert are two great teachers that are always willing to help and teach us a lot of new things about band. If it wasn't for their hard work and dedication to our class we wouldn't be where we are today. Mr. Wilcox and Mr. Jobert meet after school, together for our marching band concerts, season and I'm very proud to say that I'm a band member. Thank you Mr. Wilcox and Mr. Jobert for all your time and good things that you have given us band students. I will always have great memories of my high school.

OFF TO BAND WE GO

Melissa Bishop and Karlie Grundner play their flutes at the Winter Concert in December.

Jessica Reiss and Rob Thompson are blowing away on their horns while playing "Canticle of Creatures" by Jim Curnow at the Winter Concert.

Jeff Golden and Courtney Voorhis drum their drums in the Homecoming Parade.

Diana Edick and Kim Potter show off their talent at the Sherburne Pageant of Bands.

Our Winter Concert!!

The level of participation Oxford has had in its chorus has always been excellent. In the past four years we have been well prepared for every concert, and challenged by the selections. The chorus continues to perform at various community activities, including concerts at the Oakdale Mall and area high schools. This year our chorus will be performing in NYSSMA, a state competition. Under the direction of Mr. Wilcox we are certain to do very well. In addition to this new experience, a significant number of Oxford's choral musicians are chosen each year to participate in county and state level festivals, one of which Oxford will host this year. The choral experience that Oxford offers is a rich and rewarding activity that its members will always treasure.

The police, fire department and the funeral home directors came to the accident scene. This was played out as an actual accident. Many people were upset by the scene that they saw. This is done ever four years.

This year SADD has done some fund raisers. They put on a bake sale at the Mat Boname Craft Show and had a bottle drive. There were many volunteers and members that participated in these fund raisers. The 1999-2000 Student Government has started with a year of changes. Mrs. Pierce replaced Ms. Schaefer as head advisor. Mr. Rathbun continues on as our second advisor. We've left the cozy confines of the Special Needs Room and moved into the more professional atmosphere of Mr. Rathbun's room.

As usual, we started off with Homecoming as one of our big events. This Student Government created a new, more fair way of judging floats. The parade and bonfire were again a success. In the future, our organization is planning to help serve Thanksgiving dinner, help decorate the town, and gather food for those in need for Christmas. As always, we can't wait to get Spirit Week underway.

Como Vao todos?

Hi, I'm Joao, a ROTARY exchange student from Brazil. First of all I would like to say thank you to ROTARY for giving me the opportunity to come to Oxford, and to my host families, the Williams, Colquitts, and Dains. I really appreciate everything that you have done for me. I enjoyed my time here. I have so many new experiences such as snow, football, girls' soccer, living at a farm, snowmobiling and so many other awesome experiences. This was the best year of my life, and you will know exactly what I'm talking about if you become an exchange student. Thank you all!

Joao

I'm the Exchange student from Russia. My name is Elena, Kelen, wa-wa-wa. I was born when Napoleon was born, when Korean people celebrate independence day, when people from Costa Rica celebrate Mathews Day and so on. I'll give you just the year of my birth (1983). I would like to thank all my families (the Hubbards, the Monacos, the Landous) school workers, and of course the Rotary, which gave me a chance to have one of the best years during my life. I want to wish everyone to be happy and always remember that I'll be glad to see everyone in my own town.

Hi Everybody,

I really enjoyed the time as an exchange student here in Oxford. If you go away from home, you learn a lot of new things. In every country people are different and they have another style of life. It's been so much fun meeting new people and challenging learning a new language. I would like to say thank you to my family, the Niederers, and all my great friends, who made my staying here so enjoyable. You all helped me very much to feel like I'm home. This year was a really good experience, the best in my life. I never will forget the wonderful time here.

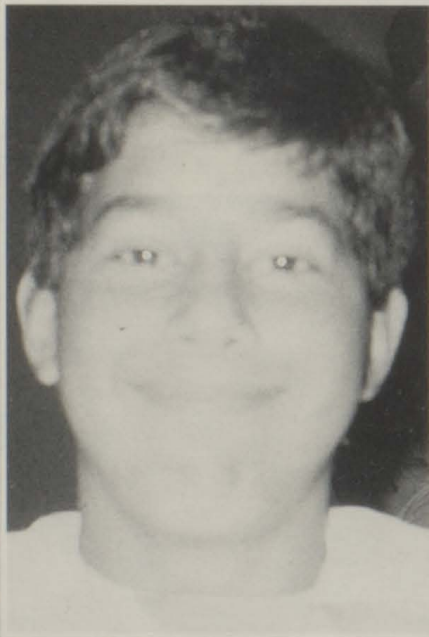

Thanks and good luck to all of you!

