Looking Back

Coming Full Circle

Coming Full Circle represents the journey we have made from the very first day of our school careers up until graduation- and our hopes and dreams for what happens beyond. We must look back on our pasts, live for today, and plan for our futures. Coming Full Circle. One journey's end and the beginning of another.

Tell us something about you that we don't already know.

"I have a WEIRD dream! I have always wanted to put my face into a birthday cake. (Like in American movies) "

What's your favorite American meal?

"Peanut Butter and Jelly! I'm lovin' it!"

What's your favorite English phrase?

Bryant LaTourette

The following is a selection from an e-mail Bryant sent home from Germany.

"I was homesick for the first three days, but then things got a lot better.....The week after I got here school started, so it's so much different here. The kids basically stay in the classrooms, and the teachers change classes. I have been enrolled in a Deutschkurs (German class) but it's hard for me to follow along because I enrolled a little late. My German is getting better though,, and I am understanding a lot more."

A decorative graphic in the top left corner features a central circle containing a large, stylized letter 'A'. This central circle is surrounded by a ring of smaller circles, some of which are solid black and others are light gray. The word 'Autographs' is written in a bold, black, serif font, starting from the 'A' and curving downwards and to the right across the page.

Kyle,

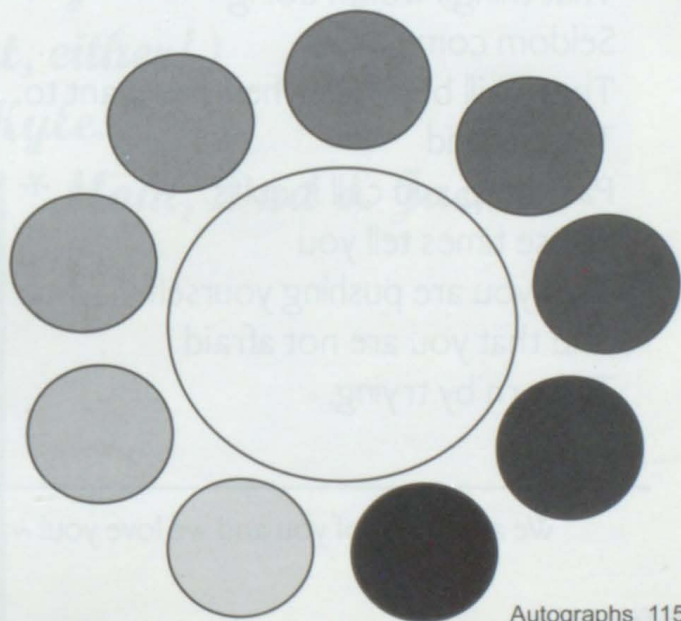

You have grown up into such a talented son. Your family is truly blessed to have such a wonderful son and brother.

From playing football, basketball, wrestling, soccer, baseball, and track, you have shown your talents in many ways. We can't find a sport you aren't good at. And performing in the talent shows on guitar and drums, and playing piano in the band, your talents are endless. You thrive on being active. No matter what you do, you give at least 100%.

Boy's State with "Lovers"!

We are so very proud of you. You are an exceptional young man. College will be a wonderful adventure for you. Everywhere you go, you make friends easily, as you are truly a great person. (Being "ripped" doesn't hurt, either.)

We love you so very much. Love, Mom & Dad

“Dream Big”

If there were ever a time to dare,
To make a difference
To embark on something worth doing
It is now.
Not for any grand cause, necessarily-
But for something that tugs at your heart
Something that is your dream.
You owe it to yourself
To make your days count.
Have fun. Dig deep. Stretch.

Dream Big

Know though.
That things worth doing
Seldom come easy.
There will be times when you want to
Turn around
Pack it up and call it quits.
Those times tell you
That you are pushing yourself
And that you are not afraid
To learn by trying.

Because with an idea,
Determination and the right tools,
You can do great things.
Let your instincts, your intellect
And let your heart guide you.

Trust

Believe in the incredible power
Of the human mind
Of doing something that makes a difference
Of working hard
Of laughing and hoping
Of lasting friends
Of all the things that will cross your path
Next year
The start of something new
Brings the hope of something great.
Anything is possible
There is only one you
And you will pass this way but once.

Live it well.

