Oxford Academy High School- I

By Kelli LaGotta

Today my eyes beheld an event
The crash still echoes in my head
Where there was once so much,
now holds nothing
Machines are whirling
Clouds of dust are swirling
Am I the only one that cares?

The others lack sympathy and respect
How does this affect no one else?
All my memories being torn down
with that building
Machines are whirling
Clouds of dust are swirling
Am I the only one that cares?

I sit here now, in a building
empty of emotion
All these walls are strangers to me
My last year here and I will always remember
Machines are whirling
Clouds of dust are swirling
Am I the only one that cares?

Written September 25, 2003 at 1:13pm, when the last wall of the old school went down.

New Dimensions

The theme "New Dimensions" is a perfect way to describe the past school year. This new school gave a new meaning to the title "Freshmen" in high school. Everybody entering the new high school were freshmen, including the teachers. This year's yearbook reflects back on the first school year in this new building and shows students' reactions to the new building, or "New Dimensions." ~Meg Abbott

Freshmen.....4

The freshman class of 2007 not only had to deal with the changes from middle school to high school this year, but also had to deal with a brand new & much larger school. We had to adjust to much longer bells and to interacting with upper classmen. Despite all of the challenges we have encountered this year, we all have managed to adapt and make friends.

-Will MacGuire, President

Sophomores.....8

The sophomore class of 2006 is a fun class. We always have fun and are all academic scholars. We are hard workers and very high achievers. Many of our scholars are also very athletic. We are all always willing to help and lend a helping hand.

-Britany LaMariana, President

Juniors.....12

The Class of 2005... We have become so close. Our class has started to work so well together. I think our prom will be awesome this year. We are all really excited to have it in the new gym! We will continue to grow closer throughout this year and next!

-Gara Bradley, President

Seniors.....16

As the first class to graduate from the new school, we are very excited to use the new auditorium. Our class has had tremendous success throughout the past 4 years, including a gorgeous prom. We worked really hard to win Spirit Week 3 years (hopefully four), which is great. Good luck to all of you in the future!

The sophomores of Oxford Academy Class of 2006 are proud to be a class that is one of the biggest, brightest, most athletic, and even one of the more fun classes to pass through the esteemed doors of the Oxford School System. As a class, we are very involved in many extra-curricular activities. Those activities range anywhere from basketball, field hockey, soccer, and football, to band, chorus, Winter/Colorguard, or any other form of the arts. We always have fun at school, but our true colors shine during a game of some kind or a dance during Spirit Week! We are also very active in our community. Whether it is a community church or care-taking facility, the class of 2006 always seems to be close at hand and ready to work. We are very proud of our achievements we have received as both individuals and as a class. As we continue our academic journeys, we will never forget our roots here at Oxford Academy.

Bio Tsk tsk Mindy.... shouldn't you be concentrating on your work?

Prom Queen and King

Jenna Hansen and Nate Ford

Once upon a time...

On May 10th, 2003, Oxford High School had its Junior Prom. The theme was Enchanted Evening, and the night was, in fact, magical. There were grand archways, glittering trees and stars, and the centerpiece was a magnificent gazebo. All of the decorations were adorned with glitter and accented with white lights. The night went along fairly smoothly except the music turned off twice. It was because there were so many lights, and that plus the DJ's equipment was enough to blow a breaker. Each time it happened though the music came back on shortly. In the meantime during each incident, a chorus of prom goers could be heard singing songs they thought everyone should know. It helped keep everyone's spirits high. Coronation was also lovely as everyone cheered for those who won. Then they danced to the Prom song, "I'll Be", by Edwin McCain. Prom was a lot of fun for those involved, and the junior class worked very hard to make the night unforgettable and fun for all who attended, not just the juniors. And oh yeah...everyone lived happily ever after the entire night! The End!

Stacey Jeanne Flanagan

Nicknames: Stacey-babe, Pumpkin, shorty, goobe bean, gorgeous Sayings: Super, I really do belong in the High School, whatcha doing? Fondest memories: Always being known as the shortest kid in the school, Growing up with my cousin Matt and him carrying my pumpkin off the bus for me because it was bigger than I was. Meeting Darren, Chad, Dustin, and Paul as a freshman-always were there for me. Going to Kelli's birthdaparties and making up dances to different music. Having Kelli over and making masks that consisted of egg and oatmeal because a book told us it was good for our face. Jackie always there to watch my sodium in take. She cares a lot about me. Going on road trips with Ashley to visit colleges, Punkie and I went camping out in the front yard when it was 30 degrees - we slept with winter coats on. Going horseback riding with Brandi on my horse named Boogie. Making face paint at Kelli's house and it stained our skin. I accidentally threw away Kelli's lunch instead of my garbage, Oopps! Having parties and taking all of my friends tubing. Teaching Jessica how to water-ski at my camp. Going to dance with all my dancing girls and dancing on the stage at MGM Studios in Florida. Going to State fair with all of my dancing girls. Meeting Becki, Monica, Erica and April when I changed dance studios. They have always supported me in everything I have done and accepted me for being me. In the musical, Into the Woods, I was everybody's favorite Little Red Riding Hood. Homecoming as a freshman, we all met and got ready at Punkie's. The lasting impression I want to leave with others is never set your goals so that your can easily reach them set them high enough to keep you motivated. Never settle for anything less than 100%. Never wait until tomorrow because soon enough you will run out of tomorrows and have nothing but a lot of empty yesterdays left behind. And never judge a book by its cover because getting to know people on the inside makes you see that they really are beautiful on the outside. Future Ambitions: They consist of going to College, hopefully, majoring in Business Management and minor in Art. I would love to study abroad. To all my friend's thanks for the memories.

Good Ol' Times

"Time is the fire in which we burn." - Gene Roddenberry

Remember our fifth place Sophomore Willie Wonka float? ▲

The left pic is Christie and Jenn when they were still innocent. The next shows the wiser souls they are now. ▶

Dan Glover before he shaved. He still wears the same hat. Scary huh?

Jon Jankowski when he was a young'un. This was before the hippy stage.

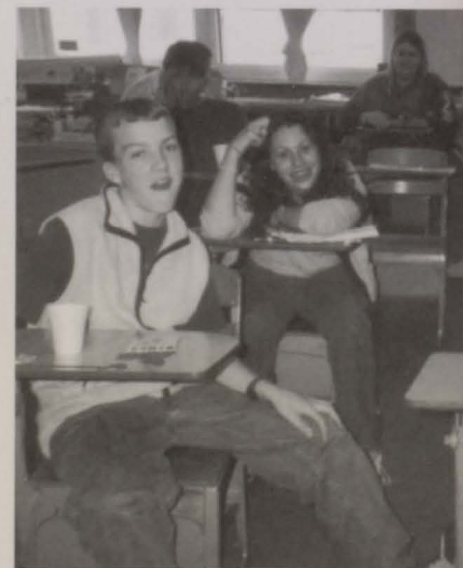

Jenny Ryan is one of those people that has the advantage of staying young forever.