Oi guys!

As you know, I'm Sarah from Brazil and guess what? I don't speak Spanish. It's Portuguese! But I want to thank you for trying to make me feel welcome by speaking to me in Spanish. I came to Oxford in August '99 for a year and I can't believe how quickly the time is going. I have made many friends and I will carry the fond memories of Oxford High School with me always. I don't think I would be as happy as I am if I had been sent to another community. I enjoyed the classes here and the teachers that I have had. Something that I learned as an exchange student is even though the cultures are different, we all share the same attitudes towards life and each other. My many thanks for my host families and friends. I will miss you a lot.

Sarah

Hi everyone!

For all of you that don't know me (hardly impossible considering the size of Oxford High School), I'm Oliver Zeiser. I am an exchange student from Germany this year and I'm 18 years old. First I would like to say thanks to everybody. I really had a great time here in Oxford. I met a lot of new people here and not only that, a few of them are my friends now. That's probably one of the best things in Oxford, everybody is really nice and friendly and try to help whenever they can. I had fun playing soccer here for the varsity team. Just too bad that we lost in the playoffs. But I wish the soccer team good luck next season. I'm really glad that I came to Oxford as an exchange student and not somewhere else. I'll never forget you guys and hopefully you'll never forget me!

Oliver

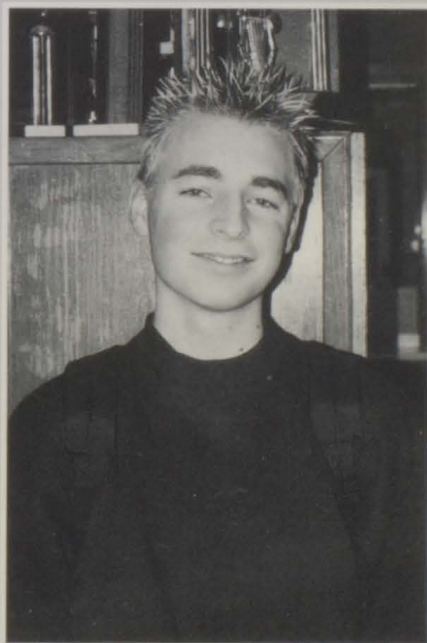

Salut,

This year so far in Belgium it has been magnifique. I have done and learned so much since being here. I have visited Luxemburg, London and Holland. In the spring I will be going to Paris and Poland. I am also progressing with my French. At first it was hard because people here speak very fast. It took me awhile to get used to their speed. One other thing that helped is that my first family spoke English and they would assist me. School is very different from our school. The first day I felt completely lost, but luckily my host sister and I had the same classes. What confused me was that every day you did not have the same classes, and if you had the same class in a week, it could be in a different room. Therefore, I was going to the wrong classes in the beginning of the year. I do enjoy school. Everyone has been very nice and helpful. The best part of Belgium so far is the food, especially the chocolate. My host father makes the most delicious chocolate mousse. It is perfect and he is a most wonderful cook. I have tried things I normally wouldn't eat like foie gras, ox tail, duck stomach and lamb's tongue. My favorite is foie gras (chopped liver), which my host father cooks in a very good creamy sauce with truffles. I hope everyone is having a very good year and I will see you soon.

The School Resource Officer program, although new to this area, has been in effect in other areas of the country for many years. The program is based on a triad concept, meaning that the officer has three duties: to act as law enforcement presence, counselor and educator. The latter two are more prominent. The SRO is not a school disciplinarian and only becomes involved in that area if a violation of law has occurred. It is a welcome change to me to be able to work with the students and staff of the Oxford School District, to have the opportunity to educate and advise them on the laws and rights they have, and hopefully promote a better working relationship between law enforcement and the communities that they serve. I look forward to working with the youth of this community and watching them grow to become productive members of our society. They are the most precious resource that our country has and our future depends on them. Good Luck.

