NEWS

Hello 2025!

We hope everyone had a great holiday and happy New Year! Thank you to everyone who visited the Oxford Memorial Library in 2024, whether you checked out books, attended programs, shopped the book sales, or any of the other ways a person can use the library. You are appreciated.

The New York State National Guard will be visiting the library to do a Disaster Preparedness Training with the Citizen Preparedness Corps. With extreme weather and storms becoming more frequent you don't want to miss out on this program. (This program was originally scheduled for December 7th but had to be postponed)

last year's language

And next year's words await another voice