And here's Nate Ford.....before all the medication.

Justine, Colleen, Meg, Heather, Mallory, and Jenn rest up after ambulating around Philly.

" You give up a few things, chasin' a dream." - Long John Silver

Clint Fowlston rides his dog, Ruff. This just goes to show that, in general, dogs are nicer and way more cuddly than people.

This is Mrs. Chrystie's old softball team in O.Y.S.P.

IT'S ALL IN THE IMAGE

The carefree times of childhood are over. As seniors, its time for us to recognize that we must make a transition. Most of us already know what's in store for us, while some may not. The days of simplicity have passed us, like lightning in a storm. We're getting old, guys. Our old school is gone, and soon we will be too. Our class is to be a faded memory. Another broken end.

Will anyone remember us when we're all gone? It's sad to think that our high school days are just about up, but we must look forward. We wake from one dream only to start another. If we're not forgotten then we live forever in glory undimmed. In memory we are immortal.

Mrs. Abbott's kindergarten class. It's like looking into a time before time. Were we really that young?

Remember when being in the Middle School was considered being a "big kid"? What would we have thought if we could see ourselves now?

The past is the foundation of the future. Look at us then. What will we become?

Safety patrol's Washington trip. Kyle and Justine have fun in our Capital.

Recognize these three guys?

you! My Stacey Babe- all the talent shows, playing house, Prom! Saved by the bell, opening my locker with me, middle school BURP! Do "it"? eewww! Darren- trailer! all the advice, playing with bottle at lunch, falling in creek, cowboy dream, Chad D- homecomings and prom! Under the clock, regents week. Dustin- 2.5 kids and a white picket fence, Sarah B- mer her! MX races, hamburger helper, Preston Tower, Price Chopper boys, and imagine...this crazy duo all started at CinaBon, who would have thought? Courtney-Impossible hamburger pie! Lets go burn our WHAT!! Johnny B- Deodorant in SAL? Yeah right! Then turning my presidency into a tyranny and staying in power until the day I die. Memories: Christian...enough said. Necklaces in the bathroom with Heather. Christian and Alex singing "A Whole New World" from Aladdin. Victoria, don't go towards the lights. Nikki, The Spoon. My Abi memories, way too many cause we're dumb. "How does she stand up?" "But the water isn't deep". Band bus trips. My clothes never matching. Middle School summers, Abi living at my house. "Finding Nemo" with Abi and Kenne. ChocoNut Station. Halloween and Christmas with Alex. Watching "The Animal" with Christian in 8th grade. Vicki spitting lettuce in Jenn's drink. Heather. "I'm Helga", Vicki don't even get me started. "Victoria, you're like this rose, need I say more?" Being a Carnie with Erin. "Erin's my math tutor, but she might fail too!" Making everyone around me mad. Never being quiet when I should be. Laughing with Brooke at little kids falling down the stairs and other people falling up the stairs. RTB. Jennifer's Summer House. Playing in the mud with Bethy. Drama Club moments. Always complaining about not having any friends and everyone hating me. Talking to the water fountain dolphins. Maryland dolphins in the AM. Performing with Kisha. Football games. Sitting with Erin and Dakota warming us. To all the unnamable band people, "HOT CARL". Ignoring People. Talking to my imaginary friends. Abi and her natural beauty. She should NOT have worn those pants. For everyone who tends to hang out in the bathroom with me... I have the key. Bonfires. Never sleeping. Dan "Its like throwing a hotdog down a hallway". Abi's mom sitting outside for a few hours 'cause she THOUGHT the door was locked. Heather, I'll dry your eyes. Walks with Abi. Hanging out at the middle school with Christian. Peeling wood with Alex. Eating Mud freshman year. Graduating high school in three years instead of four, and regretting that I didn't get to spend that extra year with all of you.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE ABOUT THE NEW SCHOOL?

"Although it is not completely finished, there are many good things about the new school. The new gym is one of the highlights because it is much more spacious than the old one. I also like the size of the school. It's not crowded and there's plenty of space. Although I like the new school, I am partial to the old one. I'm not quite used to the scenery and I felt more at home in the old school because I was there for the previous three years, but it is exciting to have the first homecoming and be the first to graduate from the new school," said Mallory Carhart.

Nikki Edick said, "What I like about the new school is the auditorium, bigger lockers for gym and everyday use and the new laptops for the classrooms."

"What I like about the new school is the paint job. The other school was just so not colorful," said Colleen Mead.

Mike Lewis said that the thing he likes most is the new technology and bigger lockers.

"What I like about the new school is the elevator and the classrooms are bigger," said Matt Dicks.

Meg Abbott said, "What I like about the new school is the new technology."

WHAT WILL YOU MISS MOST ABOUT THE OLD SCHOOL???

Jenny Ryan said that she misses having lunch with everyone and getting to see everyone all the time.

"What I will miss about the old school is the atmosphere. It's just a difference between the new and the old," said Stephanie Hughes.

"What I miss about the old school is everyone had lunch at the same time and you got to see all of your friends during your lunch period. Now it's kind of hard to see my friends," said Stephanie Eldred.

Danica said the thing she missed the most was the art room.

Class of 2004

word has it

"What I miss about the old school? Wow, the halls, the cafeteria, the gym (home of our prom), the smell. I can still close my eyes and navigate my way around, and today I look out the windows here where all my memories once stood, and there are bulldozers, dirt, and mud," said Kelli LaCotta.

on the bus making a long ride so fun. Sorry you will have to get over me boys. I know I have missed some memories so I am sorry to those I have forgotten. Lasting impressions that I would love to leave with others is the fact that I work hard at what I love. I listen well to others and may be the quiet one but can have a great time when I let loose. I joined the fire Dept to help out my community but also to show others that you can do what you put your mind too. I went my junior and senior year working for my mom at the North Star and still worked hard in school making honor roll and being in the fire dept. My Future ambitions are to go to college and get my RN degree and work my way through college to become a Pediatrician if every thing works out. I want to after college get married and settle down and start a family like most people do.