A great season leads to The Dome

This season was hard to follow after last year's season of 9-1. We didn't lose too many players from last year and had a strong team again. This year's schedule was a difficult one with opponents like Dryden, Hancock, and a powerhouse class C Walton. After we stayed with Walton for three and a half quarters we knew that we had something good. We played strong the remainder of our eight game season and were 7-1. In the sectional playoffs we offed Deposit and went into the Hancock game with vengeance. We won the game and the Division VII Section IV crown. Then we went to The Dome to play Hamilton in the quarter finals of the state playoffs. We ran into a stronger Hamilton team and suffered the second defeat of our season. This ended our 1999 football season. Overall we had a great season and wish all the luck to next year's team.

Third division title

In 1999, Oxford soccer had another incredible season. We were able to pull off our third consecutive division title and went further in sectionals than any other soccer team in Oxford's history. Our success was due to many things. As the season went on, our team became more united. We made weekly trips to Pizza Hut and had other excursions to Northgate Speedway and Ponderosa. The team became much more skilled and really started to "click" as the season went on. Coach Rogers started traditions such as the "quarter war". The defense took the prize. We also owe Coach Rogers a thank you for all the punishment (or conditioning) that he put us through. All in all it was a great season. One that no one will soon forget.

Second division title in two years

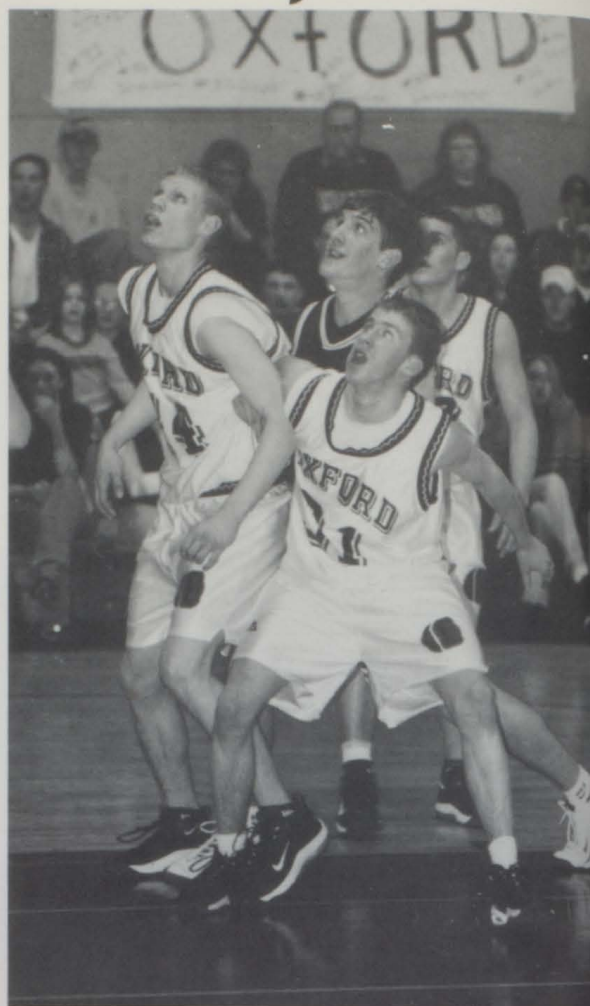

Our 2000 basketball season brought us our second divisional title in two years and a 12-9 record. Every player on our team contributed to our success and each brought many different talents and skills to the court every night. When we were performing at our optimal level, we played solid, intense, and fundamentally sound team defense. On offense we were equipped with many weapons and when we all heated up, we really became a force to reckon with. We played our best team basketball in the months of January and February leading into the play-offs with an impressive win over Whitney Point. B-G had our number in the two prior showdowns, but we got the win in the one that really counted for our Division 2 title. We captured a dramatic win in the first round of the sectional play-offs against Thomas Edison only to lose in the second round to a quality Sidney team. I know I speak for all the seniors when I say that we will most definitely miss playing basketball for Oxford and good luck in a promising season to next year's team. INTENSITY!!!