We are proud of you and we love you! ~ Dad, Mom, Ethan, Nana, Papa, Grandpa John, and Kathy

Kyle,

You have grown from such an adorable little boy into such a talented, athletic, and intelligent young man. Our family is truly blessed to have such a wonderful son and brother.

From playing football, basketball, wrestling, soccer, baseball, and track (the Pentathlon!), to snowboarding, snowmobiling, water-skiing and four wheeling, sports are truly your passion! We can't find a sport you aren't good at! Add performing in the talent shows on guitar and drums, and playing trumpet in the band, your talents are endless. You thrive on being active. No matter what you do, you always give at least 200%. (Even at Boy's State with "Corporal, Sir!")

We are so very proud of you! You are an exceptional young man. College will be a wonderful adventure for you. Everywhere you go you make friends so easily, as you are truly a good person. (Being "ripped" doesn't hurt, either!)

We love you so very much, "Jerry Kyle!"

**Mom, Dad & Jackie.**

Felicia,

It's hard to believe you are graduating already sweetie. But what a wonderful collection of memories you have left for us to reflect upon.---From watching you dance in the nutcracker with your father as motherginger, to playing different sports throughout high school, soccer, basketball, track. To performing in the Wizard of Oz, The High School Musical, and Kiss Me Kate. Also, the blessing of your missions trip to Venezuela. WOW! And your journey in just beginning

Some of the greatest joys in our lives have been watching you mature into the amazing young woman you have become. You are a precious gift from God, who has blessed you with so many talents. It is with great pride and joy that we express how proud we are of you as you graduate and begin a new and exciting phase of your life.

*Congratulations !
"Class of 2008"*

*We will always love you,
to the moon and back and more.*

*Love,
Mom, Dad and Wes*

Congratulations,

Hannah is a very strong and persistent young lady. We are all very proud of her. (We all agree that her driving is much better than her trying to ride a bike.)

We love you Hannah!
Your family

Erin,

What a wonderful young lady you have become. You have brought so much pride and joy to us. We have truly enjoyed these 18 years of watching you grow. Your quick wit and ability to make us laugh has been appreciated this year! You are truly a special daughter.

*You're loving, smart, hardworking and fair..
You certainly are ONE OF A KIND!
You're sensitive, beautiful, honest and good..
You certainly are ONE OF A KIND!*

We hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known.

As much as we'll be sad to send you off to college, we know you are ready for the challenges ahead. Congratulations on your achievements, we couldn't be more proud of you!

*We love you very much,
Dad, Mom and Alysa*

Jeffrey,

For all the smiles, laughter and loving ways as a son and a big brother, we thank you.

We are so proud of you and know you will be a huge success in life.

We love you~Congrats!

Amanda Panda,

You're a medley of opposites. You are outspoken and sensitive at the same time. Roma's has your cell phone number on speed dial, so they can call you in. You are loyal and ready to defend your friends. We are thankful for the visits to our home by your friends.

As your sister said, "Be a kick &$$ trombone player!" After years of band you have achieved this.

Basketball has been part of your high school years. You wanted to work your senior year to pay for college. AAU basketball kept all of us on the road for years. Your coach labeled you "train" as post player. Remember gus mackers.

Soccer has been a Cinderella story with your trip to sectionals this year. The ride was great, being goalie was a challenge. After 4 years of varsity soccer and 2 shoulder injuries, you've learned to get ready for the incoming forward.

Thanks for making Mom and Grandma smile over the years with your raw humor. I can remember you teaching the AAU team to sing, "Save a horse, ride a cowboy".

Love,

Mom, Dad, Danielle, Chad

Your true journey is just beginning and we are certain you will take it on with the same energy. We will be there to continue support and cheer you on in whatever you do.*

Amanda,

On his TV show, Mr. Rogers said, "When a bubble's gone, you don't see it anymore with your eyes. And when an opera is over, you don't hear it anymore with your ears. But you can remember it. You can remember what bubbles look like and what operas sound like and what friends feel like. And you'll always have them with you in your memory." What beautiful memories you have made.

Dear Hollyann,

Words can not describe the enormous pride and love that we have in our hearts for you. We have loved every moment watching you grow up into the wonderful person that you have become. God has blessed you with so many gifts. He gave you a great sense of humor, intelligence, inner beauty and the gift of music. There is a famous saying by Erma Bombeck, "When I stand before God at the end of my life, I would hope that I would not have a single bit of talent left, and could say, "I used everything you gave me".