Crystal Delia Marrie Sabines

Nicknames: Cricket, Willie, Delia Marrie, and Foggit Sayings: Whatever, I'll never tell, Okay get a life, I don't care, Get lost, I dun now, Nah uh, Sexy, You did what Jenny and I always got into trouble when we were younger. One time we went under the seat and as the bus stopped we went all the way up front. Hanging out with Jenny at Ashley Thurston's house. I really never got picked on because of my brother Billy. In 10th I mate Stephanie Hughes and became best friends will her. Hang with her between classes and talking about what every thing and anything we need to. Talking to her about becomes an EMT. She like a sister to me like Jessica is. We are a big happy family that I'm going to miss. In Mr. Carey I was working in a group with Colleen and I needed her white out because I put something on the poster that was not support to be on the poster. I spilled her white out all over my hand and I did not realize it until Elmer told me about it. So I went and wash it off. Then in Mr. Palmer's class talking to Colleen, Justine, and Nikki about what was going on in our life. Then meeting Maria at home coming dance through Jessica Mills cause the first words out of her mouth was "Why my cousin is here". Then talking to her afterwards finding out things about her. We started to hang out together in Ms. Hodge's room. Maria and I made cookies with out following the directions and put the white chocolates chips cookies and everything together in one dish. Hanging in the hall talking to Stephanie E on the bus ride home. Meeting Crystal H and talking with her in Ms. Hodge's room we became friends. Talking to Erica, Tiff, and Jake V also in Ms. Hodge's room when we do not have homework. Losing a brother in the Fire Department during my 11th grade. The lasting impression that I want to leave with other that I was not hard to get along. A friend once told me that life is to short so make it the best as you come My future ambitions are to go to 2-year collage for further my education in the Medical field were a good friend left off.

Diane Marie Savory

Fondest Memories: All the great times with my friends: Shannon- sliding down a hill on a tire (one of shannon's GREAT ideas), Brandon and Simon riding their horses in the driveway, following the twins around at Chucks races. A friendship I will never forget. Best of luck at what ever you plan for the future. Katlyn- Going to Kyle's match in Sherbure with your dad. The sweet farm truck and the radio was playing the sound "Little Bitty". I will never forget that day. Beth- Going to dad's "look at that" lol Good times. Tyler & Jason- Going to Binghamton and having that guy follow us around. Tyler was my bf for the day. Thanx for always being there for me. You two better come see me when I go to college. Billy- You will always be my boy!!! Just dont get yourself into to much trouble cause I wont be here to keep you in line. Love ya boy!!! Maranda- Good times with Walt and Shawn. Driving to Walts in a snow storm!!! Hanging out in Mrs. Ford's room during lunch. That STUPID microwave!!! Tony- My bro!!! I love ya !!! Don't get into to much trouble went I leave. Stay cool and never forget I will always be here for you. Lating Impression: The one who could always be counted on, and had the coolest parents in the WORLD!!! Future: Go to college and become a physical therapist. Hopfully get a good job and make a great leaving for myself. *Class of 2004* It was fun!! *2005* I love you all & I will miss you guys.

Memories, Sweet Memories

When I came here everyone was nice I stared out Mr. Rathbuns window Because the snow had caught my eye Where I came from It never really snows Because in N.C. it's not very cold. It took me a while to get to know everyone's name But I got it and introduced that mine was Shane I remember the fight that I had in the gym But I didn't care if I lost or won in the end Because I tried to be respectful to everyone of you Until you disrespected me, then it was through I always tried to make people smile Because everyone likes to see a smile every once in awhile I can't believe that it's my senior year It's now time to say goodbye to everyone here Me and Colleen have had a blast It's going to be hard turning our backs We tried to help anyone we could I can only hope that you all understood. So goodbye and gook luck to all of you here I hope to see you all in the future near.

Jessica Lee Szabelski

Red head, Chunky-butt, Red, Sissy, 6th grade-8th grade: When I 1st moved here yeah right, not knowing anyone sucked, my first friend was Crystal Sabines. Going to dancing when i was in the middle school. Crystal and I asking Mrs. McNitt for Lunch detection so we didn't have to go outside. I had many ups and downs with friends and people in the middle school and always getting in trouble with teachers was fun until my mom found out. Chewing gum in Mr. Rogers class BIG NO NO. Mr. Cooper's class was a blast always talked to Crystal and got in trouble Mr. Cooper always calling me Red on the Head as a nick name. NEVER Shutting UP was one thing Crystal and me did the best...

9th-12th grade: High school years sucked for the most part until I learned to deal with my problems and to get along with people instead of fighting with them... In 9th grade the summer of 2000 was a blast when I went to CHICAGO with my aunt. In 10th grade Brittney Sheldon leaving crystal and me was hard because we lost our drama queen. Also Meeting Stephanie Hughes and becoming good friends with her. Stephanie having the biggest crush on my brother Pete and talking about him 24/7 my god its getting old. (haha) Walking to Stephanie Hughes House at 9 pm was fun until I started hearing thing then walking back to my house that night with Stephanie was fun dancing in the middle of the road and we thought we saw Purple Flying Monkey's. Hanging out with Jamie Lott. And her lovely saying, "I shake my dog like a leg" that was funny. Working with her at the auction house with Jamie and ERIC (haha). Becoming friends with Crystal H. Stephanie S you know why your in here. The last impression I would like to leave with others is that I wasn't a hard person to get along with and to always give everyone a chance and not to put them down just because their not in the in crowd. I plan on having my own family daycare center and having a family of my own and maybe going to collage.

Nicknames: Freaky geeky Dutch // Foreign guy Fondest memories: Teaching people Dutch words and customs. The lasting impression you want to leave with others: The Netherlands is an awesome country. Future ambitions: Be happy, do something for the world, make people aware of things in the world that can be improved.

Ashley Renae Wakefield

Nicknames: Bertha, Ashwee, Stickgirl, Sayings: Top Flight, EWWW!!! What's up Bud? Milk does a body good. Fondest Memories: High School was hard and sometimes rough but now that's all in the dust. 4 years of memories gone like the wind. Something I've done, forgive me I've sinned. If I offended you in any kind of way, don't worry because someday I'll pay. I didn't mean to be rude but it got me through, sometimes you just got to do, what you got to do. I'm kind of afraid of leaving this place but its time to move on and go @ my own pace. I was always rushed and never took my time. WATCH OUT because it's time for me to fly. Fly high above the ocean & high above the seas, it's finally time for me to leave. What's done is done, there's no going back, and all I wanted was some slack. Respect was something that's was lacked~ If you don't give it to me, I won't give it back. So if you knew me; you knew me well. One thing I hope is; I hope it was swell. People stood in my way & tried to make me fall~ but watch out because one day I will triumph you all. Lasting Impressions I want to leave with others: " If there's a bustle in your hedgerow, don't be alarmed now, It's just a spring clean for the may queen. Yes, there are two paths you can go by, but in the long run, there's still time to change the road you are on & it makes me wonder." Led Zeppelin Stairway to Heaven... Future Ambitions: Go do what I decide to do and then have fun with it. There's too much life left to know what I want to do. There are so many things out there I want to explore. When I decide what I want to do, I will do it to the best of my abilities. PEACE MOM AND DAD~ I LOVE YOU

What do you do in your spare time?