Looking back, this year's girls' varsity basketball team had an extremely successful season and an overall good experience. We started off strongly playing for the championship in both the Norwich and McCarthy Tournaments. During the course of the season we recorded huge wins over B-G, Greene and Oneonta who have been the SUS powerhouses for quite some time. We brought home the division title and reached the SUS championships. Down the stretch we played very well. Our season ended with a heartbreaking loss to eventual Section IV champion Watkins Glen. Throughout the season we played with great intensity and showed considerable ability, leaving much to look forward to next season.

JV has outstanding season

The JV volleyball team had a very successful season this year. The girls won their division and placed third in the Susquenango association with a record of 13 wins and 4 losses. This record allowed the JV team to advance to the JV championship tournament. In the semi-finals of the JV tournament our team was defeated by Windsor.

The JV volleyball team had an excellent showing in the Sherburne-Earlvile JV Tournament. In the first round of the tournament the team posted a record of 8 wins and 1 loss. we beat S-E 2 games to 1 to place third overall in the finals of the tournament. The JV team had an outstanding season overall!

Varsity season enjoyable

This volleyball season might not have looked much different from past seasons here in Oxford. Our record did not change even though our coaches did. This year was Miss Beckwith's first year as well as Ms. DeJager's. Miss Beckwith did a wonderful job working with the varsity team. Although we did not have a winning season, we did have fun. Some of the things I will always remember are: Sarah's lay up spikes, Crystal fracturing my nose, Schlane's serves, Theresa's blocks, and Katie's "throws", as well as our weekly get-it-all-out sessions. Our stats person also took a lot of time out of his schedule to show up and watch most of our games. (Thanks Jimmy). This season has been one that will never be forgotten. Thank you Miss Beckwith. A close team

This year's wrestling team was Mr Potter's second season. This year's team was one of the best teams that we have had. We were a very young team in that we had an 8th grader and eight freshmen. We had three champions at the Clyde Cole and we placed the highest as a team in a long time by placing 4th. The team was very close and we got together the whole season. We won our division for the first time since 1988. The sectionals were our best showing in a long time. We had one Champion in Nate Mumbulo and Kyle Muzzy took 5th and Chris Weiss took 6th. We placed 10th as a team which ranked our team 16th in the state. We lose good wrestlers this year in Jeff Golden, Scott Murcay, Mike Thompson and Tom Toomer. We wish them luck in college and good luck to the wrestling team next year.

Great spirit, Great season

This year's softball season was very exciting. Our team went to sectionals and lost in a very close game (4-3.) The team this year has become very close. Practices and team dinners always had us ready to go. Everyone cheered everyone else on and the team spirits were always up no matter what the outcome of the game was. I hope that next season will be as great as this season was and that we will go all the way. We miss all of the seniors and wish them good luck in college. Melany Garvey

Team works together for a successful season

The 1999 Blackhawk season was a very memorable season for all who participated. The season capped off an Oxford boys sports run of three consecutive sports, starting with football in the fall and basketball in the winter. The baseball team showed the ability to never get down on themselves, thanks to Coach Griffin who always told you what you did wrong in a constructive manner that helped players not make the same mistake twice. The team worked together well, winning many close games, creating much suspense and excitement for the fans as well as the team members. We thank the leadership of the seniors who enthusiastically supported the underclassmen on the team who had raw talent, but needed the knowledge of the more experienced players. This was a great ball club and a team I'm proud to say I was a part of.

What is Winterguard?

Spending 7 to 10 hours a week, marching and performing on a 50 by 70 foot area, spinning a 3 1/2 pound rifle or a 5 1/2 foot flag. It is giving your free time to strive for perfection and hearing, "That's wrong!!", "Pay attention!!", "Do it again!!", "Try harder!!", "Remember your counts!!", over and over. It is driving or riding countless hours in all kinds of cold weather and storms, and grabbing a bite to eat in more fast food places than you care to remember. Sometimes you march with blisters on your feet, splints on your fingers, when you are ill, and when every muscle and joint in your body aches. It means being willing to try again even though you have just suffered a defeat, the tears are streaming down your face, because you've done your best and your heart is breaking. Then another Saturday comes!! Judges, instructors, other class Winterguard Units, and 500 to 700 spectators are waiting for your performance. For three to four minutes, and in some cases five to six minutes, every ounce of your strength and concentration is dedicated to making your family, friends, school, town, and guard members P*R*O*U*D of your competitive unit. The demanding endless hours of practice have been a prelude to this moment, and you've given it your best. There is hope in your heart, "Please, let this one be ours!!" But Winterguard is more than work and intense competition. It is closeness between young people that can not be described. It is doing your best and knowing that you have your own group of "Fans" who will always encourage and support you, win or lose!!

