

May, 2024 | Issue 1

WELCOME!

We at the Oxford Memorial Library are excited to launch our new publication of a monthly newsletter. Whether you are reading this as an email or on paper, thanks for checking in on what's new at the library.

Oxford Memorial Library NEWSLETTER

LIBRARY EVENTS

May 2nd at 6:00pm
Fairy House Craft Night

May 11th at 10:00am
Monarch Voyage Pollinator
Presentation with Solitude
Farmz

May 15th at 5:30pm
Adult Coloring Night

May 25th at 10:00am
Plant and Seed Swap

May 27th
CLOSED for Memorial Day

NEWS

Exciting developments are underway at the local library! Proudly stocking copies of Vicky House's latest publication, travel to Oxford in the past through amazing stories. But that's not all! The library is on the hunt for fascinating collections to adorn its display case, showcasing the diversity of community interests. Plus, mark your calendars for a series of upcoming events designed to entertain and engage patrons of all ages.

STAFF PICK OF THE MONTH

Gillian picked The Atlas Six by Olivie Blake this month. This dark academia fantasy book explores a world where magic is taught in universities and secret societies. Blake also touches on the lengths people are willing to go for knowledge and power.