There is a variety of things that the students of Oxford find to do in their spare time. Even though the majority complain that there is nothing to do, some find activities that they enjoy participating in. There are students that are involved in dance classes or sports or compete in various kinds of tournaments. Many have jobs on top of their school work that takes up their spare time. Others enjoy just relaxing and being with friends, or going out to movies. Most of us can find things to do in our spare time even if it's just reading a good book to pass the time.

Robin Hamilton made a new friend, Meghan while in Washington D.C for a leadership conference.

TJ Frank competed in races and competitions with his four-wheeler this summer.

Jamie Lott is working hard at the Auction House, which is almost every Saturday.

Charlie Baker stands next to a 1971 Mustang Mach 1. He goes to car shows in his free time.

Joe Barrows was busy riding his new four-wheeler this summer.

Nicole Edick went to France as well as other European countries over summer vacation and saw the Eiffel Tower.

Justine Cummings and Colleen Mead hung out on Assateague Island this summer, soakin' up the sun with all their beach buddies.

Nichole Holling hung out with her friend from Oneonta this summer while she waited to start school at Oxford.

Our Jobs

All work and no play....or at least that's what our bosses think!

WE ALL HAVE MESSED UP AT WORK..WHAT HAVE YOU DONE WRONG?

Many think after school all students run home to a bag of Doritos and an X-Box, (I wish) but, all shock and surprise, there are a few who are rollin' in the money! Here's what we do to earn our minimum wage...

- ~"Uh, I have yelled at customers, dropped and broke salad dressing, pickles, hit customers with carts...and of course, there was the time I was locked in the freezer!" (Kelli L. Save-a-Lot)
- ~"One time I fell asleep at work and forgot to go out to my chair to watch the swimmers...oopsss." (Lindsay L. Oxford Pool)
- ~"A customer got the wrong order, a double whopper, and decided to serve it back to me...by throwing it at me. It hit the wall and just slowly slipped down" (Nichole H. Burger King)
- ~"I served a burger once with a yellow sticker stuck on the cheese." (Freas G. McDonalds)
- ~" I knocked over a whole entire shelf." (Eric C. Dollar Store)
- ~"I knocked over a 50 lb. box of nails on my 2nd day of work." (Adrian B. Canal Street Hardware)
- ~"I told a student I was a blackbelt....I was asked to give a demonstration, big mistake!" (Ms. Benson)
- ~"What? I'm perfect...no mistake here!" (Mr. Palmer)

Our Students Have Style!

GOOD STYLE, BAD STYLE, NO STYLE... HEY, AT LEAST WE'VE GOT SOMETHING!

Abi wears her slippers to school. Very stylish!

Rebecca decorated her one-strap bag. How cute!

Timisha and Reebe show us how to dress. Nice outfits ladies!

Crystal S wears colorful toe socks with her clear heels.

Here at Oxford we have all kinds of style. By the same token, everyone is original and there is no specific style for our school. It's not about looking good to everyone, it's about comfort and self-expression. It's really good to know that you can still be yourself at Oxford and wear what you want without a uniform. It gives our school a uniqueness since many schools have school uniforms now. We know that students from other schools look the same, so we take advantage of our privilege and get crazy and original with it.

Toni dresses all in Oscar, even when she's not grumpy.

Jamie And Colleen wear matching jeans-not even planned!

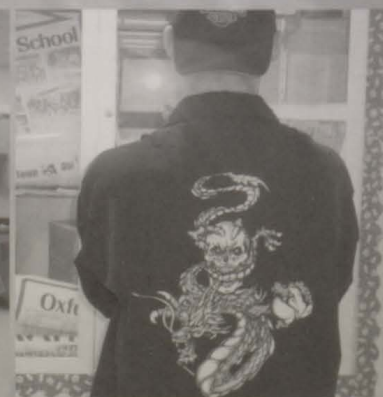

Reuban and Del have a seriously good sense of style as they soberly pose for a pic.

Dani poses for the camera as she shows off her own style

Eric shows the Grateful Dead band is still alive with his tie-dye t-shirt.

Shane has a dragon on the back of his button-up over shirt. Lookin' good man!

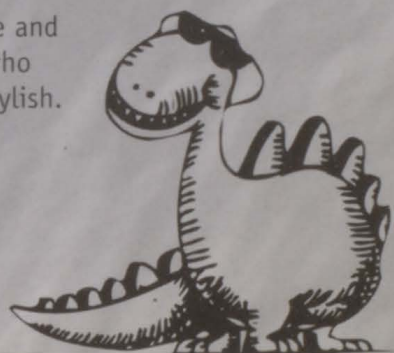

Meghan shows originality with her John Deere hat, bandana and her oh so sexy teeth. Mal has recently seen the dentist- maybe you should too Meghan!

Good to Go

Phil was voted best style and here he is with Brandi who makes him even more stylish.

■ Nate Ford, Steve Loomis and Matt Dicks show off the Abercrombie and Fitch look as they pass in the hallway. If only the smile matched the style!

■■■ Dayna Lehmer and Mrs. Videla-Schray pose together to show that they compliment each other when it comes to style.

■■■■ Rachel Pulver poses pretty and shows everyone that she has good style.

Heather is looking cute in her hat as she takes the time to show us her style.

Freas is festive with his beads. Hey ,didn't I see you at Mardi Gras?

Alex gives a creepy smile with his beanie and long coat.What are you hiding??

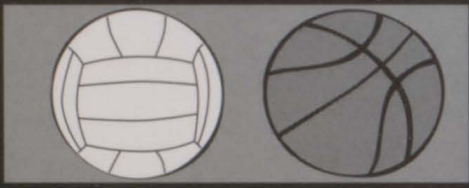

KristenBallard, Victoria Lints and Alysa Law let us know that school is a casual affair.

Oxford Track

This past year was the best showing of track athletes who made it to Class D Championships and State Qualifiers/

Sectionals. We did well and placed in several events. Justine Brown was named the Downsville Invitational MVP and set a track record of 12.9s in the 100m. Justine also was a double winner in the 100m and 200m at the Class D Section IV Championships and was also a part of the champion 4x400 relay team that also included Sarah and Theresa Lazarus and Jessica Brown. Robert Birdsall, Eric Betts, Jessica Brown, Justine Brown, David Crandall, Luke DeBrita, Nate Ford, Sarah and Theresa Lazarus, and Evan Romaine were the 10 people (the most ever sent) moved on to sectionals. Luke DeBrita proudly accepted 16th place with a P.R. of running the mile in 5 minutes, while Eric Betts also ended on a good note with a P.R. in the 400m of 54.9s.