THE RIGHT ATTITUDE

Seniors

Jessica Luyster

I have been in guard for 5 years. I have used the silk and rifle. I remember meeting guys at our shows and then never talking to them again. I remember all the crying before and after shows. Trying to juggle work and guard. I remember hanging out with Deb and getting in trouble with Mike for being too loud and horsing around too much. Having really serious talks about life and problems. Guard has been the main subject in my life.

Debra Barrows

I have been in guard for 5 years. I have used the silk all 5 years. I will always remember hitting my head on a trash can at the Vestal show in '98 and still performing with a concussion. I remember all the pep talks and making Tess cry when we performed our best. I remember having a baby shower for Trisha on championship weekend. I remember thinking that I would never make it this far in guard. I really enjoyed working with the Cincy girls.

Trish Clendening

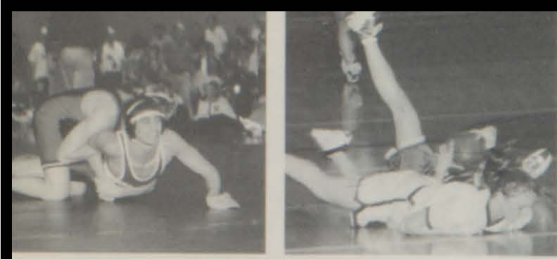

I have been in winterguard for 5 years. I have used the rifle, saber and silk and enjoyed the marks they left on me. I remember praying that we would take a good placement before every show. I remember Debbie hitting her head on the garbage can. I will always remember the victory of whatever placement we had. I have one thing to say to next year's members: good luck in whatever you do, don't give up.

Kelly Lints

I have been in winterguard for 6 years. I have used the rifle, saber and silk. I remember crying before and after every show because we were all so happy. I remember Trisha hitting me in the head with her saber in the middle of the '97 show. Trying to get Kim and Jolene to stop fighting right before a show. My helping to instruct the Cincy winterguard. I will miss all of the winterguard members so much when I graduate! Good luck everyone!!

A JOB WELL DONE! All the participants of the dispute mediation training received certificates and applause at the end of their two day training.

NOW THE ISSUES IN THIS DISPUTE ARE..... Thom Kelsey is playing the role of one of the mediators and listing the issues involved in the dispute. The mediators learn to listen well and ask questions to get to the issues which must be resolved.

I THINK I HEARD YOU SAY..... Andy Gates, playing the role of a peer mediator, is listening to Katie Bates, a disputant, tell her side of the dispute.

Students work hard to prepare to become peer mediators

The peer mediation program is designed to help students solve their differences in constructive ways. Through the use of peer mediation, conflicts can be resolved without the use of an adult authority figure.

Most recently, fourteen students have been trained as peer mediators. They must remain completely neutral and keep the sessions confidential. Mediation is a voluntary process where the goal is to produce an agreement that will help the students resolve their conflicts.

Students may be referred for mediation by a teacher, staff member, another student or themselves. Two peer mediators will meet with those involved in the conflict and help to guide them in finding their own resolution to their problems.

THEY HAVE COME TO AN AGREEMENT. Aja Otero and Stacey Rice, who are playing the role of mediators, are about to write up an agreement between two disputants, played by Jamie Sabines and Allen Wall

Honor Society

Our Oxford chapter serves the community

The Oxford chapter of the National Honor Society continued its tradition of community service again this year.

Members of the Honor Society began the year by assisting vendors at the annual scholarship craft fair in the fall. Members helped vendors set up in the morning and pick up in the evening.

During the Christmas season the Honor Society "adopted" two families. Members brought in gifts, wrapped them, and delivered them to the children of these families. This is truly a rewarding experience.

The Honor Society again helped the Oxford Dollars for Scholars with its annual phone-a-thon. This activity is always enjoyable but the chocolate chip cookies are always the highlight of the day.

