NEWS

Summer Reading Programs may be ending, but the fun continues at the library! Our final week of summer reading events include mini beaded plants, painted book bricks, and a TIE DYE PARTY!

On August 19th a presenter from the Chenango County Historical Society will be doing a presentation on local photographer Vernon Duroe. It is also World Photography Day. Stop by the library book sale on the 14th, 15th, or 16th.

Celebrate 125 Years of the Oxford Memorial Library on August 23rd! We will have a kids carnival, free food, raffles, and a history exhibit! This event has been sponsored by Chimera Integrations.