FOOTBALL

"This year was another great year for Oxford football. The team went to the Sectional Finals for the 4th time in 6 years. Getting to that point is always extremely tough, but this year it was so much more difficult. After 3 games, the team was 2-1 heading into a string of league games. For the next 5 games we fought and struggled our way to a 7-6 record, losing 5 games in a row. After losing to Groton we thought our season was all over. Luckily, we had just enough to get into the playoffs as a fourth seed against our rival Newfield, who blew us out earlier in the season. No one gave us a chance at all, the only ones who believed in us was us. So we came into Newfield, a huge underdog, and shocked them by 20. That day saved our season and turned it from disappointment to successful. We made Newfield's house into our house and ended their dream season. Going into Sectional Finals we were again huge underdogs, but we came playing hard, fighting to go to the Dome. In a close and intense game, we came up short 6-0, being on the other end of the fluke play. Next year's team will be returning a lot and will be very successful. Good luck to those players who worked hard and represent Oxford with pride." -Nate Ford

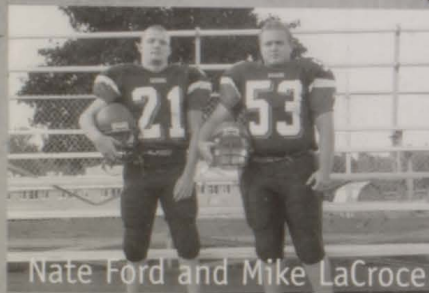

The team does the "Whose house" cheer after they win the game! Good Job Guys!!

This year's varsity FH'03 team was one in a million. The team had the best team unity that anybody has ever seen before. The most memorable times we shared were team sleepovers and dinners, Chinese fire drills, singing on the bus, and just all becoming the best of friends. Again this year, the team came out on top of the division. Another great achievement was beating our archrivals, the Greene Trojans, in the second round of sectionals. I think that that moment will never be forgotten by the whole team, the fans, and our Coach, Tim Ryan. Although this team achieved many great things, we had a heartbreak when we fell short to Windsor in the sectional finals game in double sudden death overtime with a defeat of 0-1. Even though we did not advance in the post-season as far as we all liked, we have so much to be proud of and formed friendships to be cherished for a lifetime. I LOVE YOU GIRLS!!!

The girls' soccer teams had a hard season, but they gave it their all. Although they may have lost some games, the girls still put forth some major effort.

In my experience, playing for them was a lot of fun and as a player I learned to communicate better and exercise more, otherwise you would be hurting.

The other thing I learned was no matter what the score was, you still had a team that appreciated you".

Oxford Girls Tennis- Queens of the Courts...

Our season had a rather rocky start this year. We took daily trips to Norwich because we lacked tennis courts until late September. But once we got our courts, and ran a marathon with Mr. Fazio, we were ready to go! "All Star" Rachel P's season consisted of being stung by a bee, kicking cars in Delhi, and joining Kelli and Jessica in the boys restroom. Whitney played singles for her first time and waited impatiently for her "rollerblades." Ashley, Ree Ree, the beast of our team! Hear her roar...meow! Jessica (Miss Change Purse) and Kelli (Miki D), 1st doubles, used their heads and won the 1st doubles all star award and "we like the way they do that right thurr." Amber and Courtney did great together when they weren't trying to beat each other with tennis balls. Christina and Danielle, exhibition doubles, did awesome! This was their first year on the team and they shocked everyone with their immediate skill. And, of course, Susy always kept our heads high, and the cooler full of food! This was our team this year and we worked hard together. We made the season fun, and went out with a bang. Many memories, many good times, and as always, it was another unforgettable season.

Boys Tennis Story

This past season was a learning experience for everyone, and the goal was to have fun. We had a bunch of new players that had never played before, and they began to pick up the game quickly. The team as a whole had a lot of fun, especially on the away matches, or our home matches in UV. No one can forget trying to find the Taco Bell in BG, or going to Afton, but somehow ending up at "Burger World" in Sidney. I'm looking forward to having another fun season with the team, and finally getting to play on the new courts.

The Oxford Wrestling team experienced another successful season this winter. Team highlights were a big victory over rival Greene and a runner-up finish at the Marathon duals. 7th grader Brandon Winter (112 lbs) and 8th grader Evan Prewitt (145 lbs) shared Rookie of the Year honors for their contributions at the Varsity level. Christian Taranto (275 lbs) and Mike Dougherty (130 lbs) were both D1 All-stars. Rocky Ryan (215 lbs) and Andy Hadlock were both Class D place finishers. Steve Loomis collected MAC and Class D titles and was 3rd in Section 4. Phil Grundner won his 2nd consecutive Class Championship and was 3rd in Section 4. JP O'Connor was named the outstanding wrestler in the Section 4 Tournament and capped his season by becoming Oxford's first ever 2X State Champion. ~Coach, Scott Green

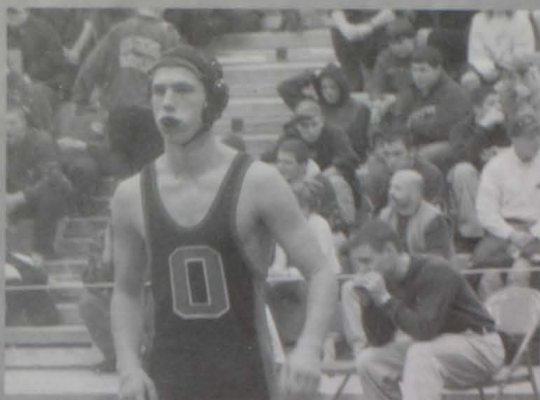

Tory wrestled at this year's Clyde Cole.

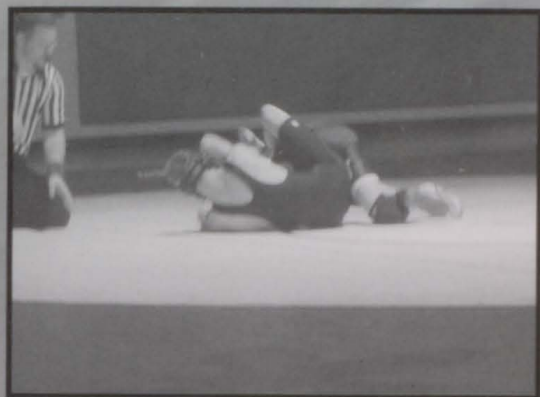

JP O'Connor took his 2nd step in becoming one of the greatest wrestlers in NYS history this year. O'Connor won his 2nd state title on February 28th at Alumni Arena in Buffalo, defeating Attica HS Pat Haggerty 3-2. O'Connor finished the season 42-1, winning championships at Clyde Cole, Deposit, Jeff Reese, MAC, Class D, and his 3rd Section 4 title. At the state meet he won his first 3 matches by pin OT tech fall before beating Haggerty for the 3rd time this season. With 2 seasons left, He is sure to leave his mark on Oxford, Section 4 and New York Wrestling history.

WinterGuard

Winterguard tells a little something about this year.