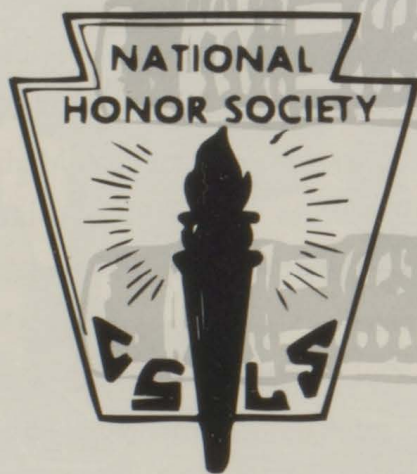

We will finish the year with our induction of new members on March 30th, and then help our new members get their feet wet by sending everyone to the primary school to hide Easter eggs.

What do you think are the main issues teens face?

Being ignorant fools brainwashed by T.V. I'm more scared of conforming than having to face sex and drugs.

Do you feel you have to be popular to be happy? (Out of 101 Responses)

Popularity is just a self-insurance that you are better than everyone. By being popular you are only truly accepted by your shallow outer shell. Personally, I look on the inside of everybody and I don't care if they're "popular" or not. If they are not ignorant towards other people then to me they are "popular" in my eyes.

Leadership Opportunities for our Seniors

Boys' State

ON YOUR FACES! I can't count how many times I heard that during my week at Boys' State. When I wasn't doing push-ups I had fun. Sometimes even when I was doing push-ups I had fun. During my time on the SUNY Morrisville Campus I learned a great deal about state government, politics, and marching in the military. I-Love-Marine-Corps! Also, I made many new friendships. And interestingly enough, I learned the Marines' own special language. Trevor Tompkins

Girls' State

Last June I was the Oxford Representative at Girls' State. At Girls' State you are divided into parties (Nationalist and Federalist) and counties. We were given a restricted amount of money and we were given an assignment to make a state in groups to the best of our ability. I learned a lot about the government and parliamentary procedure. We visited the State Capitol Building in Albany. While we were there we held a mock debate. I made a lot of new friends and I thought it was a great experience.

When you walk in the door they tell you that this week will change your life forever. They tell you that you will have more fun in this one week than you have had in a long time. At the end of the week, they tell you, you won't want to leave. These are all things that I highly doubted when entering the Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) conference, but I quickly saw that all the hype was true.

What makes this conference so incredible? The people you meet, the speakers who entertain and stimulate you, the ridiculously fun activities, the intellectual conversations that you have with peers and many things that teeter on the brink of being unexplainable. While having all this fun, I also was constantly engaged in a painless learning environment. These aren't school facts, but facts about yourself, how you deal with new people and most important, what college might feel like next year.

NYLC

This summer I received a letter informing me that I was chosen to participate in the National Young Leaders Conference in Washington D.C. I signed up for the conference not really knowing what to expect from it. Little did I know that the NYLC would be one of the best experiences of my life. At the conference we learned a great deal about our government and the way it works. The whole conference built up to a model conference that everyone took part in on the final day. In addition to the model congress, we took part in many other activities and simulations involving today's major issues. I am sure that I will keep in touch with the people I met at the NYLC for many years to come. The experiences that I had and the things that I learned will be with me for the rest of my life. I encourage anyone who has the opportunity to take part in the NYLC to take advantage of it.

We've watched you reach this point in life
With pride and a tear or two.
It seems the years went too fast.
Your school days now are through.

We'll miss you so when you're away,
But we are happy, too.
'Cause you've worked hard and all you
Want is waiting there for you.

You'll always be our little girl
No matter what you do.
We know you'll succeed; be true to yourself.
We're always there for you.

How many times did this happen in the last four years?!

We love you,
Dad, Mom, Gretchen, Maggie

On March 28, 1981, we were blessed with the sunshine of our lives. We're so proud of you for developing the self-confidence and freedom to be who you are and to meet the challenges presented to you. We're proud of you for knowing how to appreciate life and to find happiness in everyday pleasures. We're also proud of you and thank you for allowing us to hold you close and teaching us to let you go. We're proud to be known as "Lindsay's mom and dad". Remember to always reach for the stars and follow your dreams. All our love.

Remember too what Chipper said -
"If you want it bad enough dreams can come true."