This year in guard we have changed our name, as well as the type of show. Oxford has always done soft and pretty shows. Not this year!! Our song was the "White Rabbit". This song has shown that in the time we had off, as a guard we have grown in size and strength. The show portrays Alice trying to escape Wonderland but in the end of the song/show she is trapped, unable to escape. I enjoy and encourage people to join Winterguard because it allows you to show individuality, and it gives you the chance to work together. It also gives individuals the chance to perform in front of hundreds of people who are cheering for you as a team. The feeling of being out there is unexplainable.

Britany is striking a pose with her flag. You're awesome Brit!!

Flashpoint is a fantastic source of exercise and excitement for anyone who is up to a great challenge. This year we competed in 9 shows and came out successful for our first year back in the Mid-York Colorguard Circuit. Led by our instructor, Carol Sensbach, an internationally acclaimed judge and instructor, and assisted by two outstanding drumcorps alumni, Will Gulini and Brian S. we had an awesome time and learned a lot. Winterguard is a sport of color, drill, heart, technique, and dedication. It is possible to turn someone from scared of flying flags or rifles to someone who has a greater sense of pride and fearlessness.

The Winterguard girls are working really hard to be the best. As you can see the girls know exactly what they are doing.

2003 Varsity Softball

Coach: Margo Barrows

The past varsity season brought back a young team to field with seven returning players. The season was full of growing pains as our record resulted in only one win. Perhaps the most challenging part of the year was the weather. Starting the season two weeks late due to snow put a hold on any outdoor practice. Then, with freezing temperatures, many games brought back the winter coats, hats, and mittens. Although the season was rough, it was full of laughs and improvements. Each person on the team grew in confidence as their skills expanded. Our attitudes made the season a winning one for us as we set small goals and gave each other support. As the team saying best put it "Attitude is a little thing tha makes a HUGE difference."

What we do....

Many people think that all student government does is organize dances and Spirit Week, but they are mistaken. Student government was formed in our school as a way for students to become active in the community, volunteer their time and become good leaders. This year's group has done all three. Along with planning for the fun activities in our school, the student government has volunteered at a local homeless shelter, and collected non-perishable food and coats for the cold winter months. Also, our student government would not be anything without our amazing advisor, Mrs. Burcroff. She has done so much for us, and I just want to thank her on behalf of the whole student government.

'03-'04 Chorus

Chorus is a great program that shows off all the great vocal talent that fills Oxford Academy High School. Those who are in Chorus are musically well-rounded individuals who have great pride for the chorus as well as themselves. Chorus is full of wonderful experiences. The ultimate experience unquestionably being the experience of performing the songs that Mr. Moren and Mr. Wilcox help us perfect. The Chorus program is a very respected and appreciated program that would most definitely be nothing without the great individuals in it, and of course the very talented teachers that direct it. Thank you to all those who are involved with the Chorus program at Oxford Academy High School.

Our Story...

Mr. Wilcox

Our band is a top organization in this school, and full of our most motivated students. You will see us rushing off to band on sausage day, mouths full, not wanting to be late. We even have a new director this year, who is an asset in our marching band, seeing as how he was the Drum Major at Syracuse University. This year we are practicing and putting all our effort into what we promise will be amazing performances. We plan on excelling in every aspect this year, and making Oxford proud.

-Kelli LaCotta

Mr. Bankert

Marching Band 2003 was, of course, yet another great year for Oxford. The band and our drum majors, Paul Williams and Kenny Menard, rocked it up with their three songs "76 Trombones," "Jump in the Line," and "The Lion King." We traveled to Ohio and played in front of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame where people sat outside listening intently. After we played, we toured the Hall of Fame. Later we ate a huge dinner and returned to our hotel, where we sat up for hours hanging out, swimming in the pool, or eating popcorn in the lobby. The next morning, we were dragged out of bed at what I swear was the crack of dawn. But thankfully we were up and dressed because about 30 minutes later, what sounded like a rocket launching, was the fire alarm. We sat outside on a rather chilly day while the hotel cleared out and we simply laughed at all the Oxford geniuses who tried to use the elevator to evacuate the building. Then later on that year, at Sherburne, we had another great performance. Although we didn't win overall, we still pulled off one heck of a show, and proudly brought home our trophies. All in all, Marching Band '03 was an awesome year and undoubtedly we'll all be back to do it again next year.

Story by Kelli LaCotta

Hhhmmmm...If I fall on my butt now, do you think the judges will give us extra points out of pity?? Haha, yay! Go Oxford!

Drum Major Kenny Menard leads us down the streets in Sherburne. "Back that thang up!"

Danielle Jackson and the band are ready to start the show.

Exchange Students see the world.....

Coucou Oxford,

I hope that this year has been as fulfilling for everyone as it has been for me. Being an exchange student has probably been the most difficult thing I have ever taken on in my life. Being an ocean from my family, my home, my friends, and all that I know really took a toll on me when I first arrived. Little by little everything started to find a place, the language, friends, the culture, school and living in a huge city with tons to do. Now 5 months later everything is awesome. I've made friends from all corners of the world; France, Spain, Brazil, Australia, Mexico, Finland, Canada, Japan, Thailand, I have great host families who help me every day and make me feel a part of their families, and I'm really starting to open my eyes to the world. I've never learned so much in such little time, being here's really made me focused and interested in things that I never cared about or never knew existed. And the time passes quickly; once you can put the dictionary down, start making friends by the handful, visit different cities, countries, you realize just what kind of opportunity you've made for yourself. I encourage all of you who dream of seeing the world to start by becoming an exchange student. This is a chance of a lifetime that I'm so proud of myself for doing, for growing, and for learning so much than ever before.

All my love and best wishes for everyone please take care, and I'll see you all soon after you read this.

Bisous xoxo

Siê Ja! Jak Tam?

Greetings from Poland! My name is Paul Williams and I'm here in Wroclaw, Poland this year representing the USA, New York, and Good'ol Oxford Academy as a Rotary Exchange Student. Just like you students, I have been going to school, just my school is taught all in Polish and so is all the work. I have made many friends here really fast, not from only Poland but from all over the world. I have been able to teach them a bit about Oxford and about you guys. People in my school now know that Oxford, NY does not look like New York City. They also found out that you can't tip a cow and that there are places where people drive lawn mowers as a means of transportation. This has been an awesome experience and I would encourage anyone to do it as well.

Narazia, Paul

Robin van den Berg

Hello everyone! I'm Robin, the Rotary exchange student from Holland. This year I lived in Oxford to experience the culture and American lifestyle, while staying with three different host families throughout the year. I must say it was quite something! There were a lot of nice experiences, things to find out and friends to make, and this is a year I won't forget. An example of the things I did: I had nice trips to NYC, Boston, Niagara Falls and more, made lots of friends in my class and the soccer and basketball teams, and learned the life on a farm. Skiing and snowboarding was great too since we don't have this many mountains (or hills as you call them here) in Holland! I sometimes missed my home back in the Netherlands of course, but the Rotary and my host families could help me with everything I needed and I kept contact through e-mail and phone. Overall I had a great time and I'm taking wonderful memories of my Oxford year home.

Stay drug free

As a student I really like working with these programs to help my peers and younger persons understand the danger of certain things. People who are in these programs teach everyone about bullying, peer pressure, abuse, drugs and alcohol. When kids are little their parents tell them, "Sara, drugs are bad. Don't do them". Until kids see the truth of what drugs and other harmful things do to their bodies, that probably won't work for long. As a student I want to help these kids realize what they are doing. We don't need children coming to school hurting themselves and other people when they are drunk or high. People don't realize that this happens more than we know. S.A.D.D and A.D.S.I.P help me spread these ideas to kids in my school district or kids I come across.

HUGS NOT DRUGS

ADSIP members take their second day of training. While they are training they do a little role playing. In this skit Stephanie, Crystal, Kelly and Tiffany are deciding whether or not to hitch-hike or wait for Kelly's sister.

In ADSIP students help younger children understand things. But in this case the children are trying to make Stephanie give them her lunch money.

A guest speaker came to our school in the spring of 2003 to talk to us about drugs and alcohol. He told us how he sailed around the world solo. He also showed us beautiful pictures of the ocean and of his boat. This year we will most likely have a mock car accident around prom so people understand what drinking and driving can do to you. We see commercials and read the paper about alcohol related accidents, but students don't get it. They see but don't hear it so why not show them in the best way we know how!!

THE YEARBOOK STAFF:

The yearbook staff is very proud of the time and effort they put into creating this yearbook for the school. We take a lot of time to go take pictures of all the events that happen in our school community. It takes a long time to put it all together but when it's done we are all really proud of our accomplishments. We have to meet deadlines for the company that assembles the yearbook and sometimes it's difficult to meet them. It's a good way to learn about being an editor and the aspects of a job in that field. It's a great experience for a student and it looks great on college and job resumes. It was a really cool experience for me and I learned a lot from the class. Colleen Mead

Special thanks to Mr. Martin Snaville and his students for their art work contributions and written submissions.

Literary magazine
Mrs. Anderson is head of the literary magazine, and Brett Murphy, Nicole Edick and Jessica Horshinski are the editors. The members start meeting during activities, study hall and after school to start collecting work like writings, essays, and art work from students (K-12) in January. They start sorting through the submissions and choose the best ones. They also review some of last year's submissions to possibly be submitted in this year's volume. In April they do their final selection and start typing the pages and photocopying the art work. This is where it all starts coming together. The group publishes the magazine the last week of June. The magazine is then presented to the seniors, public library, school libraries, principals, the superintendent and to all the students whose works were published.

What am I doing again?? Jenny looks a li'l confused about what to do.

Cara seems focused on her story. Keep typing, almost done!

Think, Think, Think. Stacey tries to pull the thoughts from her head.

JOURNALISM The journalism class puts together the Blackhawk Express, which is our school newspaper. The class meets every other day and they work on the paper. Every student in the class learns how to use Microsoft Publisher and they put out a paper every 2 weeks. The paper has school news, reviews, advice columns and also has a special feature that tells about 2 teachers per issue. The paper will soon be on our school web site thanks to Nicole Edick that in her Web Design class.

Mrs. Hall started teaching near Schenectady in 1971. In 1991, she started her career here at Oxford. She is retiring this year and getting married to her now-retired fiance. They are moving to North Carolina to buy a house near Brevard, NC, a western community. She plans to take up golf, do lots of reading, arts and crafts, and is excited to decorate her new home. She also plans on traveling around the United States. The things she will miss most are her colleagues as well as her students. The thing she will miss least is the grading of papers every night and changing of state requirements which didn't just frustrate her, it also frustrated the students. She has seen many changes throughout the years and will be proud to be a retired teacher of Oxford Academy. Her words of Wisdom: "We cannot control all the events in our lives, but we can choose how we react to them. A person chooses to be happy."

Social Studies

Psychology Class Jenn and Shane are getting cards to play a game of charades, but everyone knows it's an experiment developed by Rachel and her group.

Social Studies is a big thing in a child's education. Social studies helps students learn about everything like empires and wars, treaties and other interesting things. Then you can learn about the economy, government, the United States from beginning to now, and in psychology you can learn about the human brain, child development and you get to do lots of interesting things. Social studies is the best thing ever and it helps you with everything. If you go on the TV show "Who Wants to be A Millionaire" and they give you a question about social studies you're like, "Duh, I know that. I learned that in high school!!" See, I always told you Social Studies was important.

Some of the choices for rotations for this program include 4-H, Bowman Lake State Park, and working with various departments of the DEC. Students may also choose dairy farming, fish or fruit farming, goat or sheep farming, and tree farming. Some other businesses that offer their services are Agway, Harrington's Greenhouses, Kraft Foods, Madison Wind Farm, Mayhood's Sporting Goods, NBT, NYSEG, Raymond Corporation, and Rogers Environmental Education Center.

New Visions

Allied Health

New Visions is a program through Boces that lets high school seniors explore a field of interest, before heading off to college. New Visions Allied Health takes place in the Hospital. Throughout the year we go on clinical rotations ranging from EMT to Emergency Room to Radiology! We also spend time in the classroom with our instructor, Mrs. Post, and with our English teacher, Mrs. Bartlett. We have done power point presentations, debates, and have written many papers. New Visions is an excellent program; it gives students the chance to see what a certain profession is all about, along with earning college credit through SUNY MORRISVILLE. I would recommend the program to anyone interested in the Health Field.

Agriculture and Environmental Sciences

New Visions Agriculture and Environmental Sciences is a program designed to transition high school seniors from high school to post-secondary education in the environmental and/or agricultural fields. The classroom is at the Cornell Cooperative Extension of Chenango County and is taught by Mrs. Bartlett.

I had many opportunities like experiencing lobbying in Albany to interning at the fire house in Norwich. I had the chance to develop very good friendships with people from different school districts that have taught me a lot about different points of view. Through this program I have become very responsible and I believe it has prepared me for college. Meg Abbott BOCES helps you make friends and it helps you for your future in whatever field you are willing to take. BOCES has many courses. It has Culinary Arts, Early Child Care, Criminal Justice, Automotives and many more.

Weeder,

Congratulations!! We are so proud of you and your accomplishments over the past 13 years. This isn't the end - it's just the beginning. You are about to enter the REAL world which is both exciting and scary at the same time. You may need a few more cooking lessons but you'll do fine! You have your whole life ahead of you. Your dreams belong to you so pursue them because only you can make them happen. If you let them fall by the wayside, chances are when you go back to get them, they won't be there. Always remember that wherever you are or whatever you do, you will always have our unconditional love. Life is one big lesson that we never stop learning. Live your life to the fullest. You'll have fewer regrets that way.