Andy

*You were six months old and full of fun.
With a blink of my eye, you were suddenly one,
There were so many things we were going to do.
But I turned my head and you turned two.
At two you were very dependent on me,
But independence took over when you turned three.
Your third birthday, another year I tried to ignore,
But when I lit the candles, there weren't three, but four.
Four was the year that you really strived.
Why, look at you now, you're already five.
Now you are ready for books and for rules.
This is the year that you go to school.
The big day came, you were anxious to go.
We walked to the bus, going oh, so slow.
As you climbed aboard and waved goodbye,
I felt a lump in my throat and tears stung my eyes.
Time goes so fast, it's hard to believe
That just yesterday you were home here with me.
And tomorrow when the bus brings you home
and you jump to the ground,
you'll be wearing your cap and graduation gown.
So I'm holding to these moments as hard as I can,
Because the next time I look, I'll be seeing a man.*

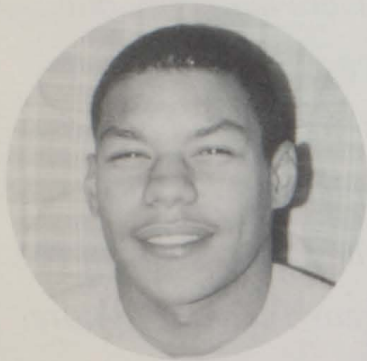

*With All Our Love,
Mom and Dad*

We are very proud of you. Congratulations and we wish only the very best for you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Matt,
Jackie, and Emily

Karie Lee,

You dared to be your own person; no matter what the trend or the crowd was doing, you would let it be.

You have a big heart even though you sometimes found it hard to let it show:

You have one of the warmest, friendly smiles when you let it come out.

You have a very bubbly personality when you let it show:

You love nothing more than to have some sort of conversation which you can't help but let it happen.

"So just let it"

Settle for nothing and go for it all.

WE know no greater comfort or pride than you are our daughter.

Love,
MOM/Dad

Amanda,

Your adolescence has come to an end. You are no longer my baby; now you are friend.

Love Always,
"Dad"

Congratulations, Dan!

We are so very proud of you! We wish you happiness and success in all you do. May all your dreams come true.

All our love always,
Mom & Dad

P. S. You still don't know Jack! (Gotcha)

Congratulations, Jim!

Believe in your hopes and dreams, cherish your memories and follow your heart. Best wishes for a healthy, happy and prosperous future.

We're so proud of you.....OFFICER?

Love,
Mom, Gordie, Becky, Thom, Bobby & Jenna
And Dad looking down from Heaven above.

Amanda

Wishing you always:

- Love to surround you
- Warm memories to cheer you
- Good fortune to walk beside you
- Happiness to fill your heart.

We're all so proud and happy for you today and always.

Love
Timisha, T.J., Marlena

Chris,

We are so proud of the way you grew up to be a very good person. Stay the way you are and follow your dreams.

Love,
Mom, Mike, Chasity,
Adam, Jesse, Chad &
your grandparents

Deb,
Congratulations!

We are very proud of your accomplishments. May all your life's dreams come true.

We all love you,
Dad, Mom & Nick

Trevor,
We're proud of all that you are and all that you will be. Our love always.

Mom, Dad, Heather,
Stephanie

Congratulations,
Trevor!

You have worked in the classroom, in service to the school, and in sports. You have always done your best. We are proud of the young man you have become.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Nate and Erin

Nicole Riley

The future is out there waiting for you to see. Grab your chance. You can be anything. Find your lucky star and you'll go far. You make us proud.

Mom, Brian & Grandma

Congratulations Class of 2000

From the Student Government

"A High School Diploma Is -

Necessary for a profession.
 Desirable in business.
 Helpful in a trade.

College demands it.
 Business asks for it.
 The shop respects it.

With it -

You get a job more easily.
 Advance more rapidly.
 Climb much higher.

High School Training Adds -
 Poise - Dignity - Confidence."

Young people growing up together blind to each other, no one really opened their eyes to look to search, to see who we really are. Most said they would stay
"Friends Forever", yet how true words are these ?

We grow up side by side never knowing the other,
sometimes never caring.
Words were said.
Hurtful, painful, forgiven as we grew up.
Looking, search- ing, exploring, we found our true friends and believed that we made many memories, each our own special thought.
We all spent 13 years together side by side leaving our lasting impressions.