We love you lots!!
Mom, Dad & Kimmy

Stephanie, Congratulations.

Since you were a little girl, you knew what you wanted to be. To this day you still do. So with this big day coming your way we will be behind you all the way.

With all of our love.
Dad & Mom & Erik & Grandma

Dayna, p.p, m.b, my little girl growing up so fast. You are so special and such a great friend. We have done so much together...Hawaii, cruises, concerts, etc. with so much yet to come! Meeting and hanging with Steven Tyler was definitely a high point! Stay the wonderful girl you are.
Love, Mom

Kelli Congratulations!

We love you. You were beautiful from the day you were born. We are so proud of you.

Love, Mom, Dad, CJ & Kyle

KCR

Congratulations on a job well done!
Remember that we will always be there for you.

We're so proud of you!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Kellie, Mike & Jess

Diane

We are proud of you and love you very much.

We know whatever you do in life you will be good at it and work hard at it.

We also want you to know that we will always be there for you.

Love always,
Mom & Bob

Adios, school
"Trio Skip Day!!"

Give me a break..Someone needs to hold up this wall.

Hurry up, take my picture and give me a book.

Jenny- I'm sure dad and Uncle Jerry are both watching you on your special day.
We are proud of you. Be yourself. Keep that beautiful smile and you will go far.
Congratulations.
Love - Mom

Congratulations, ice girl.
Frank

Jenny- You've grown up so fast. I remember the day you were brought home. God I hated you, but it soon turned into love.
We are as close as any two sisters can get. When you lived with me it was a learning experience for both of us. I had to act more like an adult, and you learned the true meaning of the word grounded. You're grown into a beautiful young woman and we love you. Graduation is coming quick. We wish you the best in whatever you do.

Love, Tracy & Chris

Congratulations, to our very own Princess ka-ka-poo!

From the very beginning you've marched to the beat of your own drum, playing in that very pretty head of yours. To say that you are different and unique would be an understatement! You were the only little girl that wanted to be a pink witch, and hula hula pussycat for Halloween, which you always thought was a holiday created just for your benefit. We realized you looked at the world in a different light right from the beginning when every time we passed a graveyard you would perk up and exclaim, "Look a people garden!" Your determination to get what you wanted was as evident back in the beginning as it is now; you would follow your mom from room to room throwing tantrums until you got the attention you needed, everyone else you just charmed with your beauty and wit. In the end you got your way and somehow it always ended up being exactly what was appropriate at the time. Keep that sensible head; going into the future, you'll need it as you go off into the great big wide world a year earlier and year younger than the rest of you friends. We know that you will succeed at everything you set your sights on.

Success is always achieved by those individuals that stand apart from the crowd and refuse to take "no" for an answer; and darling you do that better than anyone else!

We're proud of you! All our love, Mom, Trenty, Evan, Grandma & Bandpa

*Our Beautiful Amanda,
From the time when you were small and simple,
Smiling with those dimples.
To now when you're seventeen,
Our very own Homecoming Queen.
At times when we were blue
You were our families' glue.
We know you will succeed,
In everything you do.
Follow your dreams, have fun,
Most of all keep being you.
Remember we will always be here for a smile,
Just pick up the phone and dial.
You truly are a wonderful daughter and sister.*

Ashley

Like all Mothers and Fathers sometimes wonder where life will lead you.
However, when I look at you, I see so many strengths and I know that regardless of lifes ups and downs these strengths in you will carry you through life.

Take hold of these unique qualities and know the value of them. They are part of our one and only daughter, who we love dearly.

Love, Mom & Dad

Nicole,

I am very proud of you and your accomplishments.
You have continued to shine through even with all the changes. Be yourself and you will make a great nurse!

To our Punkie:

It is so hard to believe that you have grown up so fast and are graduating from Oxford Academy. It seems like yesterday that we sent you off to the primary school. We have shared so many happy memories with you that we obviously cannot fit them all on one page. We have enjoyed every step of the way and we certainly look forward to many more wonderful days ahead. You have a good head on your shoulders, so continue to use it to your advantage to move forward in life. Your family is so very proud of you and the many accomplishments you have achieved. A word of advice: Remember that those shiny balls on pedestals are not bowling balls, so please do not sit on them Buck.... 😊

Congratulations Brandi Lee Estelow, Class of 2004

We all Love you very much,

Mom, Dad, Kisha, Chelsea, Stevie
Grandma and Grandpa Diamond

We all have , within our reach, the potential to do great things. The difference between the possible and impossible is sometimes merely perception and attitude. It's the ability to look beyond ourselves, beyond our own strength, and have a faith to believe in the unbelievable. Limitations are the product of the world.....think Big!

(Bill Stross)

It seems like you have done this your whole life, Nate, for when others thought you couldn't, you always showed you could.....and you never, ever stopped believing. Along the way you have made your family very proud and have brought us profound joy.

Your journey is now taking you on a different path. Just keep believing in yourself....you'll be fine.

Congratulations on all your many achievements.....in the classroom, in the concert hall and on the playing field. With love and abounding admiration.....

Dad, Mom, and John

PS Remember, not all things are "mandatory"

Genevieve,

From the moment of birth, to the first day of school, to the moment they called your name as the Prom Queen, we've been very proud parents. You always make us smile, and you never fail to make us laugh. We've watched you grow into a beautiful young woman and we know your good nature, honesty and focus will bring you a great life. We look forward to your wonderful future.

With all our love,

Rachel...

Now that you are almost grown, I look back and ask myself...did I tell you? Did I tell you all that I felt was important, or was it lost in the everyday shuffle of our lives?

Did I tell you to be thoughtful? Not to be a martyr or a doormat, but to be aware of other people, and their needs. Live a life of courtesy born of caring.

Did I tell you to be bold, and to be not afraid of the unknown? Live life to the fullest and meet each new experience with joy and anticipation.

Did I tell you to be cautious? To temper your daring and sense of adventure with good judgment and consideration?

Did I tell you never to be afraid to speak out when you don't believe or where there is room for improvement? Work for what you believe in a positive way.

Did I tell you to laugh, to dance, and to sing? There is a lot in life that is hard, but take it as it comes and find the good.....and always make time to dance.

Did I tell you these things as we went along the way? If I did, then I am humbly grateful. If I did not, then you must choose them for yourself. Your life is yours to build as you choose. I hope it will be a good one.
Love always, Mom

Always the brightest star in the sky, with a real glow.

Don't ever let the real world get you down. You are above that.

Rain will always stop.

In the midst of the clouds, you will

And if you really look, there is a rainbow.

Now it's your turn, go do your best.
